

Contents

PREFACE by Mark Ludwig iv

FOREWORD by Margot Stern Strom v

OVERVIEW OF THE CD 1

An annotated guide to the CD, Finding a Voice: Musicians in Terezín

INTRODUCING FINDING A VOICE: MUSICIANS IN TEREZÍN 3

The readings in this section place the music and Terezín itself in a historical context.

Reading 1 Religion, Race, and Identity 3

Reading 2 Building a “Racial State” 6

Reading 3 Racial Purity and Degenerate Music 9

Reading 4 Art and Politics 14

 Reading 5 Confronting the “Big Lie” 17

RESPONDING TO THE CD 20

The readings in this section of the guide explore the work of the four composers featured on the CD—Hans Krasa, Gideon Klein, Viktor Ullmann, and Pavel Haas. The readings marked with the musical staff are keyed to music on the CD. They may be used immediately before or after hearing a particular work. Each seeks to widen perspectives and foster critical listening by encouraging reflection and discussion.

 Reading 6 Terezín: A Paradox 21

Reading 7 A Statement of Faith 27

 Reading 8 “A Living Message” 31

 Reading 9 Expressing Outrage 34

 Reading 10 Across Boundaries 37

REFLECTIONS 40

This section adds new voices to discussions sparked by the CD.

Reading 11 Legacies 40

Additional Resources 42