

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction xiii

I. Society

1. Class Composition and Competition 3

2. Holy Ghosts in Ethnic Closets 20

3. Environmental Options versus Economic Imperatives 40

4. Unlimited Equality and Limited Growth 47

5. Winners and Losers 63

6. Presenting the Self for Social Immortality 78

7. Alienation and the Social System 83

8. Futurology and Millenarian Visions 89

II. Polity

9. Interest Groups and Political Partisans 105

10. Bureaucracy, Administration, and State Power 115

11. Political Bases of Equity Goals 126

12. From the New Deal to the New Federalism 143

13. Transnational Terrorism, Civil Liberties, and the Social Fabric 158

14. Routinized Terrorism and Its Unanticipated Consequences 169

15. Revolution, Retribution, and Redemption 177

16. Marginality, Originality, and Rootless Cosmopolitanism 192

III. Ideology

17. Left-wing Fascism 209

18. Multiplication of Marxisms 220

19. Methodology, Ideology, and Society 232

20. Developmental Dilemmas 246

viii Contents

21. Advocacy and Neutrality in Research	256
22. Language, Truth, and Politics	269
23. Moral Development and Authoritarian Distemper	276
24. Moral Implications of Social Science Disputations	289
Notes	303
Index	323