Dear Flute Players,

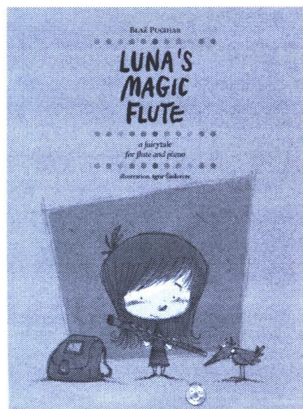

Luna's Magic Flute is originally written as Pucihar's fairytale for Flute and Piano, beautifully illustrated by Igor Šinkovec with 11 captivating vignettes which feature the little girl Luna and her flute.

When Luna boards the train, she has no friends with her, only her flute, which she knows how to play very well. She makes friends on her travels precisely because she makes everyone around her happy with her magical music. But soon a terrible dragon finds out about her flute...
