CONTENTS

About the author ix
Preface to the international edition x
Acknowledgments and looking ahead xii
Disclaimer and encouragement xiv

1 Introduction: oversight under pressure 1
Everything everywhere all at once 1
From context to responsibility 1
Beyond the job description: meeting public expectations 2
A magnifying glass on the boardroom characters and dynamics 2
When silence becomes risk 3
Central question 3
Why this book for non-executive directors? 4

2 Oversight in the boardroom: the human side 7
§2.1 Why oversight matters 7
§2.2 The Table of Power 12
§2.3 The players in the boardroom 18
§2.4 Emotions in the boardroom 23
§2.5 Behavior in the boardroom 27
§2.6 The meeting as a serious illusion 33
§2.7 Narcissism in the boardroom 37
§2.8 Boardroom dynamics 43
Reflection questions 48

3 Dynamic governance: how ownership shapes structures and culture 53
§3.1 Different governance for different purposes: defining oversight 53
§3.2 All in the family: governance in the family business 60
§3.3 Navigating between Scylla and Charybdis: governance in listed companies 67
§3.4 Reward, risk: the CEO pay debate 73
§3.5 Guardians and gamblers: governance in banking 78
§3.6 Unicorns and locusts: governance in private equity 85
§3.7 A sustainable model: governance in the cooperative 92
§3.8 VOC: behavioral governance in historical perspective 98
Reflection questions 100

4 Information and decision-making, keys to an accountable board 105
§4.1 Information: power, complexity, paradox 105
§4.2 Truth, lies, and governance 112

§4.3 Laws, codes, and common sense 118
§4.4 Fraud, a many-headed monster 124
§4.5 The architecture of corruption 134
§4.6 The external auditor, natural ally 142
§4.7 From integrity of information to integrity of decision-making 149
Reflection questions 157

5 Strategy, purpose, risk management: three sides of one coin 161
§5.1 Strategy as a choice 161
§5.2 Strategy, purpose, and the social mission of the board 170
§5.3 Risk is human 179
§5.4 Beyond rational risk: behavior, bias, and decision tools 186
Appendix: A checklist for recognizing bias in major strategic decision-making 191
Reflection questions 192

6 Moral leadership and the balanced board 195
§6.1 Values, virtues, and the moral compass 195
§6.2 Strategic intelligence and empathetic leadership 203
§6.3 Choosing the right leader at the right time 211
§6.4 The new non-executive director 219
§6.5 From blindness to a balanced board 226
Reflection questions 234

Index 237
Case Index 240