

Contents

Preface iii

PART ONE Understanding Argument 1

1 What Is Argument? 3

Why Study Argument? 6

Argument in the Twenty-First Century 7

DREW ALLEN AND GREGORY C. WOLNIAK, When College Tuition Goes Up, Campus Diversity Goes Down 9

Two higher education specialists argue that diversity is one victim of college tuition increases.

The Purposes of Argument 11

The Elements of Argument 14

The Ethics of Argument 17

So, Why Write Arguments? 19

2 Critical Reading of Written Arguments 20

Prereading 21

STRATEGIES FOR PREREADING 21

GRETA THUNBERG, How Dare You? 22

A teenage climate activist speaks out to the United Nations about the danger of climate change for her generation.

Reading with an Open Mind 24

KATHLEEN KENNEDY TOWNSEND, JOSEPH P. KENNEDY II, AND MAEVE KENNEDY MCKEAN, RFK Jr. Is Our Brother and Uncle. He's Tragically Wrong about Vaccines 25

Three of Robert F. Kennedy Jr.'s family members respond to his stance on vaccines.

Reading for Content and Structure 28STRATEGIES FOR ANNOTATING A TEXT 29*CHRISTOPHER ELLIOTT, A Tale of Two Airlines 29

A travel editor compares Spirit, a villain of an airline, and Southwest, a hero.

Summarizing 32RESEARCH SKILL Using Summaries in Research 33*OCEAN VUONG, Reimagining Masculinity 34

A prize-winning Vietnamese-American poet describes the anguish of being a gay man in a culture with a restrictive definition of masculinity.

Evaluating 36STRATEGIES FOR EVALUATING ARGUMENTS 37*AIMEE PICCHI, More Kids Are Working Dangerous Jobs Amid Weaker Labor Laws, Child Migration 38

A business reporter breaks down the insidious trend regarding illegal child labor and immigration.

ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Examining Written Arguments 39Assignments for Critical Reading of Written Arguments 40*3 Critical Reading of Multimodal Arguments 42*Visual Rhetoric 42*Photographs 43*ERIK MCGREGOR, Candlelight Vigil for Mass Shooting Victims (photograph) 44*MICHAEL CAMPANELLA, Friday School Strikes, August 2018 (photograph) 45*ANA FERNANDEZ, Fridays for the Future, Six Months Later (photograph) 46*DMITRY KOSTYUKOV, A Homeless Man and His Dog (photograph) 47*JOSEPH PREZIOSO, A Standoff over Immigration (photograph) 47*COURTENEY COKO MOORE, Little Boy Holds Hand of Crying Classmate (photograph) 48*Static Advertisements 49*ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Visual Rhetoric 49*WORLD WILDLIFE FUND, You Can Help. Stop Global Warming (advertisement) 50*AD COUNCIL, It Only Takes a Moment to Make a Moment (advertisement) 51*Political Cartoons 52*MATT WUERKER, Critical Race Theory (cartoon) 53*PETER KUPER, Justice Weighs Truth (cartoon) 54

Graphics	54
THEWORLD.ORG, Tobacco's Shifting Burden (infographic)	55
GUTTMACHER INSTITUTE, Monthly Abortion Provision Study (infographic)	56
Audio and Audiovisual Rhetoric	57
Commercials	58
JEEP, Dents (advertisement)	60
TODAY'S MILITARY, Fire Team (advertisement)	62
Podcasts	64
Speeches and Debates	66
ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Audiovisual Rhetoric	66
ELIZABETH WARREN, Remarks at the Edward M. Kennedy Institute for the United States Senate	67
The U.S. senator from Massachusetts addresses violence, voting, and economic injustice as tools used to discriminate against black people in America.
STRATEGIES FOR CRITICAL LISTENING	73
Online Environments	74
Social Media	75
WILLIAM WHARTON, "Peaceful" Act of Compassion	76
ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Online Environments	77
RESEARCH SKILL Evaluating Online Sources	78
Interactive Websites	78
AD COUNCIL, End Family Fire	79
Assignments for Critical Reading of Multimodal Arguments	83

4 Writing Argument Analysis 86

ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Argument Analysis 88

Writing the Thesis (Main Claim) 88

ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Writing the Claim for Analysis 89

Planning the Structure 90

ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Planning the Structure 92

Providing Support 92

Summarizing 92

Paraphrasing 93

ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Providing Support 93

Quoting 94

RESEARCH SKILL Incorporating Quotations Into Your Text 95

Integrating Your Sources 96STRATEGIES FOR SUMMARY, PARAPHRASE, AND QUOTATION 97*Reading and Practicing Argument Analysis 98*JAMES W. INGRAM III, Electoral College Is Best Way to Choose U.S. President 98

A political science professor defends our nation's procedure for electing its president.

