

Contents

Foreword by Neil Greenberg xix

Acknowledgements xxiii

Prologue xxix

Introduction xxxv

Part I The Impacts 1

1 Who Is Affected? 3

First-line Responders 3

Second-line Responders 4

Scale of Impact and Trauma Exposure 4

Model 1: The Ripples in the Water Model 5

Proximity to the Traumatic Event 7

High Emotional Demands 7

2 Factors Affecting the Traumatic Impact 9

Protective and Risk Factors 10

Model 2: The Strain Model 11

References 12

3 The Traumatic Event 13

Duration of the Traumatic Event 13

An Acute Short-term Strain 13

A Series of Stressful Events—Accumulated Strain 14

Long-term, Continuous Strain 14

Risk of Reoccurrence 14

Is the Traumatic Event Over—Or Still Ongoing? 15

The Nature of the Traumatic Event 15

Threats	15
Loss and Death	15
Human-made or Natural Events	16
Human-made Events	16
Natural Events and Natural Disasters	16
Climate-related Natural Disasters	16
Witnessing the Suffering of Acquaintances or Children	17
Number of People Involved	17
Sensory Impressions	17
Where Did the Incident Occur—And Was It Anticipated?	17
Near Misses	18
References	18

4 Managing the Traumatic Event 20

Organisational Factors	21
Trauma Education	21
Supervision	21
Social Support	21
Clarity of Task and Role	22
The Organisation of Work—Alone or as Part of a Workgroup?	22
When Are Tasks Carried Out?	22
Caseload	23
Leadership Well-being and Responsibility Fatigue	23
Individual Factors	23
Personal Factors	24
Gender	24
Current Life Situation	24
What Stage of Working Life Are You in?	24
Personal Trauma History	25
Role in the Incident—Active or Passive?	25
How You Assess Your Own Performance	26
Coping	26
Need to Clarify the Causes	27
Compassion Satisfaction	27
References	27

5 Other Factors 30

Social Status of the Job	30
Complaints About Possible Errors	31
Media Coverage	31
The Impact of Digitalisation and Technology	32
Flexibility and Fatigue	32

Administrative Overload and Documentation	33
AI in the Helping Professions	35
The Myth of Constant Availability	35
Helpful Digital Tools	35
References	36

6 Global Crises and Cumulative Strain—Helping in a Time of Permacrisis 38

When Crises Collide	38
Living on the Fault Line	39
The Crisis on Repeat: Understanding Permacrisis	39
The Helpers on the Front Lines	40
From Paralysis to Possibility	42
When the System Feels Broken	43
Final Thought: Remember to Breathe	44
References	44

Part II The Reactions 47

7 Mental Tilting and Sustainability 49

Mental Tilting	49
Sustainable Organisation of Work	50
Key Challenges	50
Invisible Symptoms	50
Model 3: The Sustainability Model	51
Distancing	52
Getting Used to It	52
References	53

8 Warning Signs of Mental Tilting 54

20 Signs of Mental Tilting at the Individual Level	54
Five Physical Signals	54
Five Cognitive Signals	56
Five Emotional Signals	57
Five Signals in Your Behaviour and Relationships to Others	59
10 Warning Signs of Mental Tilting in Teams and Workgroups	62
Anger, Grumbling, and Dissatisfaction	63
Problem Shifting	64
Humour	65
Destructive Humour	65
References	66

9 Mirror Neurons and the Red-Green-Blue Model 68

Mirror Neurons 68

The Downside of Mirror Neurons 69

The Red-Green-Blue Model 71

Model 4: The Red-Green-Blue Model 71

Staying Attuned and in Contact 71

Being Over-involved 74

Being Under-involved 74

Company Culture 75

Gender and Roles 76

Group Dynamics 76

Individual Preferences 77

References 77

10 From Warning Signs to States of Strain 79

Stress 80

Burnout 80

Mild Anxiety 81

Mild Depressive Symptoms 81

Mild Post-traumatic Reactions 82

Increased Stimulant Consumption 82

Moral Stress and Moral Injury 82

Moral Stress: The Strain Before the Injury 82

Moral Injury and PTSD 83

The Three Roads to Injury 84

Responsibility and Its Shifting 84

Existential Pain 85

References 86

11 Trauma-related Mental Disorders 88

Adjustment Disorder 88

Post-traumatic Conditions 89

Post-traumatic Stress Disorder—PTSD 89

Secondary Traumatization 90

Complex PTSD 91

Anxiety 92

Depression 92

Suicide 93

Substance Use and Addiction	93
Assessment of Well-being and Mental Tilting	94
WHO-5	94
Professional Quality of Life Scale	94
References	95

Part III The Strategies 97

12 HR Policy Framework	99
Developing Strong HR Policies	99
Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs)	100
Organisational Maturity	100
Turning Preventive Procedures into Practice	101
Tacit Knowledge	101
References	102
13 Psychological Safety as a Shared Resource	103
Psychological Safety in Emotionally Demanding Work	103
Signs of Psychological Safety in Practice	104
A Shared Condition—Not an Individual Trait	105
The Leader's Role—From Framework to Response	105
Setting the Stage	105
Inviting Participation	106
Responding Productively	106
Psychological Safety and Sustainable Strain Management	106
Final Reflections	107
References	107
14 The Strain Square	108
X-axis—Objective Strains	108
Model 5: The Strain Square	109
Y-axis—The Subjective Vulnerability	109
Vulnerability Related to the Past	109
Vulnerability Related to the Present	110
Vulnerability Related to Identification	110
Vulnerability Related to Personally Knowing Those in Need of Your Help	110

