

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER I

THE ALEXANDRIANS	I
The School of Alexandria	2
Pantaenus	4
Clement of Alexandria	5
I. HIS WRITINGS 6: 1. The Exhortation 7; 2. The Tutor 9; 3. The Stromata 12; 4. Excerpta ex Theodoto and Eclogae propheticae 15; 5. Quis dives salvetur 15
II. LOST WRITINGS 16
III. ASPECTS OF CLEMENT'S THEOLOGY 20: 1. The Doctrine of the Logos 21; 2. Ecclesiology 24; 3. Baptism 27; 4. Eucharist 28; 5. Sins and Penance 31; 6. Matrimony and Virginitv 34
Origen	37
I. HIS WRITINGS 43: 1. Textual Criticism 44; 2. Exegetical Works 45: Scholia 46, Homilies 46, Commentaries 48; 3. Apologetical Works 52: Against Celsus 52; 4. Dogmatic Writings 57: First Principles 57, Discussion with Heraclides 62, On the Resurrection 65, Stromateis 65; 5. Practical Writings 66: On prayer 66, Exhortation to Martyrdom 69, On Easter 73, Letters 73
II. ASPECTS OF ORIGEN'S THEOLOGY 75: 1. Trinity 76; 2. Christology 79; 3. Mariology 81; 4. Ecclesiology 82; 5. Baptism and Original Sin 83; 6. Penance and Forgiveness of Sins 84; 7. Eucharist 85; 8. Eschatology 87; 9. The Pre-existence of Souls 91; 10. The Doctrine of Scriptural Senses 91
III. THE MYSTICISM OF ORIGEN 94: 1. Notion of Perfection 94; 2. Self-knowledge 95; 3. The Battle against Sin 96; 4. Ascetical Exercises 97; 5. The Beginnings of the Mystical Ascent 97; 6. The Mystical Union with the Logos 98
Ammonius	101
Dionysius of Alexandria	101
HIS WRITINGS 103: 1. On Nature 103; 2. On Promises 103; 3. Refutation and Apology 105; 4. Letters 106
Theognostus	109
Pierius.	111

Peter of Alexandria	113
His WRITINGS 114: 1. On the Godhead 114; 2. On the Advent of Our Saviour 115; 3. On the Soul 115; 4. On the Resurrection 115; 5. On Penance 115; 6. On Easter 116; 7. The Letter to the Alexandrians on Meletius 116
Hesychius	118
Appendix: The Apostolic Church Order	119

CHAPTER II

THE WRITERS OF ASIA MINOR, SYRIA AND PALESTINE

The School of Caesarea	121
The School of Antioch	121
Gregory the Wonder-worker	123
His WRITINGS 124: 1. The Panegyric to Origen 124; 2. The Creed or Exposition of Faith 125; 3. The so-called Canonical Epistle 126; 4. The Metaphrase of Ecclesiastes 127; 5. On the Impassibility and Passibility of God 127
SPURIOUS WRITINGS 127
Firmilian of Caesarea	128
Methodius	129
1. The Banquet or On Virginitv 130; 2. The Treatise on Free Will 133; 3. On the Resurrection 134; 4. On Life and Reasonable Actions 136; 5. Exegetical Works 137; 6. Against Porphyry 137
Sextus Julius Africanus.	137
His WORKS 138: 1. Chronicles 138; 2. Kestoi 139; 3. Two Letters 139
Paul of Samosata and Malchion of Antioch	140
Lucian of Antioch.	142
Dorotheus of Antioch	144
Pamphilus of Caesarea	144
1. His Apology for Origen 145; 2. His Copies of the Biblical Text 146

The Dialogue on the Orthodox Faith	146
Appendix: The Syriac Didascalia Apostolorum	147

