

CONTENTS

I. Some Basic Facts	7
II. Looking Back	10
Times of Glory and Times of Gloom	10
Under the Leadership of the Communist Party in the Struggle for Bread and Freedom	12
From Fascist Occupation to Liberation	17
Programme of the National and Democratic Revolution	19
The People — the Masters of their Country	20
The Two-Year Plan	21
Defeated Reaction Rears Its Head	23
The Glorious Victory of the Czechoslovak People in February, 1948	24
III. Green Light for Socialism	29
The Five-Year Plan of Economic Construction and Reconstruction	29
How the Great Tasks of the Five-Year Plan Were Accomplished	31
Socialist Competition — the Communist Method of Building Socialism	32
The Proud Balance-Sheet of the Five-Year Plan	43
The Triumphant Advance of the Slovak People	49
The Contribution of the Five-Year Plan:	54
... the Capital of Prague	54
... Ostrava, the Steel Heart of the Republic	56
... a Moravian Village	58
Five Years in the Life of a District	59
Extract from a Village Chronicle	60
Housing, Transport and Communications	60
Health and Culture	61

IV. How the Czechoslovak People Live	62
Pioneers of Socialist Industry	63
Then and Now	63
National Insurance	67
A. National Health Insurance	68
B. National Pensions Insurance	70
C. Preventive and Therapeutic Care	73
The Trade Unions as Administrators of National Health Insurance	76
Social Wage Additions of Extra Benefits	79
Social Rights in People's Democratic Czechoslovakia	83
Extracts from the Constitution of the Czechoslovak Republic of May 9th, 1948	84
The Mountains and Health Resorts Belong to the Working People	87
A Healthy Generation is Growing up	94
Better Housing	98
The Development of Transport and Communications	103
Unprecedented Cultural Development	104
Czechoslovak Films	107
'Prague Spring'	110
What is On at Prague Theatres and Cinemas	112
Religious Freedom and State Support for the Churches	114
Women Work for the Prosperity of their Country, for the Happiness of their Children and for Peace	116
A New Generation Grows up	121
Building Socialism in the Villages	126
Budgeting for Peace and Socialist Construction	135
Difficulties of Growth	136
V. A Healthy Basis for a Further Advance	140
The Currency Reform and the Abolition of Rationing	140
The Rationing System — a Check on Economic Advance	141
Milliards in the Hands of the Bourgeoisie — a Threat to Fair Distribution	142

The New Currency Reform — the Liquidation of the Financial Foundations of the Bourgeoisie	143
Higher Wages, Salaries, Pensions and Family Allowances	144
Facts and Figures Relating to the Currency Reform and Derationing	145
Another Step Forward	148
 VI. The Revolutionary Trade Union Movement and its Organisational Tasks	151
The Struggle for Unity	151
From the Statutes of the Revolutionary Trade Union Movement	154
Tasks of the Revolutionary Trade Union Movement	156
Mobilising Labour for Higher Output	160
Collective Agreements	166
Raising the Cultural Level of the Masses	170
The Trade Union Press	171
Factory Clubs	174
Libraries and Books	181
Czechoslovak Books Abroad	183
Trade Union Schools	185
Physical Culture and Sport	188
A Glimpse at a Works Physical Training Club	191
Mass Participation and New Records	192
The Organisational Structure of the Czechoslovak Trade Unions	196
How the Primary Trade Union Organs Work	198
The Works Council Budget	202
The Trade Union Movement and the Political Parties	204
The Czechoslovak Trade Union Movement and the Inter- national Trade Union Movement	208
Views of Foreign Trade Unionists on Czechoslovakia	214
 VII. United for Peace	219