- The Four Fields 111
 - The Good Workday Routine 111
 - The Sore Spot 111
 - Emotionally Challenging Tasks and Collective Crises 112
 - The Worst Moments 112
- Model 6: The Strain Square Strategies 113
 - Moved, Affected, and Shaken 113
- Model 7: Moved, Affected, Shaken 113
- References 114
- 15 The TIC Model and the Powerlessness–Power Pendulum 115
 - ‘Just Being’ with the Other Person 115
 - The TIC Model 116
 - Model 8: The TIC Model 116
 - The Powerlessness–Power Pendulum 118
 - Model 9: The Powerlessness–Power Pendulum 119
 - References 120
- 16 The Big WHY? 121
 - Meaning and Compassion Satisfaction 122
 - Personal Experiences 122
 - The Professional WHY and the Personal WHY 123
 - Hope 124
 - IGLO-E 125
 - Model 10: The IGLO-E Model 126
 - References 126
- 17 Educational Institutions, Organisations, and Leaders: Roles and Responsibilities 128
 - Educational Institutions: Roles and Responsibilities 129
 - From Preparation to Practice 130
 - Organisations: Roles and Responsibilities 130
 - New Hires 130
 - Role Models 132
 - Responsibility for Your Own and Other Managers’ Well-being 133
 - Physical Security 134
 - Contingency Plans for Emergency Situations 134
 - Terms and Conditions of Employment 135
 - Systematic Learning and Development 135
 - Fostering a Learning Culture Also Means Acknowledging Moral Impact 136

Managers: Roles and Responsibilities	137
Recruitment	138
Trauma Training and Supervision	138
Clarity About the Task and Defined Roles and Frameworks	139
Professional Language Use	139
Professional Leadership and Development	140
Strategic Planning	140
Leadership Duties for Temporary and External Staff	142
Responsibility for Your Own and Your Employees' Well-being	143
References	144
18 Groups: Roles and Responsibilities	146
Emotional Support	147
The Principle of 'On Equal Terms'	147
The Principle of Sharing	150
The Principle of Dark Humour	151
The Principle of Not Overburdening One Another	152
End-of-day Defusing Duty	153
The Principle of Taking Good Care of Each Other	154
Feedback-oriented Support	155
The Principle of Being Honest—And the Risk of Groupthink	155
The Principle of Focusing on the Incident—Not the Individual	156
Counselling and Professional Support	157
Practical Support	157
References	158
19 Individuals: Roles and Responsibilities	159
The Strategic Diamond	160
Model 11: The Strategic Diamond	160
Strategies Targeting Thoughts	160
The Principle of Being Caring and Friendly	160
The Principle of 'You Are Not Alone'	161
The Principle of Time	162
Strategies Targeting Emotions	162
The Principle of Feeling with (and Not Feeling as)	162
The Principle of Being Able to Recognise, Name, and Talk About Emotions	163
The Principle of the Emotional Weather Forecast	164
Strategies Targeting the Body	164
The Principle of Breathing, Eating, Drinking, and Sleeping	164
Sleep Is Essential for Mental Balance	165

	The Principle of Physical Activity	166
	The Principle of Self-awareness	167
	Strategies Targeting Behaviour	167
	The Principle of Avoiding Self-induced Overdose	167
	The Principle of Taking Breaks	169
	The Principle of Conscious Transitions	169
	Exercises	170
	References	175
20	Additional Preventive Measures	176
	Supervision—Group or Individual	176
	Buddy Systems	177
	Mentoring Programmes	177
	Leadership Mentoring and Coaching	177
	Trauma Therapy	178
	References	178
21	In Times of Crisis: A Tiered Approach	179
	From Everyday Prevention to Targeted Crisis Response	180
	A Note on Global Alignment	181
	The Workplace Support Pyramid—A Tiered Overview	181
	Model 12: The Workplace Support Pyramid	181
	A Closer Look at Two Key Layers	183
	Crisis Leadership: 10 Supportive Actions for Leaders in the Immediate Aftermath	185
	Sick Leave and Reintegration	187
	Beyond the Workplace: Community Support Pyramid	187
	The Community Support Pyramid	188
	Model 13: The Community Support Pyramid	188
	Self-help	188
	Close Relationships	189
	Community Networks and NGOs	189
	Existential and Spiritual Support	189
	Public and Social Services	190
	General Health Care	190
	Specialised Psychological Treatment	190
	Specialised Psychiatric Treatment	190
	Facilitating Support Pathways	190
	Structural Foundations of Support	191
	References	191

22 Proactive Psychosocial Prevention 192

Primary Prevention 193

Key Components of Primary Prevention 193

Contingency Plans 193

Knowledge of Strain Psychology 193

Documentation, Analysis, and Evaluation 193

Examples of Primary Prevention 194

Secondary Prevention 194

Individual Level 194

Group Level 194

Managerial Level 194

Organisational Level 195

Tertiary Prevention 195

Examples of Tertiary Prevention 195

Better Safe Than Sorry—Especially in High-strain Work 195

Epilogue 197Appendix 1 200*Appendix 2 203*Further Reading 208*Index 211