CHAPTER III

THE ROMANS

The Beginnings of Latin Christian Literature at Rome . .	153
Minucius Felix	155
1. The Octavius 155; 2. The De fato 163
Hippolytus of Rome	163
I. HIS WORKS 165: 1. The Philosophumena 166; 2. The Syntagma or Against All Heresies 169; 3. The Antichrist 170; 4. Exegetical Treatises 171: The Commentary on Daniel 171, The Commentary on the Can- ticle of Canticles 173, On the Blessing of Jacob 174, On the Blessing of Moses 174, The Story of David and Goliath 175, On the Psalms 175; 5. Chronological Treatises 176: The Chronicle 176, The Determination of the Date of Easter 177; 6. Homilies 178: On the Passover 178, On the Praise of the Lord Our Saviour 179, Homily on the Heresy of Noetus 180, Demonstration Against the Jews 180; 7. The Apostolic Tradition 180
II. LOST WRITINGS 195
III. THE THEOLOGY OF HIPPOLYTUS OF ROME 198: 1. Christology 198; 2. Soteriology 200; 3. The Church 202; 4. The Remission of Sins 204
The Muratorian Fragment	207
The Old Prologues to the Gospels and the Epistles of St. Paul	210
1. The Anti-Marcionite Prologues to the Gospels 210; 2. The Monar- chian Prologues to the Gospels 211; 3. The Prologues to the Epistles of St. Paul 212
Novatian.	212
I. HIS WRITINGS 217: 1. On the Trinity 217; 2. On Jewish Foods 219; 3. On Shows 223; 4. On the Advantage of Modesty 225; 5. Epistles 226
II. THE THEOLOGY OF NOVATIAN 226
Papal Letters of the Third Century	233
1. Callistus 233; 2. Pontianus 235; 3. Fabianus 236; 4. Cornelius 236; 5. Lucius 237; 6. Stephen 237; 7. Sixtus II 239; 8. Dionysius 239; 9. Felix 242

CHAPTER IV

THE AFRICANS	243
The First Latin Versions of the Bible.	244
Tertullian	246
I. WRITINGS 251: 1. Text Tradition 251; 2. The Apologetic Works of Tertul- lian 255: To the Heathen 255, Apology 256, The Testimony of the Soul 264, To Scapula 266, Against the Jews 268; 3. Controversial Treatises 269: The Prescription of Heretics 269, Against Marcion 273, Against Her- mogenes 276, Against the Valentinians 277, On Baptism 278, Scorpiace 281, On the Flesh of Christ 282, The Resurrection of the Flesh 283, Against Praxeas 284, On the Soul 287; 4. Disciplinary, Moral and As- cetical Works 290: To the Martyrs 290, The Shows 292, On the Dress of Women 294, Concerning Prayer 296, Concerning Patience 298, Con- cerning Repentance 299, To His Wife 302, Exhortation to Chastity 304, Monogamy 305, Concerning the Veiling of Virgins 306, The Chaplet 307, Concerning Flight in Persecution 309, Concerning Idolatry 310, On Fasting 312, On Modesty 312, Concerning the Pallium 315
II. LOST WRITINGS 317; Non-authentic Writings 318
III. ASPECTS OF TERTULLIAN'S THEOLOGY 319: 1. Theology and Philosophy 320; 2. Theology and Law 322; 3. The Rule of Faith 323; 4. Trinity 324; 5. Christology 328; 6. Mariology 329; 7. Ecclesiology 330; 8. Penance and the Power of the Keys 322; 9. The Eucharist 335; 10. Eschatology 338
Cyprian	340
I. WRITINGS 344: Treatises 346: 1. To Donatus 346; 2. The Dress of Virgins 347; 3. Concerning the Lapsed 348; 4. The Unity of the Church 349; 5. The Lord's Prayer 353; 6. To Demetrianus 355; 7. On the Mortality 356; 8. Concerning Works and Almsgiving 358; 9. The Advantage of Patience 359; 10. Jealousy and Envy 360; 11. Exhortation to Martyr- dom, addressed to Fortunatus 361; 12. To Quirinus: Three Books of Testimonies 362; 13. That the Idols are not Gods 363. Epistles 364
II. PSEUDO-CYPRIANIC WRITINGS 367
III. ASPECTS OF CYPRIAN'S THEOLOGY 373: 1. Ecclesiology 373; 2. The Primacy of Rome 375; 3. Baptism 378; 4. Penance 380; 5. The Eucharist 381
Arnobius of Sicca	383
Adversus Nationes 384; Theological Views 387
Lactantius	392
I. HIS WRITINGS 393: 1. On God's Workmanship 394; 2. The Divine In- stitutes 396; 3. The Epitome 399; 4. The Anger of God 399; 5. The Death of the Persecutors 400; 6. The Bird Phoenix 403

II. LOST WRITINGS 405
III. THEOLOGICAL VIEWS 405: 1. Dualism 406; 2. The Holy Spirit 407; 3.
The Creation and Immortality of the Soul 407; 4. Eschatology 408

CHAPTER V

THE OTHER WRITERS OF THE WEST

Victorinus of Pettau 411
His WRITINGS 411: 1. The Commentary on the Apocalyps 411; 2. De fabrica mundi 412; 3. Against All Heresies 412
Reticius of Autun 413

INDEXES

I. References 415
Old and New Testament 415
Ancient Christian Writers 416
Modern Authors 422
Greek Words 436
II. General Index 437