

Contents

List of illustrations	xi
Acknowledgements	xiii
Introduction	1
Key concepts: being 'crazy about the kid'	4
Overview of the book and chapter contents	6
Target readership	10
Part 1: Making Sense of Neglect
1 The Neglected Child: Are We on the Same Wavelength?	15
Defining actual or potential neglect: the challenges	18
Neglect beyond the family	25
Conclusion	27
2 Neglectful Parenting: Ability, Motivation and Opportunities	29
Neglectful parenting: what do we know?	31
Understanding neglectful caregiving	34
Conclusion	40
3 Impact of Neglect on Children and Young People	41
Neglect and brain development	42
Physical development	43
Cognitive development	45
Socio-emotional development	46
Social presentation and rejection	48
Antisocial behaviour	49
The neglected adolescent	50
Disabled children and children with special needs	51
Conclusion	51
Part 2: Assessing the Potential for Change and Planning Interventions
4 Assessing Readiness to Change: The Neglected Assessment Task	55
Introduction	55
Pathways to change	57
Assessing the needs of neglected children: establishing parental willingness to change	60
Conclusion	65

5	Identifying a Pathway for Change: The Child Protection Conference	67
	Introduction	67
	Family participation	68
	Towards a plan: sharing information, analysing and making decisions	69
	Outline plans: determining a pathway for change	79
	Is the child protection conference a suitable forum for making decisions about significant harm in cases of neglect?	84
	Conclusion	86
6	Plans to Safeguard Neglected Children from Harm	88
	Taking action to promote better outcomes for children	89
	Making plans work: professional engagement	92
	Creating an environment for meaningful engagement	98
	The child protection plan	102
	Evaluating effectiveness	109
	Managing endings and maintaining change	111
	Conclusion	112
 Part 3: Intervening: What Works?
7	Interventions: When and How?	117
	Different needs, different interventions	117
	Intervention: the influence of practitioners and service providers	120
	Evaluating the effectiveness of interventions: determining what works	125
	Conclusion	128
8	Preventing Neglect: Population-based Services Pre-birth and in the Early Years	130
	Preparing parents-to-be: neglectful parents slipping through the net?	130
	Creating firm foundations for a child's development	133
	Population-based interventions to support vulnerable parents in the early years	136
	Addressing the socio-economic factors that affect good enough parenting	141
	Conclusion	144
9	Addressing Emerging Concerns about Neglect in Under-Fives through Early Help	146
	Introduction	146

Home-visiting services	147
Centre-supported services	152
Two-generation interventions	158
Early help and fathers	161
Early help: what works?	162
Conclusion	164
10 Chronic Neglect: Working with Complexity	167
Introduction	167
What works when intervening in cases of chronic neglect?	168
Parenting programmes	171
Multisystemic Therapy (MST)	175
Intensive family support	176
Conclusion	179
11 Addressing Parenting Issues within Neglectful Families	182
A 'web of disadvantage'	182
Meeting the additional needs of neglected children and young people affected by parenting issues	185
Interventions for neglectful families affected by drug and alcohol misuse	188
Addressing mental health issues: what works – parents' and workers' perspectives	194
Domestic violence	195
Parental learning disability and child neglect	199
Conclusion	202
12 Meeting the Needs of Neglected Children and Young People	204
Part 1: Promoting resilience amongst children vulnerable to neglect	204
Part 2: Interventions to enhance the socio-emotional development of the neglected child	209
Interventions to improve cognitive functioning	219
The neglected child and physical development	221
Part 3: Meeting the needs of the neglected adolescent	222
Part 4: The case for a coordinated approach	227
Conclusion	231
13 Meeting the Needs of the Neglected Child through Out-of-Home Care	233
Making the decision to remove children from parental care	234
Children in out-of-home care	238
Conclusion	248

Appendix The Anytown Neglect Study	250
Research design and sample	250
Key findings	257
References	263
Index	293
Chronic Neglect: Working with Complexity	10
Introduction	48
What works when intervening in cases of chronic neglect	68
Parenting programmes	171
Multisystemic Therapy (MST)	176
Intensive family intervention	176
Conclusion	179
Addressing Parenting Issues within Neglectful Families	182
The child protection plan	182
Evaluating effectiveness	182
Meeting the additional needs of neglected children and young people affected by parenting issues	182
Interventions for neglectful families affected by drug and alcohol misuse	182
Part 3: Intervening: What Works?	182
Addressing mental health issues: what works – parents and workers’ perspectives	194
Domestic violence	197
Parental learning disability and child development	199
Conclusion	202
Meeting the Needs of Neglected Children and Young People	204
Part 1: Promoting resilience amongst children	204
Part 2: Interventions to enhance the socio-emotional development of the neglected child	209
Interventions to improve cognitive functioning through gaming	219
The neglected child and physical development	221
Part 3: Meeting the needs of neglected children	222
Part 4: The case for a coordinated approach	227
Conclusion	231
Meeting the Needs of the Neglected Child through Out-of-Home Care	233
Making the decision to place a child in out-of-home care	234
Children in out-of-home care	238
Conclusion	248