

Contents

I	America Under Her Native Sons	3
	1. The Origin of Man in America; 2. The Indians' America
II	The European Discovery of America	17
	1. The Heritage of Classical Antiquity; 2. Irish and Norse Discoveries; 3. Genoese and Portuguese; 4. Columbus's First Voyage; 5. First Colonizing Attempts; 6. First Northern Voyages; 7. Searching for the Strait
III	The Spanish Century, 1492-1580	34
	1. Spain Conquers Three Indian Empires; 2. The Adelantados in North America; 3. The Beginnings of New France; 4. The Elizabethan Prelude
IV	Two Founding Decades, 1607-1627	47
	1. The Setting; 2. Virginia; 3. Plymouth Plantation; 4. New Netherland and New France; 5. Beginnings of the Non-Spanish West Indies
V	New England Takes Shape, 1628-1675	61
	1. The Puritan Movement; 2. The Founding of the Bay Colony; 3. A Clutch of New Colonies, 1630-1650; 4. New England People and Institutions
VI	From the Hudson to the James, 1626-1675	75
	1. New Netherland and New York; 2. Lord Baltimore's Province of Maryland; 3. The Royal Province of Virginia
VII	Empires of the South and North, 1625-1675	94
	1. The Carolinas; 2. The Non-Spanish West Indies; 3. New France
VIII	Time of Troubles, 1675-1691	107
	1. King Philip's War; 2. Nat Bacon's Rebellion; 3. The Dominion of New England; 4. La Salle; 5. Revolutions and Rebellions of 1688-1691; 6. War and Witchcraft
IX	Pennsylvania and the West Indies, 1688-1700	126
	1. Penn's Holy Experiment; 2. The Colonies in 1700; 3. The Revolution Settlement; 4. Queen Anne and Her War
X	Growth and Development, 1713-1750	140
	1. Expansion and Business; 2. Currency Controversies; 3. Colonial Society; 4. The Great Awakening in Religion
XI	Wars on the Spaniards and the French, 1733-1763	154
	1. Georgia and War in the South; 2. Canada and War in the North; 3. Cold War Maneuvering, 1747-1755; 4. The Seven Years' War, 1755-1763

xii	Triumph and Tribulation, 1763-1766	171
	1. The Thirteen Colonies in 1763; 2. The Imperial System in 1763; 3. Reform and Resistance
xiii	Crisis, Calm, and Again Crisis, 1766-1774	189
	1. The Townshend Acts; 2. The Western Problem; 3. The Non-Importation Movement; 4. Calm and Crisis
xiv	Coercion to Independence, 1774-1776	205
	1. The Coercive Acts; 2. Western and Canadian Interlude; 3. Fighting Begins; 4. Second Congress and Olive Branch; 5. The Declaration of Independence
xv	Military and Naval Generalities, 1775-1781	224
	1. Condition and Organization; 2. Logistics, Finance, and Foreign Volunteers; 3. The Weapons; 4. The Navies; 5. The Loyalists; 6. The Commander in Chief xvi	The Northern Campaigns, 1776-1778	239
	1. Long Island and New York City; 2. The Campaign of the Jerseys; 3. The Saratoga Campaign; 4. From the Brandywine to Monmouth
xvii	Diplomacy, Carolinas, Yorktown, and Peace, 1778-1783	251
	1. The French Alliance; 2. Hit-and-Run Raids; 3. Fall of Charleston; Carolinas Campaign; 4. Sea Power and Yorktown; 5. Conclusion of the War
xviii	Revolutionary Constitution Making, 1775-1781	270
	1. The Bills of Rights; 2. The Frames of Government; 3. The Articles of Confederation
xix	The Creative Period in Commerce and the Arts, 1782-1789	282
	1. The Revival of Commerce; 2. Debts, Loyalists and Western Posts; 3. Literature and Education; 4. Religion and Reform
xx	The Creative Period in Politics, 1785-1788	297
	1. Some Western Problems Solved; 2. Shays's Rebellion and the Movement Toward Stronger Union; 3. The Federal Convention of 1787; 4. The Ratification Contest
xxi	Washington's First Administration, 1789-1793	317
	1. Organizing the Federal Government; 2. Alexander Hamilton; 3. Thomas Jefferson and the Opposition; 4. Washington's Foreign Policy
xxii	Broils with England and France, 1793-1801	336
	1. The French Revolution and American Politics; 2. The Crucial Year 1794; 3. Jay's Treaty and the Election of 1796; 4. John Adams and the Naval War with France; 5. Federalist Intolerance and the Election of 1800-1801
xxiii	Jefferson's Administrations, 1801-1809	358
	1. The "Revolution of 1800"; 2. Pirates Punished and an Empire Acquired; 3. Plots and Conspiracies; 4. Foreign Complications and the Embargo

