

Contents

Acknowledgements	2	The first missionaries	66
Introduction	4	i) Illtud	67
Prehistoric Times	6	ii) Cadog and Dyfrig	69
The earliest inhabitants	6	iii) St David	72
Neolithic Wales	7	iv) Beuno	76
The Beaker Folk	14	v) Christian wells and memorial stones	78
The first Welshmen	18	vi) The historic meeting at Aust	81
The Celtic Way of Life	20	vii) Surviving Christian memorial stones and wells	84
The Druids	24	External Threats	106
The Archaeological Record	25	The Saxon and Viking Menace:
Penmaenmawr and Great Orme	42	Vacuum in Wales	106
Roman Interlude	46	The coming of Cunedda	108
Roman penetration and organisation	46	Northumbrian invasion	108
Important sites	47	Mercian aggression	110
Roman withdrawal	54	The arrival of the Vikings	112
Roman remains in the twentieth century	55	Rhodri Mawr	113
The Celtic Church	64	Hywel Dda	115
The Age of the Saints and German attacks	64	Gruffudd ap Llywelyn and Saxon Harold	119
		Evidence in Wales today	121
		Bibliography	127
		Welsh place names	128