

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
------------------------	----

Introduction: Thinking about Secularism	I
---	---

SECULAR

1	What Might an Anthropology of Secularism Look Like?	21
2	Thinking about Agency and Pain	67
3	Reflections on Cruelty and Torture	100

SECULARISM

4	Redeeming the "Human" Through Human Rights	127
5	Muslims as a "Religious Minority" in Europe	159
6	Secularism, Nation-State, Religion	181

SECULARIZATION

7	Reconfigurations of Law and Ethics in Colonial Egypt	205
---	--	-----

Index	257
--------------	-----

Index

- Abd al-Qadir Jilani, 250
Abduh, Muhammad, 209, 219–21, 224, 228–29, 248–51
accountability, and agency, 12, 73–74,
95–96, 99
Adams, Charles, 219
Adonis (New Arab poet), 54–56
Afghanistan, 12, 152–53n38
African Americans, 141–48 agency, 67–79; and desire, 68–69, 79; in ethnography, 85–92; from scripture, 11–12; and moral authority, 24, 73, 91,
92–99, 186–87; through motherhood, 88–89; in religious history, 78, 85–92;
and representation, 74–75; and responsibility, 12, 73–74, 92–99; and sovereignty (Locke theory), 132;
theatrical context of, 75–78; theories of, 67–73, 98. See also moral authority agent/victim binary, 79, 81, 83
Ahmed, Leila, 233–34
al-Bishri, Tariq, 212, 239n78
Algeria, 199
Ali, Muhammad (Egyptian penal reformer), 214
allegory, 63–65
America. See United States
Amin, Qasim, 209, 233–35, 255
Amnesty International, 149n32
Anderson, Benedict, 2, 14n, 193, 197n, 223
Anderson, John, 212n15
Anderson, Perry, 170–71
animal rights, 155–56
anthropological studies of: emotions, 69;
medicine, 69–70; religion, 21–22,
31–34; secularism, 16–17
Aquinas, Thomas, 38, 130n5
Arabic concepts of: community/society, 196–98, 229–30; family, 231–32;
identity, 161; sacred, 55, 237, 253;
secular, 206–208; virtue, 241, 250
Arab nationalism, 195–201
Arendt, Hannah, 135, 143–44
Ashmawi, Sa'id, 213
Asian financial crisis, 128–29
assimilation, 159–60, 169–70
atheism, 23, 55
Athey, Ron (performing artist), 120 authority: challenges to, 29, 185, 234n67;