HEALTHCARE MANAGEMENT, The Science Facts about Autism and Vaccines (infographic) 102

A graphic mixes images and text to present facts about the relationship between vaccines and autism.

BEN ADLER, Banning Plastic Bags Is Great for the World, Right? Not So Fast 104

A journalist reveals the complexity of the relationship between plastic bags and the environment to suggest there is no easy answer.

LESLEY WEXLER AND JENNIFER K. ROBBENNOLT, #MeToo and Restorative Justice: Realizing Restoration for Victims and Offenders (student essay) 108

Two law professors examine restorative justice in the context of the #MeToo movement.

DESTINÉE MILLER, Restorative Justice and the #MeToo Movement (student essay) 113

A student analyzes how Wexler and Robbennolt apply the concept of restorative justice to the #MeToo movement.

SABRA STAPLETON, How to Pick a President: Electoral College vs. National Popular Vote (student essay) 116

A student compares Ingram's view of the Electoral College with that of John Koza in Chapter 9.

Assignments for Writing Argument Analysis 119PART TWO Writing Argument 121*5 Approaches to Argument 123*Aristotelian Rhetoric 124

Ethos 124

Logos 125

Pathos 125

Ancient Rhetoric Today 126

ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Aristotelian Rhetoric 127

CHESLEY B. “SULLY” SULLENBERGER III, We Saved 155 Lives on the Hudson. Now Let’s Vote for Leaders Who’ll Protect Us All. 128

A former pilot who saved US Airways Flight 1549 in “the Miracle on the Hudson” argues for saving our democracy through voting.

LIZA LONG, I Am Adam Lanza’s Mother 130

In the context of the 2012 massacre at Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newtown, Connecticut, a mother describes what it is like to live in fear of her mentally ill son.

Rogierian Argument 133

ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Rogierian Argument 135

MALLORY SIMON, Gun Debate: Where Is the Middle Ground? 135

A reporter and editor focuses on the son of a shooting victim who pleads for some middle ground in the gun debate.

SARAH SELTZER, Teaching Trigger Warnings: What Pundits Don’t Understand about the Year’s Most Controversial Higher-Ed Debate 139

A journalist defends trigger warnings as more nuanced than a simple pro-con debate.

Stasis Theory 144

The Stasis Questions 144

Stasis Theory Claims 147

RESEARCH SKILL Narrowing Your Research 148

The Toulmin Model 149

The Claim 149

The Support 151

The Assumption 151

Toulmin and the Syllogism 152

ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS The Toulmin Model 153

ANGIRA PATEL, To Be a Good Doctor, Study the Humanities 153

A professor of pediatrics and medical education defends the need for medical students to study the humanities.

STEVEN REINBERG, Embryo Selection May Help Prevent Some Inherited Disorders 156

A journalist for a health newsletter explains how in vitro fertilization makes it possible to screen embryos for certain diseases before they are implanted.

Assignments for Approaches to Argument 157

6 Claims 159

Claims of Fact 160

ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Claims of Fact 161

RESEARCH SKILL Using Databases 162AMY FROIDE, Spinster, Old Maid or Self-Partnered: Why Words for Single Women Have Changed through Time 163

A history professor analyzes the language used historically to describe single women.

DOMTAR PAPER, Paper Because (advertisement) 166Claims of Value 167

Aesthetics 167

Morality 168

ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Claims of Value 169DEVORAH HEITNER, The Very Common, Very Harmful Thing Well-Meaning Parents Do 169

An expert on young people's use of digital media and technology makes the case against parents monitoring their children's activities.

ANN HORNADAY, Christopher Nolan's "Oppenheimer" Is a Supersize Masterpiece 172

A film critic reviews Nolan's 2023 biopic, analyzing the ways in which it successfully navigates the philosophical, ethical, and psychological quandaries of the story.