xxiv	The Second War with Great Britain, 1809-1815	377
	1. Diplomacy and Drift; 2. War Fever Rises; 3. The War of 1812: Aggressive Phase; 4. The War of 1812: Defensive Phase; 5. Disaffection and Peace
xxv	Good Feelings and Bad, 1815-1823	400
	1. A Nationalist Era; 2. Western Panic and Missouri Compromise; 3. Anglo-American Adjustments; 4. The Monroe Doctrine
xxvi	Second Adams and First Jackson Administrations, 1825-1833	416
	1. A Minority President; 2. Election of 1828; 3. Jacksonian Democracy; 4. The Spoils System and the Cabinet
xxvii	Nullification and the Bank War, 1833-1837	430
	1. The Tariff, the South, and Calhoun; 2. The West and Daniel Webster; 3. Nullification Attempted; 4. Jackson, Re-elected, Fights the Bank
xxviii	Foreign Affairs and Removal of the Indians, 1830-1838	441
	1. Peace with England, Fight with France?; 2. The Navy and Latin American Relations; 3. Removal of the Eastern Indians; 4. Conclusion on Jackson
xxix	Van Buren and Our Northern Neighbors, 1837-1858	454
	1. Democrats, Whigs, and the Panic of 1837; 2. The Log Cabin Campaign of 1840; 3. Canada Boils Over
xxx	Society and Business in the North, 1820-1860	468
	1. America Finding Herself; 2. Land and Sea Transportation; 3. Immigration; 4. Manufacturing
xxxi	The Empire State, Citadel of Democracy, 1820-1860	485
	1. New York State and City in Mid-Century; 2. The Albany Regency and National Party Organization; 3. The Anti-Rent War; 4. The Intellectuals; 5. The Hudson River School of Painting
xxxii	The Southern States, 1820-1850	500
	1. The Cotton Kingdom; 2. Slavery and the Slave; 3. The Literature of Chivalry; 4. Science and Religion
xxxiii	Ferment and Culture in the North, 1820-1850	516
	1. Reformers and Revivalists; 2. Abolition, Antislavery, and Utopia; 3. The Renaissance of New England; 4. Popular and Higher Education; 5. Science and Technology
xxxiv	Pacific Empire Beckons, 1766-1860	538
	1. Oregon and the "Mountain Men"; 2. Pioneers and the Oregon Trail; 3. The Mormons
xxxv	Texas and the Mexican War, 1820-1848	550
	1. The Lone Star Republic; 2. President Tyler Annexes Texas; 3. President Polk and the Road to War; 4. Glory and Conquest

xxxvi	Compromise and Calm, 1846-1854	566
	1. The Wilmot Proviso; 2. Gold Rush and Compromise; 3. Prosperity, Pierce, and "Young America"; 4. Japan Opened; 5. Isthmian Brawls; 6. Relations with Canada; 7. Noble Ships
xxxvii	Kansas, Nebraska, and New Parties, 1854-1859	586
	1. Prairie Settlement and Railroad Routes; 2. Kansas-Nebraska Act and a Strange Interlude; 3. Kansas and a New Party; 4. Dred Scott; 5. The Lincoln-Douglas Debate; 6. The African Slave Trade
xxxviii	The Approach to War, 1859-1861	601
	1. Booth, Brown, and the Election of 1860; 2. Secession Landslide in the Cotton States; 3. The Contest for the Border States
xxxix	The War in 1861	615
	1. A Brothers' War; 2. The Presidents and Their Cabinets; 3. The Two Armies; 4. Geography, Strategy, and Bull Run; 5. Terrain and Tactics; 6. Europe, Canada, and the War
xl	Eighteen Sixty-two, the Crucial Year	635
	1. McClellan, the Radicals, and Stanton; 2. Grant and Farragut; 3. Sea Power and the War; 4. The Peninsular Campaign, March-July 1862; 5. Interlude; 6. Antietam and Emancipation; 7. Fredericksburg
xli	At Home and Abroad, 1861-1865	658
	1. Internal Politics, North and South; 2. Troubled Waters; 3. Conscription, Commerce, and Culture; 4. The Negro and the War
xlII	The Campaigns of 1863-1864	676
	1. Chancellorsville and Gettysburg; 2. Vicksburg; 3. The Chattanooga, Red River, and Atlanta Campaigns; 4. The Wilderness Campaign
xlIII	Victory and Death, 1864-1865	692
	1. Early's Raid and the Election of 1864; 2. From Atlanta to Appomattox; 3. The Last Days of Lincoln
xlIV	Reconstruction, 1865-1877	705
	1. War's Aftermath; 2. Presidential Reconstruction; 3. Congress Takes a Hand, 1866-1868; 4. Reconstruction Reconstructed, 1867-1875; 5. Impeachment of Johnson and End of Reconstruction
xlV	The Republican Dynasty, 1869-1893	726
	1. The United States, Great Britain, and Canada; 2. The "Gilded Age"; 3. The Disputed Election and President Hayes; 4. The Garfield-Arthur Administration; 5. Mugwumps, Democrats, and the Second Harrison
xlVI	Expansion and Development, 1870-1900	743
	1. Railroads, "Electrics," and Shipping; 2. Indians, Cattle, and Cowboys; 3. The Farming Country; 4. Iron and Steel, Big Business and Politics; 5. Canada Comes of Age

