

Contents

About the editors	vii
List of contributors	viii
Foreword	xii
Kimberlé Crenshaw
Preface	xv
Paulo Pinto de Albuquerque
1 Editors' introduction	1
Lyn K.L. Tjon Soei Len, Nani Jansen Reventlow, Eddie Bruce-Jones, and Adam Weiss
2 The complex marginalisation of domestic workers	19
Nozizwe Dube
3 The power dynamics of gender, race, and religion in hate speech	43
Nawal Mustafa
4 Begging as crime, begging as resistance	62
Elif Ege
5 Antigypsyist exclusion from running water	89
Irmina Kotiuk
6 The persistence of antigypsyism in the right to family life	114
Vivien Brassóí and Senada Sali
7 Incarceration, disability, and the criminalisation of solidarity	139
Nicolette Busuttil
8 The socio-cultural fabric of rape and its aftermath	164
Letonde A. Hermine Gbedo, Veronica Saba, and Linda Pavanello
9 Stopping states from deadnaming parents	185
Arpi Avetisyan

10	Securitisation and surveillance of LGBTQI+ people Keio Yoshida and Jonathan Ward	212
11	Class and racial privilege and marginalisation in environmental protest Sheena Anderson and Tatu Lisa Hey	228
12	Colonial legacies, migration, and family separation Katherine M. Zhou	245
13	Metadata and digital surveillance of marginalised populations Sylvia Kamanja	266
	Index	289