Claims of Policy 175ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Claims of Policy 176JILLIAN PETERSON AND JAMES DENSLEY, What We've Learned about Mass Shooters Since 1966 177

Criminal justice professors discuss the psychology behind mass shooters and potential interventions to effectively prevent future violence.

SARAH HUCKABEE SANDERS, Executive Order To Eliminate Woke, Anti-Women Words From State Government And Respect Women 180

The 47th governor of Arkansas signs into law . . . executive order which dictates the usage of gendered language and phrases in the state's government.

STRATEGIES FOR READING AND WRITING CLAIMS 181Assignments for Claims 1837 Support 185STRATEGIES FOR READING AND WRITING SUPPORT 186Evidence 187

Factual Evidence 187

Images 191

RESEARCH SKILL Evaluating Factual Evidence 194

Expert Opinion 195

RESEARCH SKILL Evaluating Expert Opinion 199

ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Evidence 199

KRISTEN WEINACKER, “Safer? Tastier? More Nutritious?” The Dubious Merits of Organic Foods (student essay) 200

A student writer examines the claim that organic foods are more nutritious than conventionally grown ones.

JOAN E. SOLSMAN, Movie Theaters Didn’t Die, but They’ll Never Be the Same Again 205

A journalist covering entertainment and technology considers the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the business of U.S. movie theaters.

Appeals to Needs and Values 208

Appeals to Needs 209

ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Appeals to Needs and Values 210

Appeals to Values 211

STRATEGIES FOR EVALUATING APPEALS TO NEEDS AND VALUES 212

RONALD M. GREEN, Building Baby from the Genes Up 213

A professor of ethics weighs the risks of gene technology.

SARAH GRIFFITHS, Why Having a Crush Is Good for You 217

A science journalist defends the brief infatuations that most people experience in our culture.

Assignments for Support 219

8 Assumptions 221

General Principles 221

Widely Held Assumptions 224

ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Assumptions 227

Recognizing and Analyzing Assumptions 227

“Obvious” Assumptions 228

Intention to Deceive 229

STRATEGIES FOR RECOGNIZING ASSUMPTIONS 230

THOMAS R. WELLS, Let the Anti-Vaxxers Have Their Way 231

A philosophy professor offers a shocking, satirical answer to the anti-vaccination movement.

RESEARCH SKILL Focusing a Research Topic 234

MICHAEL LEVIN, The Case for Torture 235

A philosophy professor reasons that if torture is the only way to squeeze life-saving information from a kidnapper or terrorist, we should overcome our repugnance and apply the electrodes.

ROBERT A. SIRICO, An Unjust Sacrifice 238

A Roman Catholic priest argues that the separation of conjoined twins—an operation that will result in the death of one of the babies—is wrong, and it shows a dangerous way of measuring the value of a life.

Assignments for Assumptions 2399 Structuring the Argument 241*Organizing the Argument 242

Defending the Thesis 242

Refuting an Opposing View 243

STRATEGIES FOR REFUTING AN OPPOSING VIEW (COUNTERARGUMENT) 244SHARON ASTYK AND AARON NEWTON, The Rich Get Richer, the Poor Go Hungry 245

A farmer and a sustainable systems land planner explain why starvation is usually the result of inequity and politics, not a shortage of food.

Finding the Middle Ground 248

STRATEGIES FOR FINDING THE MIDDLE GROUND 249JACK BEYRER, Innovative Gun Control Idea Gains Support 249

A student explains red flag laws as one means of reducing gun violence.

Presenting the Stock Issues 252

JOHN R. KOZA, States Can Reform Electoral College—Here's How to Empower Popular Vote 253

A computer scientist argues in favor of the National Popular Vote Interstate Compact.

ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Organizing the Argument 255Introductions and Conclusions 256

Writing the Introduction 256

Writing the Conclusion 258

Assignments for Structuring Arguments 259

PART THREE Strengthening Argument 261

10 Language 263

The Power of Words 263

Emotive Language 264

STIHL, Consumer Confidence (advertisement) 265

CHARLES P. PIERCE, Conservative Political Rhetoric Now Has an Official Body Count 266

A writer and journalist comments on the data regarding COVID-related deaths and political parties.

Connotation 267

Slanting 272

RESEARCH SKILL Evaluating Language in Sources 273

Figurative Language 274

W. E. B. Du BOIS, Of Our Spiritual Strivings 276

The famed sociologist describes the idea of African Americans possessing a “double consciousness” of how they see themselves versus how society sees them.

