

CONTENTS

Preface ix

PART 1 GRAMMAR

BASIC SENTENCE STRUCTURE 2

1. Subject and Predicate 3

- The independent clause
- The verb phrase
- Position of the subject
- What not to do with the subject
- Filler subjects it and there
- Six basic requirements

2. Phrases and Clauses 15

- Packing a sentence with information
- Adding information at the beginning
- Modifying and identifying the subject
- Inserting additional information
- Adding a verb
- Expanding the object
- Adding information at the end

3. Questions and Negatives 26

- The form of questions
- Why?* and what for?
- Negatives
- Alternative forms of negation
- Tag questions
- Tag questions: summary

NOUN PHRASES 36

4. Proper Nouns 37

- Categories
- Article use: summary
- Articles with singular proper nouns
- Articles with plural proper nouns

5. Countable and Uncountable Nouns 45

- Common nouns
- Countable nouns
- Plural forms of countable nouns
- Uncountable nouns
- Quantity words
- Few* and a few
- Measure words

6. Articles 57

- Determiners and articles
- Specific reference: the
- Generalizations
- Articles with nouns: summary
- Important points to remember
- Idiomatic usage

VERB PHRASES 69

7. Verb Phrases 70

- Complete
- Active and passive
- Present-future and past
- Requirements for checking verb phrases

8. Verb Tenses: Overview 78

- Basic time
- Time before basic time
- Progressive action at basic time
- Verbs not used with progressive aspect
- Perfect progressive aspect
- Consistency of tenses

9. Verb Tenses: Past 90

- Past cluster verb phrases
- Basic past tense
- Irregular verb forms
- Past perfect
- Past and past perfect progressive
- Used to* and would

10. Verb Tenses: Present and Future 101

- Present-future phrases
- Habitual action
- Basic present verb forms
- Perfect tenses
- Progressive tenses
- Perfect progressive

11. Modal Auxiliaries 113

- Ability, permission, polite questions and statements
- Advisability, necessity, no necessity, prohibition
- Expectation, possibility, and logical deduction
- Simple form after the modal auxiliaries
- The uses of would
- Summary chart

12. Active and Passive 124

- Forms of the passive
- Uses of the passive
- Passive idioms with get and have
- The passive with direct and indirect objects
- Been* and being
- Participle to describe a situation

13. Verb Forms: Summary 136

- Forms of the verb
- Troublesome verb forms
- The verb system at a glance
- Phrasal verbs

MODIFIERS 147

14. Adjectives and Noun Modifiers 148

- Form and position of adjectives
- Nouns to modify nouns
- Compound adjectives
- Adjectives formed from -ing form or (-ed/-en) form
- Adjectives in a series
- Adjectives + prepositions
- Adjectives introducing reduced clauses

15. Adverbs and Frequency Adverbs 160

- Form and meaning of adverbs
- Position of adverbs
- Adverbs modifying specific constructions
- Very*, too, enough
- Adverbs of frequency in middle positions
- Adverbs of frequency: beginning and end
- Time adverbs and verb tense

16. Comparisons 171

- Forms for adjectives and adverbs
- Irregular forms
- Comparative structures
- (not) as . . . as*, like, but, however, whereas
- Most*, the most, and most of
- Idiom: the more, the merrier
- Figures of speech

AGREEMENT 183

17. Subject-Verb Agreement 184

- a. The -s ending
- b. Subjects and verbs
- c. Verbs in a sequence
- d. Tricky singular and plural subjects
- e. Proximity and ellipsis
- f. Agreement with adjectival clauses
- g. There and one of

18. Pronouns and Pronoun Reference 197

- a. Personal pronouns
- b. Demonstrative pronouns
- c. Pronoun agreement
- d. Pronoun reference
- e. Sentence structure
- f. Possessive pronouns

VERBALS 207

19. Infinitives 208

- a. Form and functions
- b. As subject and subject complement
- c. As object
- d. After verb + noun phrase
- e. To modify adjectives
- f. To modify nouns
- g. To express purpose
- h. Special uses

20. -ing Forms (Gerunds and Modifiers) 220

- a. Functions
- b. Subject and subject complement (gerund in a noun phrase)
- c. Object (gerund in a noun phrase)
- d. Verbs followed by either -ing or infinitive (to + simple form)
- e. After a preposition (gerund in a noun phrase)
- f. After to as a preposition
- g. As an adjective
- h. Phrases substituting for clauses

21. Participle Forms 232

- a. Functions
- b. And -ing forms
- c. After get
- d. Used to
- e. Clause substitute

CONNECTING SENTENCES 242

22. Coordinating Conjunctions 243

- a. Connecting sentences
- b. Avoiding run-ons and the comma splice
- c. Connecting phrases and other parallel structures
- d. Not only and nor
- e. So, too, either, and neither

23. Transitions 252

- a. Linking related sentences: the semicolon
- b. Words and expressions
- c. Problems: run-ons and the comma splice
- d. In contrast and on the contrary

COMBINING SENTENCES 260

24. Adjectival Clauses 261

- a. Form and function
- b. Relative pronoun as subject
- c. Relative pronoun as object
- d. Possessive relative pronoun
- e. Relative pronoun with preposition
- f. Where, when, what, and the way
- g. Punctuation
- h. Quantity words with relative pronouns
- i. Reduced adjectival clauses

25. Noun Clauses and Reported Speech 276

- a. Form and function
- b. Introduced by that
- c. Included questions
- d. Reported and direct speech
- e. Documentation
- f. Verb form in noun clauses

26. Adverbial Clauses 286

- a. Position and punctuation
- b. Time and place
- c. Reason
- d. Because and because of
- e. Result and purpose
- f. Contrast
- g. Reduced adverbial clauses
- h. Problems: fragments

27. Adverbial Clauses: Conditions 298

- a. Features
- b. Real conditions of fact
- c. Real conditions of prediction
- d. Hypothetical conditions: speculation and were
- e. Hypothetical conditions of hindsight
- f. Wishes
- g. Summary of conditional adverbial clauses
- h. Other conjunctions
- i. Omitted if

PRINCIPLES OF WRITTEN DISCOURSE 310

28. Style 311

- a. Clarity and directness
- b. Wordiness
- c. Repetition
- d. Old information before new
- e. Sentence variety
- f. Cohesion

29. Punctuation 318

- a. End-of-sentence
- b. Semicolon
- c. Comma
- d. Colon
- e. Dashes and parentheses
- f. Apostrophe
- g. Quotation marks

PART 2 READINGS

Appendix A: Irregular Verbs 371

Appendix B: Spelling 374

Index 381