Contents

Figures and Tables xi

About the Author xiii

Foreword by Sean McNamara xv

Acknowledgements xvii

Introduction xix

Banned from the library xix
A note on terminology xxi
Structure xxiii

Part 1 Public Libraries and Homelessness 1

1 Backgrounds and Snapshots 3

Introduction: Understanding how things stand 3
Homelessness in the UK: a snapshot 4
Homelessness in the library literature: a snapshot 13
Conclusion: Never skim 20

2 The Needs of Homeless Library Users 21

Introduction: Just in here for the heat 21
Shared needs? 22
A special user group? 26
The specific needs of homeless individuals 27
Sometimes you just need to ask 32
Conclusion: We're all here for something 33

3 Prejudice Against Homeless Library Users 35

Introduction: Fleas 35
Poverty and prejudices 36
Conclusion: Whatever happened to him? 48

4 Findings from the Nationwide Survey 49

Introduction: Beginnings 49
Methodology 50
Closed-ended questions 55

	Open-ended questions	70
	Conclusion: Reflections	93
Part 2	A Practical Guide	95
5	Social Workers and Libraries	97
	Introduction: Into the grey	97
	Where is the line?	98
	The benefits of social workers in libraries	100
	Issues with social workers in libraries	107
	Conclusion: A little help	112
6	Rules and Policies Affecting Homeless Library Users	115
	Introduction: What are the rules?	115
	The difficult cases	116
	Crafting policies for your library	128
	Conclusion: A lack of confidence	133
7	Training	135
	Introduction: Training, training everywhere	135
	The need for staff training on homelessness in libraries	136
	What training is needed?	138
	Conclusion: Ask not what training can do for others	146
Conclusion		149
Appendix		151
References		153
Index		167