

CONTENTS

List of Boxes, Tables, Figures and Maps	xi
Preface to the Seventh Edition	xv
List of Abbreviations	xvi

PART 1 THEORETICAL PERSPECTIVES 1

1. THEORIES OF GLOBAL POLITICAL ECONOMY	3
Understanding the Global Political Economy	4
The Economic Nationalist Perspective	6
Key actors	7
Key dynamics	7
Conflict and cooperation	8
Economic nationalism today	9
The Liberal Perspective	11
Key actors	12
Key dynamics	13
Conflict and cooperation	13
Liberalism today	14
The Critical Perspective	17
Key actors	18
Key dynamics	18
Conflict and cooperation	19
Critical theory today	19
Contending Perspectives: A Summary	21
Further Reading	23
2. INTERNATIONAL POLITICAL ECONOMY AND ITS METHODS	24
Locating the Field	24
Economics	25
Political science	26
Political economy	27
International relations	27
Methodological Issues	29
Case studies and large n studies	29
Rational choice	30

Institutionalism	33
Constructivism	33
Trends in Contemporary GPE Theory	36
Consolidation	36
Integration	37
Expansion	38
Approach of the Book	41
Further Reading	43

PART 2 EVOLUTION 45

3. CREATING THE FIRST GLOBAL ECONOMY: 1400–1800	47
Prelude: The Fifteenth-Century World Economy	48
The Middle East	50
China	51
India	53
Africa	53
The Americas	54
Europe	55
The First Global Economy	57
Connecting and pillaging	58
the Americas	58
The triangular trade	63
Asia–European ocean trade	65
Conclusion	68
Trade	69
Production	69
Finance	70
Labour	71
Gender	71
Race	71
Development	71
Environment	72
Knowledge	72
Health	72
Security	73
Governance	73
Further Reading	74

4.	THE SECOND GLOBAL ECONOMY: 1800–1945	75
	The Industrial Revolution	76
	What was the Industrial Revolution?	76
	Why Britain? Why then?	79
	What did the others do?	81
	Pax Britannica	82
	The gold standard and capital flows	82
	Free trade	85
	Balance of power	87
	Renewed Imperialism	90
	War and Economic Disorder	93
	The world wars	94
	Interwar economic failure	96
	Conclusion	99
	Trade	100
	Production	100
	Finance	100
	Labour	101
	Gender	101
	Race	101
	Development	101
	Environment	102
	Ideas	102
	Health	102
	Security	103
	Governance	103
	Further Reading	104
5.	THE ACCELERATING GLOBAL ECONOMY: 1945–2024	105
	Three Political Economies:
	1945–89	106
	The US-led Western political economy	106
	The communist political economy	109
	The southern political economy	110
	A Third Global Economy:
	1990–2024	112
	Technological change	112
	International organizations and governance	114
	Varieties of capitalism and state transformation	117
	Conclusion	120
	Trade	121
	Production	121
	Finance	122
	Labour	122
	Gender	122
	Race	122
	Development	123
	Environment	123
	Knowledge	123
	Health	124
	Security	124
	Governance	124
	Further Reading	125
	PART 3 TRADE, PRODUCTION AND FINANCE	127
6.	INTERNATIONAL TRADE	129
	Definitions	129
	Theoretical Perspectives: Free Trade and Protectionism	130
	Proponents of free trade	131
	Critics of free trade	133
	Major Developments	136
	Growth and protectionism	137
	Changing institutional arrangements	141
	Key Issues	146
	Developing country interests	147
	Trade and globalization	152
	Conclusion	155
	Further Reading	156
7.	TRANSNATIONAL PRODUCTION	157
	Definitions	159
	Theoretical Perspectives:
	Explaining the Growth of TNCs	161
	Major Developments	164
	The globalization of production	164
	Changing organizational principles	168
	Key Issues	173
	Re-evaluating the benefits of FDI	173
	State–firm interactions	177
	Conclusion	181
	Further Reading	182