- from myth, 26–27, 36n92, 55; from the past, 98; from self-embodiment, 241, 245, 250–52; in Islamic tradition, 220, 237–38, 250; overlapping sources of, 179; personification of, 95, 97, 187, 248–49; supernatural sources, 33–34. See also moral authority; political authority; religion
- barbarism/barbaric behavior, 103, 111–13
- Baring, Evelyn (1st earl of Cromer), 59–60n96, 111, 212n14
- baroque drama, 63–65
- Benjamin, Walter, 22, 62–66
- Bentham, Jeremy, 108–109, 113n17
- Berger, Peter, 225
- Bhabha, Homi, 180n38
- Bible: interpretation of scripture, 11, 37–45; as literature, 8–9, 40; as prophetic language, 144–46
- bin Abdul-Wahhab, Muhammad, 222
- Binder, Leonard, 60–61
- biotechnology, 158
- Blumenberg, Hans, 191n13
- body: integrity of, 148–49, 251–52. See also self
- “body politic,” 191n12
- borders, shifting nature of, 14, 170–72, 177–80
- Bosnia, 164
- Bourdieu, Pierre, 251
- Bouvois, Simon de, 89
- Bremmer, Jan, 27, 98n53
- Brison, Susan, 83, 89
- Britain: citizenship in, 136–37, 140; decolonization era, 167; English Bill of Rights, 142; minority policies, 175, 180n38; National Association for the Promotion of Social Science, 230n53; religion in, 5, 174, 190; Rushdie affair, 160, 180n38; television advertising in, 158n48
- Browning, Robert, 52–53
- Brown, Nathan, 214, 218, 222, 227
- Burke, Edmund, 121–22, 174
- Burns, Edward, 76, 77n20
- Butterfield, Herbert, 42
- Bynum, Carolyn Walker, 87
- Canovan, Margaret, 56–61, 133, 155
- capitalism: global nature of, 15, 140–41, 146–47, 171–72, 179; impact on Egypt, 219, 232, 236; international trade and human rights, 151, 153
- carrier civilization, Islam as, 168–69
- Casanova, José, 181–82, 183
- Certeau, Michel de, 38, 48
- Chadwick, Nora, 49–50n73
- Chatterjee, Partha, 8
- childbirth, 87–89
- China, 151, 153n39
- Christian Enlightenment, 42n52
- Christianity/Christian theology, 37–45; and agency, 11, 78; “conscience” in, 244–46; idea of Europe, 166; and international law, 162–64; International Religious Freedom Act (U.S.), 146–47; martyrs/martyrdom, 85–86; moral thinking, 251; pain and suffering, 47, 61–62, 106–107; penance, 122–23; state of “grace,” 34–35. See also redemption
- citizenship: in Britain, 136–37, 140; citizen rights, 227–28; concept of, 3–5, 58, 253–54; in France, 176–77; and human rights, 144; and Islamism, 253–54
- civilization: Europe as model of, 212–13; and identity, 171; politics of, 170–72; theories on, 165–70, 253–54

- civil law (Egypt), 241
 civil rights, 136, 141-48
 clones, 158
 Coleridge, Samuel Taylor, 43-44, 52n81
 collateral damage, 128
 Collier, Joan, 135-36n16
 Collingwood, R.G., 81-82
 Collini, Stefan, 52
 colonialism: Egyptian resistance to, 221;
 ethics and morality, 109-11, 239-41;
 European-based reforms, 109-13;
 indigenous rights, 135-36n16, 163;
 intimidation, 6n; judicial process,
 211-12n14; minority representation, 175
 communism, 14, 188
 community, in Islamic theology, 196-97, 229-30
 complex space concept, 178-80
 Comstock, Richard, 36
 Connolly, William, 177-80, 184n
 conscience: in liberal democracies, 60-61, 94-95, 106, 186-87, 230; moral concept of, 36, 93, 106, 239, 244-47, 248. See also ethics;
 morality/immorality
 conscious/unconscious: and agency, 72, 74, 89-90, 92, 154n41, 192, 245; false consciousness, 86, 124, 192, 193; in liberal democracies, 60, 135; and motivation, 104, 119; and pain, 79; in religion, 11, 56, 99; theories on, 44-45, 69, 74, 98, 156
 courts. See judicial process crimes against humanity, 138 criminal law (Egypt), 218, 241 cruelty: bestial, 102; elimination of,
 102-103; in institutional religion,
 100-101; measurement of, 113-18;
 modern technologies of, 117;
 sodomasochism; 118-24. See also torture
 Crusades, The, 169n20
 culture: globalization of Western norms, 148, 151-53, 232-33; industries of,
 152-53; nationalistic character of, 195;
 redemption through cultural change, 154 customary law, 109-10
 Daston, Lorraine, 109n
 Das, Veena, 82n31
 "Declaration of the Rights of Man and the Citizen," 174
 de Man, Paul, 62-66
 democratic liberalism. See liberal democracies
 desire, 68-69, 79
 Detienne, Marcel, 27n11, 29-30
 dignity, idea of, 137
 Dillon, Michael, 93, 96
 direct-access societies, 2-4
 Dirks, Nicholas, 111-12
 "disenchantment," 13, 48, 225
 divine law, 131-32, 163
 Douglas, Mary, 17
 "disciplinary society" (Foucault theory), 103-104, 105, 108
 Durkheim, Emile, 31, 32-33, 36, 95
 economic sanctions, 146-47
 EC. See European Community
 Egypt, 205-56; Cromer on, 6n, 59-60n96; Milner on, 110n12;
 mimicry of the West, 148, 151-53,
 212-18, 232-33; "modern" family, 226,
 231-35; politicized religion, 182;
 resistance to legal reform, 216-17. See also Ottoman Empire
 Egyptian folklore, 254

