
Contents

List of contributors	vii
Introduction Ashutosh Bhagwat and Alan K. Chen	x
PART I WHAT MAKES SPEECH VALUABLE
1 Our eclectic First Amendment David S. Han	2
2 Free speech as a prerequisite for all other rights Eric Heinze	18
3 The fearlessness rationale for free speech Andrew M. Koppelman	36
PART II FREE SPEECH, PRIVATE POWER, AND DEMOCRACY
4 The demand for bullshit Lila Greenberg, Katherine Marin, Jessica Sparks, and Jane Bambauer	50
5 Social media must-carry laws and the First Amendment Kyle Langvardt and Alan Z. Rozenshtein	69
6 Anti-free speech Lochnerism Gregory P. Magarian	87
7 Speech restrictions imposed by private employers Eugene Volokh	109
PART III FREE SPEECH AND INSTITUTIONS
8 The role of speech institutions when both speech and institutions are threatened Joseph Blocher	131
9 The work of the Press Clause RonNell Andersen Jones and Sonja R. West	147
10 Politics, knowledge, and government speech Heidi Kitrosser	172
11 Faculty speech, academic freedom, and democratic backsliding Timothy Zick	192

PART IV PENUMBRAL EXPRESSIVE RIGHTS

- 12 The right of assembly revisited 215
John Inazu
- 13 Democratic self-government and the First Amendment's "forgotten" clauses: on the (many) potential benefits of reclaiming and reanimating the press, assembly, and petition clauses 230
Ronald J. Krotoszynski, Jr

PART V COMPARATIVE APPROACHES TO PROTECTING FREE SPEECH

- 14 Online must-carry in comparative perspective 264
Enrique Armijo
- 15 Differences of approach to freedom of expression in Europe and the United States: what is their explanation? 281
Eric Barendt
- 16 A transatlantic overview of free speech theory and doctrines 299
Thomas Hochmann
- 17 The forms of freedom of expression 314
Adrienne Stone
- 18 Hate speech 334
Mark Tushnet

PART VI THE FUTURE OF FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION

- 19 Re-examining the relationship between free speech and democratic legitimacy after the January 6 insurrection 349
Eliza Bechtold
- 20 Ships still passing in the night? The deepening European–US divide on regulating the online public sphere 368
Gavin Phillipson
- 21 There is no freedom of speech principle 403
Robert C. Post
- 22 Human dignity, free speech, and algorithmic machines 414
Alexander Tsesis
- Index* 435