

CONTENTS

1.	Introduction	1
2.	Ancestors and family	5
3.	Education	10
4.	In England in the 1930s	14
5.	Prague, pre-invasion	17
6.	The prelude to war	24
7.	Refugees from Prague – The Background	28
8.	Doreen in Prague 1938	34
9.	Doreen in Prague 1939	42
10.	Invasion	62
11.	Loose ends after Prague	81
12.	Ministry of Economic Warfare	104
13.	Political Warfare Executive	108
14.	Middle East Supply Centre	113
15.	UNRRA – United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration	129
16.	Post-war – The 1940s	160
17.	The 1950s and 60s	171
18.	Retirement	182
19.	The Sudetens in Canada	187
20.	Robert Stopford's book	192
21.	Death and tributes	198

Appendix A: Money deposited in London by the Hodžas	203
Appendix B: Robert Stopford on the Runciman Mission	206
Appendix C: Anglo French Meeting September 1938	208
Appendix D: Refugees in the British Legation March 1939	211
Appendix E: Wenzel Jaksch's escape	215
Appendix F: Wenzel Jaksch's security file in 1956	218
Appendix G: David Garnett on agricultural propaganda	219
Appendix H: Directive on the death of Admiral Darlan	222
Appendix I: Letter from British Embassy in Tehran to Russian Embassy, September 1944	223
Appendix J: UNRRA personnel	225
Appendix K: James Klugmann	228
Appendix L: James Klugmann monitoring August 1945	234
Appendix M: Report on food conditions by Doreen Warriner	236
Appendix N: Address by Nancy Lambton at Doreen's memorial service	239
Appendix O: Published works	244
Abbreviations used in the text	257
Sources	259
Index of People	269
Index of Organisations, etc.	275
Index of Places	277
Endnotes	279