

Summary of Contents

	p.	margin. no.
Preface	V
Table of Contents	XI
Table of Abbreviations	XXIII
Part One: Foundations
A. Historical Evolution of International Criminal Law	1	1
B. Concepts, Tasks and Legitimacy	28	82
C. International Criminal Law and the International Legal Order	39	110
D. Sources and Interpretation	48	135
E. Universal Jurisdiction, the Duty to Prosecute, Transitional Justice	62	183
F. Enforcement	79	219
G. Domestic Implementation	116	309
Part Two: General Principles	136	362
A. Towards a General Theory of Crimes Under International Law	137	368
B. Material Elements	143	382
C. Mental Element	146	390
D. Individual Criminal Responsibility	165	440
E. Superior Responsibility	185	496
F. Grounds for Excluding Criminal Responsibility	197	534
G. Inchoate Crimes	227	618
H. Omissions	232	636
I. Official Capacity and Immunity	234	644
J. Multiplicity of Offenses	241	662
K. Requirements for Prosecution	247	680
Part Three: Genocide	250	690
A. Introduction	252	691
B. Material Elements	258	707
C. Mental Element	273	747
D. Incitement to Commit Genocide	281	766
E. Multiplicity of Offenses	283	773
Part Four: Crimes Against Humanity	286	778
A. Introduction	288	779
B. Contextual Element (Attack on a Civilian Population)	293	792
C. Individual Acts	304	822
D. Multiplicity of Offenses	341	924
Part Five: War Crimes	344	928
A. Introduction	346	929
B. Overall Requirements	364	978

C. War Crimes Against Persons	378	1014
D. War Crimes Against Property and Other Rights	418	1145
E. Employing Prohibited Methods of Warfare	425	1167
F. Use of Prohibited Means of Warfare	456	1257
G. War Crimes Against Humanitarian Operations	469	1294
H. Multiplicity of Offenses	472	1305

Part Six: The Crime of Aggression	474	1308
A. The Prohibition of Aggression Under International Law	476	1312
B. Criminal Responsibility Under Customary International Law (War of Aggression)	481	1322
C. The Crime of Aggression in the ICC Statute – Prospects	492	1345

Appendix 1: Materials	497
Appendix 2: Table of Cases	567
Appendix 3: Table of Statutes and International Instruments	593
Appendix 4: International Criminal Law in the World Wide Web	613
Appendix 5: Index	617