Contents

List of illustrations x
Acknowledgements xi
Foreword xiii

Introduction 1

PART 1
Developing the individual as a leader 9

1 Self-belief and self-confidence 11

2 Role models or finding your own style? 13

3 Learning on the job vs. being trained 15

4 Self-reflection 17

5 Recognising your weaknesses and blind spots 20

6 Managing your own well-being 23

7 Flexibility: Welcoming challenge and different perspectives 26

8 The power of a personal network 28

9 How to respond to criticism 30

10 Modelling values and behaviour 32

PART 2
The tool box: The skills you need 35

11 Strategic skills: Don't get bogged down 37

12 Political antennae and horizon scanning 38

13 The emotionally intelligent leader: Listening, empathy, sensitivity, care and compassion 39

14 Financial skills: Managing the money 42

15 Fundraising skills: Following the money 45

16 Business planning 48

17 Being entrepreneurial 50

18 Understanding law and rights 53

19 Building trust 55

20 Understanding users' needs and agendas 57

21 Effective delegation 59

22 Influencing upwards 61

23 Engaging with uncertainty and risk 63

24 How to have difficult conversations and deal with uncomfortable issues 66

PART 3
Leading a sustainable organisation 69

25 Where does leadership sit in your organisation? 71

26 Finding common purpose 73

27 Leading change 75

28 Balancing conflicting priorities 79

29 Chasing funding and how to say 'no' 81

30 Leading a specialist workforce and the problem of silo-working 83

31 Internal communications 86

32 Developing distributed leadership and sharing decision-making 88

33 Staff morale and well-being 90

34 How to deal with restructures, redundancies, cuts and downsizing 94

35 Crisis management 96

36 Capacity building: When to use consultants 98

PART 4
Diversity and inclusion 101

37 Why valuing and respecting difference makes your organisation better 103

38 Identifying and dealing with racism and bias 109

39 Equitable recruitment 113

40 Using inclusive language 118

41 Building a diverse leadership team 121

42 Supporting champions of inclusion across the organisation 123

43 Diversifying staff and visitors/users 126

44 Building a participatory organisation 131

45 Accessibility 137

46 Digital inclusivity 140

PART 5
Governance for an inclusive and sustainable organisation 145

47 The strategic role of the board 147

48 Roles of board members in leadership 149

49 It shouldn't be who you know: A skills-based board 152

50 Board diversity and young trustees 155

51 Ethical behaviour 157

52 'Founder's Syndrome' 158

53 Working with, and influencing, your governing body, and the relationship between chair and CEO 159

54 Conflicts of loyalty 161

55 Succession planning and transition leadership 163

PART 6
Leading a learning organisation 165

56 What is a 'learning organisation'? 167

57 Evaluation as learning 169

58 Organisational reflective practice 173

59 How to harness internal networks 176

60 Don't avoid uncomfortable issues 178

61 The importance of organisational memory—and how to sustain it 180

PART 7
Advocacy and external networks 183

62 Advocacy with politicians 185

63 External communications as advocacy 188

64 Strategic peer networks and mentoring 191

65 How to involve stakeholders 195

66 Developing partnerships 200

67 External voices and critical friends 204

68 How to respond to popular causes and campaigns and survive 'culture wars' 208

Appendix A: Resources to help you 213
Appendix B: Useful publications 215
Index 217