

Contents

List of Figures and Tables vii
Notes on Contributors ix

Introduction: Sociology of Disaster and Post-Western Theory 1
Laurence Roulleau-Berger and Yoshiyuki Yama

1 Disaster Recovery in Japan: the Concept of “Fukkou,” Memory, and Emotional Recovery 14
Yoshiyuki Yama

2 Sociology and Disasters in Europe and in East Asia 35
Laurence Roulleau-Berger

3 Learning from the Disaster and the Post-disaster Recovery: Dreams and Reality 14 Years Later of the 2011 Great East Japan Earthquake 59
Koichi Hasegawa

4 Homo Emotionalis—the Implicit Anthropology of Disaster
Sociology 77
Benoit Giry

5 Four Horsemen and the Red Queen: Intersectionality of Risks and Institutional Resilience in Taiwan 97
Thung-Hong Lin

6 To Rebuild or Not to Rebuild? Disorientation and Re-grounding in Post-quake on Mount Etna 120
Mara Benadusi, Rita Ciccaglione, Mario Mattia and Vincenzo Lo Bartolo

7 The Role of the Disaster Museum in Japan: Inheriting Memory and Promoting Disaster Education 147
Bonjun Koo

8 Culturally Sensitive Reconstruction after Disasters: a Long-Term
Ethnographic Research in Southwest China 166
Qiaoyun Zhang

- 9 Disaster Entrepreneurs, Emotions and Environmental Movements in France and in China 186
Pierre Manoury
- 10 Disasters, Livelihood, and Indigenous Cosmology: the Case of the Na in Sichuan and Yunnan (China) 205
Jin Chen
- 11 Disasters, Emotions, and Recovery 228
Laurence Roulleau-Berger and Oscar Truong
- Index 257