EUROPEAN REVIEW OF PRIVATE LAW

VOLUME 34 NO.1-2026

Editorial/Éditorial/Redaktionell

1-2 Maria Cecilia Paglietti & Cristina Poncibò
Third-Party Litigation Funding in the European Union

Articles/Articles/Aufsätze

3-32 Adriani Dori & Xandra Kramer
Transparency and Judicial Oversight in Third-Party Litigation Funding in Europe: Regulatory Approaches and Market Perspectives

33-56 Maria Chiara Malaguti
Third-Party Funding in ISDS: Time for Regulation?

57-94 Winand Emons & Francesco Parisi
The Economics of Litigation Financing

95-118 Maria Cecilia Paglietti
Controlling Third-Party Litigation Funding in the EU: The Regulative Force of Soft Law

119-138 Francesco Paolo Patti
Settlements and Trial Control in Third Party Litigation Funding: The European Context

139-162 Cristina Poncibò
Justice Comes at a Price: Third Party Litigation Funding in the European Union

163-172 Peter Rott
Third-Party Funding, Legal Tech and Collective Consumer Protection: Experiences from Germany

173-184 Raffaele Sabato
Third-Party Funding of Litigation as a Tool for Access to Civil Justice: Lessons from the ECtHR's Case-Law