Contents

List of contributors ix
Acknowledgements xii

Introduction: human rights law and health – new challenges; new perspectives 1
Nataly Papadopoulou and Elizabeth Wicks

PART I HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES IN HEALTH

1 The right to health 12
Stephen P. Marks

2 The right to health: shifting priorities from healthcare to prevention 42
Brigit Toebes and Aart Hendriks

3 Pursuing health rights for distress migrants: harnessing interdisciplinary inputs and legal literacy 57
Stefano Angeleri

4 The doctrine of informed consent, patients' religious beliefs and relational theory of autonomy 82
Nili Karako-Eyal

5 A right to refuse to kill? Human rights and conscientious objection to 'assisted dying' in the UK 107
Mary Neal

PART II HUMAN RIGHTS AND HEALTH THROUGHOUT THE LIFE CYCLE

6 Surrogacy: reproductive rights enabling 'biological colonialism'? 137
Marianna Iliadou

7 'Abortion is healthcare': the promise and pitfalls of framing abortion under the right to health 159
Zoe L. Tongue

8 Building on areas of agreement in the United Nations' Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities: the right to 'habilitation and rehabilitation' for mental illness 181
Brendan D. Kelly

9 Older persons and fundamental human rights to access healthcare in England: new models, new protections? 196
Jean McHale

10 Living through dying: the case for the legalisation of assisted dying based on the rights to life and freedom from ill-treatment in the European Convention on Human Rights 221
Stevie Martin

11 Political environments of assisted dying: affirming the legitimacy of assisted dying legislation 249
Cedric Charles Gilson and Nataly Papadopoulou

PART III CHALLENGING HUMAN RIGHTS AND HEALTH: NEW PERSPECTIVES AND EMERGING CHALLENGES

12 Hybrid human rights? Persons, property rights, and medical devices 279
Muireann Quigley and Joseph Roberts

13 The evolution of the human right to medicines from HIV/AIDS to COVID-19 312
Lisa Forman

14 A necessary conversation: understanding rehabilitation within a holistic right to health for persons with disabilities 332
Danielle Watson

15 Landscapes for health 355
Elizabeth Wicks

Index 377