

Contents

Introduction	005	13 Verb patterns	116
01 Tense review	006	14 Hedging	124
02 Comparing and contrasting	016	15 Phrasal and prepositional verbs	132
03 Noun phrases	028	16 Paraphrasing	142
04 Being formal and informal	038	17 Conditionals	152
05 Relative clauses	046	18 Using defining language	160
06 Stating facts and opinions	054	19 Collocation	166
07 Connectors	062	20 Cohesion	172
08 Being emphatic	074	Punctuation	180
09 Passives	082	Glossary of grammatical terms	182
10 Arguing and persuading	092	Academic Word List	184
11 Modal verbs	100	Answer key	189
12 Talking about cause and effect	108	Index	215

How the units work

Each unit starts with a simple activity to get you thinking about the main idea. In 04 Being formal and informal, for example, there are two texts and you are asked to try to identify the kind of language that makes their styles different.