

Contents

Foreword by Adama Dieng.....	vii
Acknowledgements	xi
Contributors.....	xv
Introduction—Africa: A Maker of International Law Jeremy I Levitt	1
Part I: Human Rights, Intervention and Armed Conflict.....	11
1. Women's Rights and Africa's Evolving Landscape: The Women's Protocol of the Banjul Charter Adrien Katherine Wing	13
2. Customary African Approaches to the Development of International Criminal Law Pacifique Manirakiza	35
3. Africa's Internally Displaced and the Development of International Norms: Standards versus Implementation Francis M Deng.....	65
4. Pro-democratic Intervention in Africa Jeremy I Levitt	103
5. Humanitarian Warfare: Towards an African Appreciation Dino Kritsiotis	149
Part II: Governance, Sovereignty and Development.....	181
6. African Constitutionalism: Forging New Models for Multi-ethnic Governance and Self-determination J Peter Pham	183
7. Pioneering Models for International Project Finance and Criminal Adjudication through Shared Sovereignty Emeka Duruigbo	205

8. Redrawing the Map: Lessons of Post-colonial Boundary Dispute Resolution in Africa Joel H Samuels	227
9. NEPAD and the Rebirth of Development Theory and Praxis Maxwell O Chibundu	257
Bibliography	297
Index	335