

Contents

Introduction: The Church Must Communicate While Reforming Itself	7
Methodology	15
1. Church Communication: From Past to Present	18
1.1 Christ the Communicator and Storyteller	18
1.2 From Eyewitness Accounts to the First Media War	19
1.3 On the Way to the 20 th Century	21
1.4 The Second Vatican Council (1962–1965)	23
1.5 Conciliar Challenges for the Media	27
1.6 Still on the Way to the 21 st Century?	29
1.7 Pope Francis – Facilitator of New Communication?	32
1.8 The Recent Experience of “Two Popes” and Communication Obstacles	41
2. The Interaction of Religion and the Media	44
2.1 To the Paradigm of Interactivity	44
2.2 The Influence of the Internet on Religious Experience	46
2.3 Be Aware of Images!	48
2.4 The Church in “Hi-Tech” Society on the Way Towards “Cybertheology”?	50
2.5 The Catholic Church and the Digital Shift – Practical Application	52
2.6 Addition – Church Marketing, Televangelism, and Service Marketing	53
3. Credibility Crisis in the Church and Ways Out	56
3.1 History of the Abuse of Power in the Church and Clericalism	57
3.2 Character of the Crisis and Inner Opposition in the Church	66
4. Crisis Communication in an Organization	74
4.1 Typologies of Responses to Crises	75

4.2	“Servant Leader” for a “Wicked Crisis”?	77
4.3	“Wicked” Is Different From “Critical”	81
4.4	Alternative – Marion’s Philosophy of a Responsible Witness	83
5.	The Revolution of Normalcy	86
5.1	Mary Untier of Knots – Skandalon – Encounter	88
5.2	Brutta Figura	90
6.	Theoretical Conclusion	93
7.	Vatican Media Reform and Its Progress	95
7.1	Description of the Changes	96
7.2	Research and Its Methodology: In-Depth Interviews	100
7.3	Outcomes	103
7.3.1	Role of the Dicastery, Its Structure, History, and Complications	103
7.3.2	The Need for Reform and What Already Changed	109
7.3.3	A Defense of Papal Authority	116
7.3.4	Are the Church and Its Communication in Crisis?	120
7.3.5	A Strategy for This Era	123
7.3.6	Personal Experience and Stories	126
7.4	Conclusion of the Semi-Structured Interviews	128
8.	Findings from the Content Analyses	132
8.1	Catholic Media Communicating the Abuse Crisis: Case Study of the Vatican News	132
8.2	What Can the New Vatican Spokesman Do in the Era of the Abuse Crisis?	135
8.3	The Clergy Child Sexual Abuse and Its Cover-up in the Media: An Explorative Study of the Official Vatican Media and American Catholic Media in 2013–2020	137
8.4	Catholic Media in the Hands of Laypeople: Case Study of the Vatican Communication Chiefs’ Twitter Activities	139
8.5	Pope Francis: Religious Leadership, Credibility Crisis, and Vatican Media	141
9.	Outcomes	145
9.1	Discussion	147
9.2	Limits of the Research and Possibilities of Further Development	149
10.	Conclusion	150
	Glossary	151
	Bibliography	188
	Appendix	214