- Egyptian law: criminal law, 214, 218;
European influence on, 210, 212-18, 236, 252-53; ijtihād (independent reasoning), 219-20; "personal status," 231n55; reform of, 110n12, 210-27,
236-41, 248. See also family law; fiqh;
Islamic law; sharī'a
- Eichhorn, Johann Gottfried, 43
- elections, 3-4, 61
- Eliot, T.S., 53
- empowerment, 79, 85-88, 105-106. See also agency
- England. See Britain
- English Bill of Rights, 142
- Enlightenment, The: concept of nature, 192; idea of Europe, 166; judicial torture, 107-109; morality in, 46, 47n65, 109n; natural rights concept, 133; notion of history, 41-45; political society, 61, 129, 174; property rights, 167; rational thinking, 44, 46, 61;
religious wars, 100; and Shamanism, 46-48; superstition, 35, 39n; universality concept, 169, 182; use of myth, 28-29, 53, 54n89
- "epiphany," 41, 53
- equality, notion of. See liberal democracies
- ethics: accountability, 12, 95-96, 99; in colonial Egypt, 205-56; distinction between law and, 238-39, 241-48; and religion, 243-46, 254-55; social space and personal ethics, 255. See also morality/immorality
- ethnography, and agentive pain, 85-92
- Europe: and civilization, 165-70, 172,
212-13, 240, 252; as colonial power, 109-13, 163; "idea" of, 13-16, 159-72;
minority representation, 6, 172-80;
and Muslims, 159-80; property rights, 167-68; shifting borders of, 14,
170-72, 177-80. See also Enlightenment, The; liberal democracies; secularism
- European Community (EC), 139-40, 161-62, 170-71, 179
- evangelicalism, 39
- evil, as concept, 7, 62, 92, 132
- fables, 28
- faith, 38-39, 49
- Fakhri, Husayn, Pasha, 215
- family: Abduh definition of, 229;
adoption of Western norms, 232-33;
as economic unit, 232; military family,
232; the "modern" family in Egypt,
231-35
- family law: in Egypt, 211, 235, 248-49, 253; family as legal category, 227-28,
230-31; Islamist provisions for, 248; marriage/divorce, 233-37, 248; and moral autonomy, 227-31. See also fiqh; sharī'a
- fatwa* (legal opinion), 224, 225, 246
- Feldblum, Miriam, 176n
- female circumcision, 148-49n
- Feyerabend, Paul, 98
- fiqh* (jurisprudence), 241-48;
"conscience" in, 245-47; and Egyptian family law, 227; individualistic nature of, 243; and torture, 247n92; "virtue"
in, 247, 250. See also sharī'a
- Flaherty, Gloria, 50-51
- Foner, Eric, 7
- Fontenelle, Bernard le Bovier de, 28-29
- Fortes, Meyer, 99n55
- Foucault, Michel, 24, 71n10, 103-105, 108-109, 137, 190, 227
- France: concept of sacré, 32; Jacobin experience, 175-77, 208; Muslims in, 159, 165n, 175-77; religion in, 5, 174
- freedom, definition of, 157-58

- freedom of speech. See liberal democracies
 freemasonry, 188
 Freud, Sigmund, 11, 35, 44n56, 68–70, 94, 98, 234n67
 Front National party (France), 165n11
 Funkenstein, Amos, 28n14