Concrete and Abstract Language 277

Shortcuts 279

Clichés 279

Slogans 280

ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Evaluating Language 282

Evaluating Language 283

STRATEGIES FOR EVALUATING WORD CHOICE AND CHOOSING YOUR WORDS

CAREFULLY 283

RACHEL SYME, Selfie: The Revolutionary Potential of Your Own Face 284

A journalist explores the history of women’s photographic images of themselves to argue that the selfie is empowering.

BARACK OBAMA, Remarks at Memorial Service for Fallen Dallas Police Officers, July 12, 2016 289

A former U.S. president honors the memory of five police officers killed in the line of duty while also advocating unity.

Assignments for Language 291

11 Definition 294The Purposes of Definition 294*ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Purposes of Definition 296SUNNIVIE BRYDUM, The True Meaning of the Word “Cisgender” 296

A journalist who covers the politics of equality explains the term “cisgender” as not a slur, but a descriptive term for a reality usually taken for granted.

LUCAS WRIGHT, Twitter Bans Religious Dehumanization 297

A graduate student studying ethics and the politics of internet regulation discusses dehumanizing language used on social media.

Defining the Terms in Your Argument 299

The Limitations of Dictionary Definitions 299

Stipulation and Negation: Stating What a Term Is and Is Not 300

Defining Vague and Ambiguous Terms 301

RESEARCH SKILL Using Encyclopedias to Find Definitions 302

Definition by Example 303

ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Defining the Terms in Your Argument 304

Extended Definitions 304

ISHMEAL BRADLEY, Conscientious Objection in Medicine: A Moral Dilemma 305

A physician defines “conscientious objector” as it applies to health care.

BRIAN WHITAKER, The Definition of Terrorism 306

A journalist attributes the public’s lack of understanding of terrorism to the absence of an agreed-upon definition of the term.

STRATEGIES FOR WRITING A DEFINITION ESSAY 309Assignments for Definition 309*12 Logic 311*Induction 311*ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Induction 313STEVEN DOLOFF, Greta Garbo, Meet Joan Rivers . . . (Talk amongst Yourselves) 314

A professor of humanities and media studies explores sexism in the way obituaries are published.

Deduction 318ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Deduction 320

SEAMUS O'MAHONY, Are We Living Too Long? 321

An Irish gastroenterologist answers his own question in the affirmative.

HILLARY CLINTON, Remarks at the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation Women and the Economy Summit 324

The former secretary of state encourages conference attendees to make history by confronting the economic obstacles hindering men and women alike.

Common Fallacies 324RESEARCH SKILL Structuring Your Research with Generalizations and Specifics 325

Hasty Generalization 325

Faulty Use of Authority 326

Post Hoc or Doubtful Cause 327

False Analogy 327

Ad Hominem 328

False Dilemma 328

Slippery Slope 329

Begging the Question 330

Straw Man 330

Red Herring 331

Two Wrongs Make a Right 332

Non Sequitur 332

Ad Populum 333

Appeal to Tradition 334

STRATEGIES FOR UNCOVERING LOGICAL FALLACIES 334CHRISTOPHER CALDWELL, Drivers Get Rolled 337

A journalist analyzes bicyclists' sense of entitlement when it comes to the use of America's roads.

WAYNE LAPIERRE, What Should America Do about Gun Violence? 345

The former executive VP and CEO of the National Rifle Association delivers remarks on gun laws following the 2012 Newtown school shootings.

Assignments for Logic 347PART FOUR Incorporating Research 349*13 Planning and Research 351*Finding an Appropriate Topic 351

Invention Strategies 352

RESEARCH SKILL Ethical Use of Chatbots 353

Evaluating Possible Topics 353

STRATEGIES FOR IDENTIFYING EFFECTIVE RESEARCH PAPER TOPICS 354

Initiating Research 355

Keeping Research on Track 356

RESEARCH SKILL What Is Common Knowledge? 356

Sketching a Preliminary Outline 357

STRATEGIES FOR KEEPING YOUR RESEARCH ON TRACK 357

Types of Sources 359

RESEARCH SKILL Popular Vs. Scholarly Articles 361

Finding Sources 362

Databases 362

Encyclopedias 368

Statistical Resources 368

Government Resources 369

Other Online Sources 369

Multimodal Sources 371

Evaluating Sources 372

Relevance 372

Reliability 376

RESEARCH SKILL Evaluating Multimodal Sources 377

ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Evaluating Sources 378

Taking Notes 380

Note Taking and Prewriting 381

Working with Your Outline 381

Managing and Documenting Sources 381

ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Taking Notes 382

ALICIA OGLESBY, Safe Spaces 383

A high school counselor advocates safe spaces as places of healing for marginalized students.