8. GLOBAL CREDIT SYSTEM	183	11. GENDER	254
Definitions and Background	183	Definitions	254
Theoretical Perspectives: Financial Instability Hypothesis	186	Theoretical Perspectives: GPE as if Gender Mattered	257
Major Developments	188	Major Developments	260
Financial innovation	188	Women in the world economy: employment trends and prospects	260
Repeated crises	191	Gender and global public policy	263
Key Issues	198	Key Issues	269
Global credit crisis	199	Poverty and gender inequality	269
Corporate and individual tax abuse	201	Globalization of reproductive work	270
Conclusion	205	Conclusion	275
Further Reading	206	Further Reading	275
9. INTERNATIONAL MONETARY SYSTEM	207	12. RACE	276
Definitions	207	Definitions	276
Theoretical Perspectives: Mundell-Fleming Trinity	209	Theoretical Perspectives: Postcolonialism and Racial Capitalism	277
Major Developments	211	Major Developments	279
IMS: from fixed to floating and regional currencies	211	Race and Western imperialism	280
Key Issues	217	The postcolonial liberal international economic order and North-South relations	282
Future of the US dollar	217	Key Issues	287
The European sovereign debt and euro crisis	220	Migration, racism and the GPE	287
Conclusion	224	Race, inequality and transnational surrogacy	291
Further Reading	225	Conclusion	293
PART 4 SOCIAL STRUCTURES	227	Further Reading	294
10. GLOBAL DIVISION OF LABOUR	229	PART 5 CONTEMPORARY CHALLENGES	295
Definitions	229	13. DEVELOPMENT	297
Theoretical Perspectives: Adam Smith and his Critics	232	Definitions	299
Major Developments	235	Theoretical Perspectives on Growth and Development	304
Changes in the production process	236	Major Developments	309
From the new international to the global division of labour	241	Development and national capitalism, 1947-81	310
Key Issues	244	Development, neoliberalism and beyond, 1982-2024	312
Global restructuring: the rise of China and India	244
Inequality	248
Conclusion	252
Further Reading	253

Key Issues	315	Property rights and life (HIV/AIDS)	385
The organization of development	316	Covid-19 and the global economy	387
Debt and debt relief	321	Conclusion	395
Conclusion	324	Further Reading	395
Further Reading	324
14. ENVIRONMENT	325	17. SECURITY	396
Definitions and Background	326	Definitions: Two Views of Security	396
Theoretical Perspectives: IPE and Environmental Studies	329	The traditional state-centric approach	397
IPE debates	329	Human security	398
Environmental studies' debates	332	Theoretical Perspectives: Integrating Security and Political Economy	399
Major Developments	335	Major Developments	403
Bringing the environment in	335	The Cold War security structure	404
Mainstreaming environmentalism	338	The post-Cold War security structure	405
Key Issues	339	Key Issues	408
Climate change	339	Economic statecraft and security	408
Sustainable development	347	Transnational crime and corporate espionage	412
Conclusion	351	Conclusion	417
Further Reading	352	Further Reading	417
15. KNOWLEDGE	353	PART 6 CONCLUSION	419
Definitions	353	18. GOVERNING THE GLOBAL POLITICAL ECONOMY	421
Theoretical Perspectives: Ideas about Ideas	354	Definitions	421
Major Developments	358	Theoretical Perspectives: Whither the State?	422
The information revolution and the information society	358	Major Developments	424
The rise and stall of the Washington Consensus	361	Proliferation of governance levels	425
Key Issues	366	Proliferation of actors	428
Ideas, interests and the global financial crisis	366	Rise of the BRICS	432
Blockchain utopias and AI dystopias	369	Twenty-first-century Challenges	434
Conclusion	375	Future of the liberal economic order	435
Further Reading	376	Sustainability of the global economy	437
16. HEALTH	377	Inequality and justice	440
Definitions	377	Conclusion	443
Theoretical Perspectives: Social and Commercial Determinants of Health	378	Further Reading	444
Major Developments	381
Globalization of health	381	Bibliography	445
Securitization of disease	383	Index	473
Key Issues	385		