 Gandhi, Mahatma, 147
 Gaub, Jerome, 49
 Gay, Peter, 234n67
 Geertz, Clifford, 16, 188
 genetic engineering, 157–58
 Geneva Convention, 116, 117–18, 127
 genius, concept of, 50–52
 German Higher Criticism, 37–38
 German tragic drama, 62–66
 Germany, 162. See also nazism/Nazi-Germany
 Gleason, Philip, 161n
 good/evil binary, 7, 92, 132 “governmentality” (Foucault theory), 24, 190
 grace, Christian concept of, 34–35
 Greece, 139, 164n10
 Greek tragedy, 98
 Greenblatt, Stephen, 154n41
 Grossberg, Lawrence, 67n
 Grotius, Hugo, 131, 163, 238
 Guillebaud, Jean-Claude, 158n47

 Habermas, Jürgen, 183
habitus, 95–96, 98, 250–52
hadith (discourse of prophetic tradition), 223–24, 241, 242n82
 Hague Convention, 116
 Hale, Mathew, 133
 Halimi, Serge, 15
 Haller, Albrecht von, 47–48
 Hampshire, Stuart, 58, 60
 Hay, Denys, 162–63
 Hayes, Carlton, 187
 Hegel, George Wilhelm Friedrich, 192
 Herder, Johann Gottfried, 40n, 43, 50
 Hinduism, 8, 112n16
 Hirschkind, Charles, 89–91
 history: authentication of, 41–45; and international law, 163–64; sacralization of, 37–41; of torture, 101–107, 247n92.
 See also religious history
 Hobbes, Thomas, 131–33
 Holmes, Stephen, 14
 Homer, 27
 “human,” identity as, 148–58, 256
 “humanness concept”: boundaries of, 155–58; and imperialism, 109–13; as legal concept, 135–40; and natural rights, 130, 133–34; pain measurement and, 123–24; secular states as definers of, 150–53; in U.S., 144–45; and warfare, 115–18
 humanism/secular humanism, 21, 22n3, 192
 human rights, 127–58; and citizenship, 144; civil rights struggle (U.S.), 141–42; declarations of, 142–43, 174; elimination of cruelty, 102–103; globalization of, 15, 140–41, 147, 151, 153; individual autonomy, 148–55; and liberalism, 57–59; nation-state application of, 129, 139–40, 256; and natural rights, 130–34; redemptive nature of, 140–48; sovereignty issues, 134–40; subjectivity of, 155–58, 256
 Human Rights Charter (EC), 139–40
 Hurgonje, Snouck, 242, 244
 Huxley, Julian, 187–88

 Ibn Taymiyya, 220, 250, 251n96
 identity: citizenship as, 5; “European,” 159–72; group traditions as, 178–80;

