

Contents

|                                                                                                          |     |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Preface                                                                                                  | i   |
| I A Manuscript of the Gospels from Santa Maria in Trastevere, Rome                                       | 1   |
| II Italian Illuminated Manuscripts from the Fourteenth to the Sixteenth Centuries in British Collections | 22  |
| III An English Illuminator's Work in Some Fourteenth-Century Italian Law Books at Durham                 | 55  |
| IV The Illustrated Manuscripts of the Notitia Dignitatum                                                 | 65  |
| V The Illustrations of the Anonymus, De Rebus Bellicis                                            | 99  |
| VI Notes on Some Veneto-Paduan Illuminated Books of the Renaissance                                      | 106 |
| VII The Provenance of the Brooke Antiphonal                                                              | 134 |
| VIII A Manuscript of Petrarch's Rime and Trionfi                                                         | 142 |
| IX Initials in Renaissance Illuminated Manuscripts: the Problem of the So-called "litera Mantiniana"     | 169 |
| X A Virgil Illuminated by Marco Zoppo                                                                    | 199 |
| XI A Fifteenth-Century Italian Drawing Inserted in a Valturius Manuscript                                | 206 |

|      |                                                                                          |     |
|------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| XII  | Fragments of an Illuminated Missal of Pope Innocent VIII                                 | 213 |
| XIII | Illumination for Cardinal Antoniotto Pallavicini(1442–1507)                          | 235 |
| XIV  | Illuminations by Matteo da Milano in the FitzwilliamMuseum                           | 268 |
| XV   | Matteo da Milano, Illuminator                                                            | 281 |
| XVI  | The Livy (MS 1) Illuminated for Gian GiacomoTrivulzio by the Milanese Artist “B. F.” | 334 |
| XVII | Patrons, Libraries and Illuminators in the Italian Renaissance                           | 351 |
|      | Addenda                                                                                  | 381 |
|      | Index of Manuscripts and Incunabula                                                      | 399 |
|      | General Index                                                                            | 405 |
|      | Acknowledgements                                                                         | 421 |