

Contents

Acknowledgments	xi
Abbreviations	xiii
Introduction: The Notion of Sacrifice	1
1 Kant: Sacrifice and the Transcendental Turn	19
Kant's Kenotic Turn in Epistemology	20
Kant's Practical Philosophy: "A Sacrifice Before the Moloch of Abstraction"?	25
Symbolic and Regulative Value of Sacrifice	31
2 Solger's Sacrificial Dialectic	39
Sacrifice as Double Negation	39
Negation and Privation	49
3 Hegel: Sacrifice and Recognition	61
Sacrifice in the Phenomenology of Spirit	61
Sacrifice and Incarnation in Hegel's Philosophy of Religion	75
4 Kierkegaard: Sacrifice and the Regulativity of Love	87
Sacrifice in Fear and Trembling	87
Kierkegaard's Kenotic Sacrifice	104
5 Nietzsche: The Sacrifice of the Overman	117
Three Meanings of Sacrifice	117
Political Implications of Sacrifice	126

6	Conclusion: The Long Way of Sacrifice	141
	Sacrifice from Kant to Nietzsche . . .	141
	. . . And Beyond	146
	What Theory of Sacrifice?	160
	Notes	167
	Bibliography	197
	Index	209