- "human," 148–58, 256; and modernity, 14
- identity cards, 139–40
- ijmā'* (consensus of scholars), 237
- ijtihad* (independent reasoning), 219–20, 236
- imagination: Coleridge theory on, 44–45; expression of, 5, 149, 152–53; and myth, 23, 28–29, 63; religious, 194, 223
- IMF. See International Monetary Fund
- imperialism, 109–13, 216
- incarceration, 108–109, 115
- India, 8, 82n31, 111–12, 240n79
- individualism: autonomy, 148–55, 226, 245–46; and sovereignty, 134–40. See also citizenship
- Indonesia, 128
- industrial revolution, 168, 172
- Institutes of Justinian, 213
- international law, 163–64, 171–72
- International Monetary Fund (IMF), 15, 128
- International Religious Freedom Act (U.S.), 146–47
- international trade, and human rights, 151, 153
- Iran, 103, 105, 182
- Iraq, 10, 196n20
- Isambert, François, 32–33
- Islam: as-sahwa ("the awakening"), 195; binary theories on, 224; and European identity, 161–70; Hanbalite reforms, 222; and myth, 54; and nationalism, 195–200; pain as virtue, 90–91; rites of, 90–91; Shi'a Muslims, 121; Sufism, 221, 224; Sunni Muslims, 90; violent "roots of," 9–10. See also religion; shari'a
- Islamic civilization, European representations of, 168–69
- Islamic Golden Age, 219
- Islamic law, 218–27; Abduh reforms, 228–29, 248–51; justiciable acts under, 246–47; monotheistic character of, 56; moral and legal judgments in, 244–46, 249–51; Qur'an as source for, 237–38, 240–41. See also fiqh; shari'a
- Islamic theology: concept of community (umma), 196–98, 229–30; dying and death, 91; Hanafi doctrine, 247n92; interpretation of scripture, 11; permitted acts, 237–38, 241, 250–51; religion and ethics, 243–46; rules of classification, 241; vice/virtue binary, 89–91
- Islamic tradition: ethics and morality, 239–41; fatwa, 224, 225; hadith, 223–24, 241, 242n82; and nationalism, 195; reformulation of, 218–27; religious duties and social relations, 243–51
- Islamism/Islamists: "citizenship" concept, 253–54; defined, 198; family law provisions, 248; Khartoum conference, 196, 200n26; nationalism, 195–200; ummatu-l-muslimin, 197–98
- Israel, 114, 127n1, 143n25
- Jacob, Margaret, 188
- James, Susan, 68
- Jerusalem, 169n20
- Johansen, Baber, 242–48, 255
- Judeo-Christian tradition, 144–47, 149, 168
- judges, criteria for, 248–50
- judicial process: in Egypt, 211–12n14, 213; and human rights law, 129, 151; importance of, 256; Mixed Courts (Egypt), 211, 214, 215; and myth, 64; National Courts (Egypt), 231n55;

- punishment under, 113; and torture, 107–109, 114. See also shari'a
- Judt, Tony, 162
- justice, and morality, 109–10
- Kant, Immanuel, 51–52, 106, 137, 245–47, 255
- Keegan, John, 116
- Khartoum conference, 196, 200n26
- Kierkegaard, Søren, 255n
- King, Martin Luther, Jr., 145–48, 155
- kinship units, 228–29, 232
- Klassen, Pamela, 87–89
- Koselleck, Reinhardt, 223
- Kundera, Milan, 170
- Langbaum, Robert, 52–53
- Langbein, John, 107–108
- law: accountability under, 12, 95–96, 99; and agency, 74, 77; authority derived from, 138–40, 210, 217, 235–41, 249–51, 253; citizen rights, 227–28; customary law, 109–10; humanness concept in, 135–40, 256; importance of judicial process, 256; and institutional violence, 143–44; interior/exterior binary, 247; property rights, 130–31; and responsibility, 96–97; torture as instrument of, 107–109. See also Egyptian law; ethics; family law; Islamic law
- Layish, Aharon, 219–20
- Le Pen, Jean, 175–76
- liberal democracies: citizen participation, 3–4; concepts of humanity, 157–58; freedom of speech, 135–36, 158, 160, 184–85; idea of nature, 57–58; majority rule, 173–80; minority representation, 6, 172–80; and myth, 26, 56–62; notion of equality, 6, 13, 56–57, 145, 151, 173–74, 219, 234–36; rhetoric of denial, 105, 106; social space concept, 191, 199–201; state-sponsored cruelty, 105, 106, 113–15. See also nation-states
- liberty, as property, 130–31
- Lincoln, Bruce, 26
- literature, 8–9, 66n
- Locke, John, 74, 135, 154, 167
- logos, 26–27
- Lord Cromer. See Baring, Evelyn (1st Earl of Cromer)
- Lord Milner. See Milner, Alfred (Viscount)
- Löwith, Karl, 191n13
- Luciani, G., 195n19
- McKeon, Richard, 95
- Mack, Phyllis, 78
- magic, 94–95
- Mahmood, Saba, 89–91
- majority rule, 173–77
- Malcolm X, 141–44, 148
- Mani, Lati, 112n16
- Marett, R.R., 33–34
- market culture, 2–4, 151–53, 157–58
- marriage/divorce. See family law
- Marshall, T.H., 136–39
- Martyr, Peter, 163
- martyrs/martyrdom, 85–86, 106, 120
- Marx, Karl/Marxism, 174, 227
- masochism/sadomasochism, 85, 118–24
- mass media, 4–5, 7–8, 151–53
- Mauss, Marcel, 95, 251–52
- Mazowiecki, Tadeus, 164
- medical anthropology, 69–70
- medicine, significance of suffering, 87
- Mexico, 135–36n16
- Michaelis, Johann David, 41n49
- Michel, Thomas, 250–51n
- Milbank, John, 35n35, 92n42, 178
- military weaponry, 116–17
- Milner, Alfred (Viscount), 110n12

