

Contents

Preface	VII
CONNY RESTLE
Working with Electronic Musical Instruments in Public Collections: Challenges, Concepts und Questions upon Questions	1
ERICH TREMMEL
Novelty in History	11
BENEDIKT BRILMAYER
The Trouble with Novelties: Electronic Musical Instruments in Museum Collections	17
HEIDI VON RÜDEN
An Interactive Installation Project and Problems with its Conservation ...	31
PETER DONHAUSER
Max Brand – Pioneer or Follower?	47
ANDREAS SWOBODA
The Evolution of the Breath Controller: Electrified Reeds, Phototubes and Digital Wind	65
MIRIAM AKKERMANN
Archiving Music, Preserving Digital Instruments: Considerations on a Mutual Relationship	83
JULIN LEE
Exploring the Agency of Oskar Sala and the Mixtur-Trautonium Through the Lens of the Actor-Network Theory	99
EDWARD WILSON-STEPHENS
A Taxonomy of Interactive Theremin Instruments in North American Museums	121
ALEXANDER BONUS
My End is My Beginning: Dreams, Dismissals and the Dawning of Avant-Garde Electronic Instruments	143
Concluding Discussion	181
Index	185