MEGAN YEE, Why “Safe Spaces” Are Important For Mental Health—Especially On College Campuses 387

A health writer explains the link between safe spaces and mental health.

14

Drafting, Revising, and Presenting Arguments 390

Reviewing Your Research 390

RESEARCH SKILL Reviewing Your Research 392

Avoiding Plagiarism 392

ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Avoiding Plagiarism 393

Building an Effective Argument 393ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Checklist for Effective Arguments 394Using Sentence Forms to Write Arguments 394*ARGUMENT ESSENTIALS Addressing Opposing Arguments Using Sentence Forms 397Revising 397*Oral Arguments and Presentations 398

The Audience 399

Credibility 399

Organization 400

Language 401

Support 402

Presentation Aids 403

JIMMY CARTER, Why I Believe the Mistreatment of Women Is the Number One Human Rights Abuse 405

A former U.S. president takes a comprehensive look at limitations placed on women worldwide to compel his audience to address the abuse.

15 Documenting Sources 411MLA In-Text Citations 411*MLA Works Cited Entries 415*DIRECTORY OF MLA WORKS CITED ENTRIES 415

General Treatment of Authors 416

THE ELEMENTS OF CITATION Book (MLA) 418

Articles and Other Short Works 419

THE ELEMENTS OF CITATION Article from a Website (MLA) 421THE ELEMENTS OF CITATION Article from a Database (MLA) 422

Web and Social Media Sources 423

Audiovisual Sources 424

Live Sources 426

MLA-Style Annotated Bibliography 427MLA-Style Paper Format 427*MLA-Style Sample Research Paper 428*ANNA HARVIN, The Place for a Safe Space: Mental Health and the College Student Experience (student essay) 428

A student advocates for safe spaces for students on college campuses. (Her research notes and planning also appear in Chapter 13.)

APA In-Text Citations 434

APA List of References 436

DIRECTORY OF APA REFERENCE ENTRIES 436

General Treatment of Authors 437

THE ELEMENTS OF CITATION Book (APA) 439

Books and Parts of Books 440

Articles and Other Short Works 441

THE ELEMENTS OF CITATION Article from a Database (APA) 442

THE ELEMENTS OF CITATION Article from a Website (APA) 443

Web and Social Media Sources 445

Audiovisual Sources 446

APA-Style Paper Format 447

APA-Style Sample Research Paper 447

ANGELA MATHERS, The Controversy over Women in Combat (student essay) 448

A student examines the roles of women in the military.

PART FIVE Debating the Issues 457

16 Banning Books 459

Is It Protection or Censorship?

DAVE SEMINARA, The Left Twists the Meaning of "Book Ban" 459

A writer and former diplomat complicates the meaning of the word "ban" and defends conservative efforts to restrict content.

MARGARET ATWOOD, Go Ahead and Ban My Book 462

The Canadian poet and author of The Handmaid's Tale reflects on a Virginia school board's decision to ban her book in the high school's library.

17 Confederate Monuments 467

Where Is Their Place in Today's America?

GRACY OLMSTEAD, There Are Good Reasons to Consider Removing Confederate Memorials from Our Public Squares 467

A conservative journalist argues for removing Confederate memorials.

JOHN DANIEL DAVIDSON, Why We Should Keep the Confederate Monuments Right Where They Are 470

A writer and political editor defends leaving Confederate memorials where they are.

18 The Barbie Phenomenon 474How Does It Affect Gender Roles?ZALI YAGER, What a Body Image Expert Really Thinks of the Barbie Movie 474

A body image researcher praises the 2023 blockbuster for its representation of gender stereotypes and body inclusivity.

MARIE-CLAIRE CHAPPET, Why Is Barbie So Controversial? How Ever-Changing Standards for Women Have Affected the Famous Doll 478

A UK journalist explores the interrelationship between the expectations of women in society and the stereotypes embodied by the iconic doll.

