

Table of contents

Table of contents	5
1 Introduction	9
1.1 Basic terminology	16
2 The approaches and a global context	19
2.1 Politics as an independent or dependent variable.....	22
2.2 Global trend	23
2.3 Analytical approaches to the study of politics in developing countries.....	28
2.4 Politics and the developing world	28
2.5 Development as modernization	30
2.6 The paradigm of development studies – the growth theory	30
2.7 Modernization theory.....	31
2.8 Dependency theory	34
2.9 The main approaches towards the political development of the developing world.....	38
2.9.1 Politics of order	38
2.9.2 The Marxist approach - dependency theory.....	38
2.9.3 Globalization theory.....	40
2.9.4 The current approach.....	40
2.9.5 Theory of post-development	40
2.9.6 The neo-liberal approach to development	42
2.10 Democratization process.....	45
2.11 Interim conclusion	54
3 Colonialism and postcolonial development	56
3.1 Development of the world economy	57
3.2 Colonialism and postcolonial development	58
3.2.1 The first wave of colonization - 15/16th century	58

3.2.2	The second wave of colonization - 17th-19th century.....	63
3.2.3	The third wave of colonization.....	66
3.3	The Scramble for Africa.....	66
3.4	Post-colonial world	71
3.4.1	British colonial administration	73
3.4.2	French colonial administration.....	75
3.5	The Concept of "Third World"	81
4	The developing world in international politics	83
4.1	Example - History of Petroleum Exporting Countries: OPEC and the oil shock of 1973/74.....	83
4.2	Newly Industrialized Countries (NIC)	85
4.3	Human Development Index	86
4.4	Regional integration.....	87
5	Society and the state	90
5.1	Political systems of developing countries.....	90
5.1.1	Presidential republic.....	91
5.1.2	Autocracy.....	92
5.1.3	Semi-presidential republic.....	92
5.1.4	Parliamentary republic	92
5.1.5	Monarchy (Absolute Monarchy)	93
5.1.6	Military dictatorship	93
5.2	Role of the state.....	93
5.3	Democracy and democratization in the developing world	96
5.3.1	Forms of democracy	97
5.4	An alternative concept of policy-making	98
5.5	Regional policy instruments.....	105
5.6	Accelerating sustainable development in developing countries in terms of an international cooperation and related domestic policies	108

5.7	The issue of gender in the context of development projects	111
5.7.1	Woman - actor of world events	112
5.7.2	Woman in Development (WID).....	112
5.7.3	Gender and Development (GAD)	114

6	Literature	119
----------	-------------------	------------