

Table of Contents

List of Illustrations	7
Contributors	9
Preface	13
Acknowledgements	17
Introduction. The Potentiality of Clausura. From the Confined Place to Spaces of Enclosure
Julia LEWANDOWSKA and Araceli ROSILLO-LUQUE	19
 Part I Enclosure, Society and Ecclesiastical Power
1. The Origin of Double Monasteries. Gender Parallel Leadership in the Liturgy
Ally KATEUSZ	31
2. The Ambivalent Enclosure. Iberian Nuns and the Dynamics of Authority (Sixth to Tenth Centuries)
Araceli ROSILLO-LUQUE	55
3. Behind the Cloister Wall. The Power of Female Enclosure in the Middle Ages
Silvia CARRARO	77
4. Enclosure and the English Fontevraudine Nuns of Amesbury, Nuneaton, and Westwood Priors
Joyce BEELMAN	97
5. Enclosure & Reform. St Colette of Corbie and the Reform of the Poor Clares
Anna CAMPBELL	123

Part II

Enclosure, Spaces and Textualities

6. Virgines et Cubicula: (En)closed Women in Late Antiquity. The Origins of Female Monasticism
Lorena GARRI-CATCHOT	141
7. A Fixed Point in Time. Enclosed Textuality in the Anchorhold
Brenna DUPERRON	171
8. Following in their Footsteps. Virtual Pilgrimage, Women on Pilgrimage, and Navigating Enclosure in Mid to Late Mediaeval Europe
Pelia WERTH	193
9. De Linnage Mui't' Alt [...] e Gran Crerizía. Gendered Spaces, Material Culture, and Enclosure in Iberian Female Monasteries and Beyond
Mercedes PÉREZ VIDAL	215
10. 'Cell of One's Own'. The Notion of Female Enclosure in the Teresian Reform in Spain
Julia LEWANDOWSKA	241
Sources and Bibliography	265