PART SIX Multiple Viewpoints 48119 Artificial Intelligence 483How Will Generative AI Change Society?MILTON EZRATI, No Reason to Fear AI 484

An economist and strategy consultant addresses fears regarding the rise of AI and its potential impact on jobs.

JAMES BRIDLE, The Stupidity of AI 485

A technologist encourages us to reframe AI's role in our lives as a means to enhance, rather than replace, some of our current processes.

NAOMI S. BARON, How ChatGPT Robs Students of Motivation to Write and Think for Themselves 493

A professor of world languages and cultures discusses the limitations of AI tools in students' writing and ways of expression.

CHRISTOPHER GROBE, Why I'm Not Scared of ChatGPT 496

An English professor and AI researcher is hopeful of generative AI's ability to provide effective "starting points" for students and writers alike.

Thinking and Writing about Artificial Intelligence 49920 Affirmative Action 500What Is the Future of Diversity Initiatives?EDDIE R. COLE, The Supreme Court's Blow to US Affirmative Action Is No Coincidence 501

A professor of education and history argues that the supreme court decision reflects an insidious return of power to the privileged elite.

IAN MILLHISER, The Monstrous Arrogance of the Supreme Court's Affirmative Action Decision 503

An American journalist breaks down the political motivations, history, as well as the implications of the supreme court decision.

DACE POTAS, Supreme Court Rules to End Affirmative Action, Moving US in the Right Direction 508

A conservative opinion columnist argues in favor of the supreme court decision.

ANTHONY ABRAHAM JACK, I Was a Low-Income College Student. Classes Weren't the Hard Part. 510

A professor of education recalls the daily difficulties and stigma he faced in college.

NICK HANAUER, Better Schools Won't Fix America 515

A venture capitalist argues we have to fix the economy before we can fix our schools.

Thinking and Writing about Diversity and Inclusion 519

21 Freedom of Speech on Campus 521

Are Limitations on Our Rights Ever Justified?

AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION (ACLU), Speech on Campus 522

A non-profit corporation explains why it is necessary to defend even speech that we hate.

JANET NAPOLITANO, It's Time to Free Speech on Campus Again 527

The American politician and former president of the University of California bemoans how far we have moved from freedom of speech on campuses to freedom from speech.

EMMA KERR, College Students Want Free Speech—Sort Of 529

A reporter examines the conflict between defending free speech and defending diversity.

JOAN WALLACH SCOTT, Freedom of Speech v. Civility 530

A retired social science professor asks if the speech of elementary and secondary school students warrants the same First Amendment protections as that of adults.

Thinking and Writing about Freedom of Speech on Campus 534

22 Mistrust of the Media 535

How Much Should We Rely on Our Information Sources?

JAMES CARSON, Fake News: What Exactly Is It—and How Can You Spot It? 536

A digital strategy consultant and journalist defines fake news and gives advice on how to recognize it.

HANS ROSLING, The Blame Instinct 540

A Swedish physician and statistician argues that we cannot expect objective reporting from the news media.

ALAN RUSBRIDGER, Journalism Has Changed in the Blink of an Eye 544

A journalist explains how technology has changed the nature of journalism, for the worse.

MICHAEL J. SOCOLOW, Don't Trust the News Media? That's Good 546

A media historian asserts that some skepticism of the media is a sign of a healthy democracy.

Thinking and Writing about Mistrust of the Media 549PART SEVEN Classic Arguments 551

JONATHAN SWIFT, A Modest Proposal 552

An eighteenth-century satirist concocts a chilling, ironic solution to the problems of Irish poverty and overpopulation.

THOMAS JEFFERSON, The Declaration of Independence 559

One of the leaders of our young republic puts in writing its reasons for breaking with England.

SOJOURNER TRUTH, Ain't I a Woman? 562

An escaped slave and activist for women's rights speaks out about what it means to be both.

RACHEL CARSON, The Obligation to Endure 563

A marine biologist warns of the dangers of what humans are doing to the environment.

NELSON MANDELA, Black Man in a White Man's Court 569

An activist against apartheid in South Africa and the first black president of that country argues in court that he cannot receive a fair trial in a white man's court or country.

THURGOOD MARSHALL, Reflections on the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution 575

A former Supreme Court justice points out the imperfections in the Constitution that have necessitated its changing with the times.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS 579GLOSSARY 585*INDEX 589