

List of illustrations	xiii
List of contributors	xiv
Acknowledgements	xvi
List of abbreviations	xviii

1 On the edge of neighbourhood: regional dimensions of the EU–Russia interface 1

HEIKKI ESKELINEN, ILKKA LIIKANEN, AND
JAMES W. SCOTT

PART I

Northwest Russia: regional contexts of political integration 13

2 Federal reforms, interregional relations, and political integration in Northwest Russia 15

ELENA BELOKUROVA AND MARIA NOZHENKO

3 Regional community-building and cross-border interaction 31

ELENA BELOKUROVA AND MARIA NOZHENKO

PART II

Processes and actors of cross-border interaction 45

4 Geopolitics and the market: borderland economies in the making 47

HEIKKI ESKELINEN

5 The West and co-operation with the West in late and post-Soviet ethnic mobilization in Russian Karelia 60

ILKKA LIIKANEN

6 Crossing the borders of Finnish and Northwest Russian labour markets	87
PERTTI KOISTINEN AND OXANA KRUTOVA
7 Reconnecting territorialities? Spatial planning co-operation between Finnish and Russian subnational governments	100
MATTI FRITSCH
8 Russia's oil and gas export infrastructure: new routes, new actors	114
DMITRY ZIMIN
9 Civil society organizations as drivers of cross-border interaction: On whose terms? For which purpose?	131
JUSSI LAINE AND ANDREJ DEMIDOV
 PART III
Northwest Russia: an arena of socio-cultural transformation	149
10 Company towns on the border: the post-Soviet transformation of Svetogorsk and Kostomuksha	151
DMITRY ZIMIN, JUHA KOTILAINEN, AND EVGENIA PROKHOROVA
11 Repositioning a border town: Sortavala	167
ALEXANDER IZOTOV
12 Informal transitions: Northwest Russian youth between 'Westernization' and Soviet legacies	183
PIRJO JUKARAINEN
13 Karelia: A Finnish–Russian borderland on the edge of neighbourhood	194
VLADIMIR KOLOSSOV AND JAMES W. SCOTT
 Bibliography	 211
Index	233