Contents

About the Author xi

Preface xiii

Acknowledgements xv

Glossary and Abbreviations xvii

Introduction xix

1 Definitions and Scope of the Book 1
Introduction 1
Terminology and definitions 1
Numbers 3
Reasons why children and young people are taken into care 3
Separated (unaccompanied asylum-seeking) children and young people 4
In care but still unsafe? 9
And what happens to a young person when they reach 18? 10
The impact on young people's lives – and their futures 11
The dangers of an intergenerational cycle developing 23
Estranged students and young people 24
An intersectional approach 25
A more positive picture . . . 29

2 A Brief Introduction to the Social Policy Background 37
Introduction 37
Work led by the Social Exclusion Unit 38
Remember My Messages . . . 39
Quality Protects 40
Eradicating child poverty 41
Every Child Matters 41
Education Matters 43
Care Matters 44
Austerity and its impact 44

3 What Have Libraries Provided in the Past? 51
Introduction 51

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | The National Literacy Trust 'Young Readers Programme' | 51 |
| | The Who Cares? Trust: 'The Equal Chances Programme' | 52 |
| | Paul Hamlyn Foundation 'Right to Read' | 53 |
| | 'Access to Books and Reading Projects for Young People in Public Care: The Librarians' Training Kit' | 58 |
| | Other initiatives | 59 |
| | Provision in 2003 | 65 |
| | Provision in 2006 | 66 |
| | 'HeadSpace' | 67 |
| | National Year of Reading 2008 | 67 |
| | Provision in 2009 | 68 |
| | Post-2009 | 69 |
| 4 | Barriers in Library Services to Care-Experienced Children | 73 |
| | Introduction | 73 |
| | Personal and social | 73 |
| | Perception and awareness | 74 |
| | Environmental | 74 |
| | Institutional | 75 |
| 5 | How are Libraries Responding Today? | 77 |
| | Introduction | 77 |
| | Learn | 77 |
| | Embed | 78 |
| | Share | 86 |
| 6 | What Can We Learn from Elsewhere? | 89 |
| | Introduction | 89 |
| | Case study 1: Cambridgeshire | 89 |
| | Case study 2: Cardiff | 90 |
| | Case study 3: Hertfordshire | 92 |
| | Case study 4: Leicestershire | 93 |
| | Case study 5: The MIRRA Project | 97 |
| | Case study 6: Rochdale | 100 |
| | Case study 7: Staffordshire | 101 |
| | Case study 8: Swindon Borough Council and the National Literacy Trust | 101 |
| | Case study 9: Tameside | 102 |
| | Case study 10: University of West of England | 105 |
| | Case study 11: West Sussex | 107 |
| | What can we learn from elsewhere? | 110 |
| 7 | Conclusions – and What More Can We Do? | 115 |
| | Introduction | 115 |
| | Observations and conclusions | 115 |
| | What more can we do? | 120 |
| | Broader ideas | 120 |
| | Some specific ideas | 121 |
| | Conclusion | 122 |

Appendix 1: More Information About the Care System 123
Child protection 123
The care system across four nations 123
Where do care-experienced young people live? 125
Issues 130
Reviews of the care system 135

Appendix 2: 'Right to Read' and Other PHF-Supported Initiatives 139
Cornwall 139
Knowsley and St Helens 140
Published articles 140

Endnotes 143

References 155

Index 187