XLVII	Social and Cultural Developments, 1870-1900	768
	1. The Rise of Organized Labor; 2. The State of Religion; 3. Arts, Letters, and Education; 4. Games, Sports, and Joining
XLVIII	The Fecund Eighteen-nineties	789
	1. Populism and Panic; 2. Jim Crow in the South; 3. President Cleveland's Second Term; 4. The Spanish-American War
XLIX	Theodore Roosevelt, 1901-1909	811
	1. The Progressive Background and "Teddy"; 2. Consolidation and Reform; 3. Trust and Railway Regulation to 1920; 4. The Big Stick in the Caribbean; 5. Roosevelt and World Politics
L	Taft and Wilson, 1909-1917	831
	1. Taft Takes Over; 2. Canada and the Caribbean; 3. Insurgents and the Election of 1912; 4. The First Wilson Administration; 5. Woodrow Wilson and Mexico
LI	The First World War: The Neutrality Period, 1914-1917	848
	1. America's Reaction to the War; 2. Neutrality Problems; 3. Preparedness and the Election of 1916; 4. From Wilson's Re-election to War
LII	The United States in the First World War, 1917-1920	861
	1. Naval Operations; 2. The American Expeditionary Force; 3. The Big Push of 1918; 4. The War at Home; 5. The Peace Conference and the League; 6. The Eclipse of Liberalism
LIII	The Great Change, 1902-1939	888
	1. The Auto and the Ad Men; 2. Aviation, 1903-1960; 3. Immigration; 4. Bootlegging and Other Sports; 5. The Sexual Upheaval; 6. Letters, Arts, and Sciences
LIV	Republican Ascendancy, 1921-1933	918
	1. Harding and the "Ohio Gang"; 2. The Republicans and Foreign Affairs; 3. Postwar Canada; 4. The Harding Scandals and the Coolidge Administration
LV	The Hoover Administration, 1929-1933	935
	1. The Election of 1928; 2. Herbert Hoover and the Boom; 3. The 1929 Crash and the Great Depression; 4. The Accession of Franklin D. Roosevelt
LVI	The New Deal	951
	1. Roosevelt Himself; 2. The Hundred Days and After; 3. Conservation and the TVA; 4. The New Deal and Foreign Affairs; 5. The Opposition and the Supreme Court; 6. Demagogues and Deviationists; 7. The Election of 1936
LVII	The Second Roosevelt Administration, 1937-1941	977
	1. The New Deal and Labor; 2. Canada in the Depression; 3. New Deal for Indians and Negroes; 4. Conclusion to the New Deal; 5. War in Europe and Asia; 6. "Short of War" to Pearl Harbor

LVIII	On the Defensive, 1941-1942	1002
	1. World-wide Disaster; 2. The Strategy and Direction of the War; 3. Turn of the Tide; 4. Guadalcanal, Papua, and Africa; 5. The U-Boat Mastered, Italy Invaded; 6. Leap-Frogging in the Pacific
LIX	Victory, 1944-1945	1028
	1. The Invasion of Europe; 2. The Battle for Leyte Gulf; 3. Political Interlude; 4. Victory in Europe; 5. Victory in the Pacific
LX	The Truman Administrations, 1945-1953	1046
	1. The Iron Curtain; 2. Harry's First Term; 3. The United Nations and the Cold War; 4. China and the Occupation of Japan; 5. The Korean War; 6. The Election of 1952
LXI	The Eisenhower Administrations, 1953-1961	1079
	1. The President and His Domestic Policy; 2. Foreign Relations; 3. The New Free Enterprise; 4. Labor, Automation, and Antarctica
LXII	The Kennedy Administration, 1961-1963	1107
	1. The Election of 1960; 2. The Cabinet and Domestic Policy; 3. Defense and Foreign Policy; 4. The New Picture and the End
	Index	1123