- Milosz, Czeslaw, 170
- minorities: in Britain, 175, 180n38; and colonialism, 175; concept defined, 174–75; in France, 159, 165n, 175–77; representation in liberal democracies, 6, 172–80; rights of, 174–75
- Mitchell, Timothy, 240
- Mixed Courts (Egypt), 211, 214, 215
- modernity: Arab concerns over, 198; character and development of, 12–16, 62–66, 181–82, 217n29, 254; moral heterogeneity, 186–87; and The Other, 30, 31n24, 55; temporality of, 223n39. See also secularism
- Molina, Luis de, 131
- Montag, John, 38
- moral authority: agency from, 24, 73, 84, 91, 92–99, 186–87; of the family, 235; of government, 139; and Islamic law, 249–51
- moral autonomy: and family law, 227–31; of individuals, 245–46
- morality/immorality: and colonial justice, 109–11; defined, 236; distinction between ethics and, 239–41; Enlightenment doctrines of, 46, 47n65, 109n, 163, 214; and human rights, 157; interior/exterior binary, 247; and Islamic theology, 215, 230–31, 241–42, 248; Locke on, 132; and medical science, 46–47; moral discourse, 138–40, 235–41, 248; personal morality, 24, 205, 230–31; public/private binary, 56, 240; and punishment, 92–99; responsible behavior, 94–97, 99, 124, 131–32, 226, 245; and secular movement, 6–7n6, 35–36, 61, 134, 183, 208–209, 235–41; Victorian theories of, 94–95. See also conscience; religion
- Moslems. See Muslims
- motherhood, 88–89
- Mozart, 50–51
- Muhammad (Prophet), 196–97
- music, and pain, 79–80
- Muslims: assimilation of, 159–60; in Britain, 180n38; in France, 175–77; and “idea” of Europe, 161–65; as religious minority in Europe, 159–80. See also Islam
- mysticism, 221, 224, 248
- myth: and democratic liberalism, 26, 56–62, 133; Enlightenment view of, 28–29; origins of, 23, 26–30; and the “Other,” 30; poetry, 52–56; as sacred, 27n11; and scriptures, 37–45; and secularism, 26, 52–56
- Napoleonic Code, 211, 213–14, 231n55
- Nasir, Jamal Abdul, 212
- National Courts (Egypt), 231n55
- nationalism: American, 7; Arab, 195–201; authority from, 189; concept of, 193–94; as secularized religion, 187–94. See also Islamism/Islamists
- Nationality Code (France), 176
- nation-states: authority of, 134, 138–39, 141, 171, 189, 225; complex space concept, 178–80; as definers of “humanness,” 150–53; and human rights, 129, 135–40, 256; importance of judicial process to, 256; and Islamism, 198–201; national identity in, 137–39; religion in, 5–6, 174, 181–201, 190; shifting borders of, 177–80; sponsorship of torture, 103–106. See also citizenship; secularism; social space
- natural rights, 57, 125, 130–34. See also human rights
- nature, idea of, 27, 28, 57–58

- nazism/Nazi Germany, 57, 100, 106,
 138–39, 162, 165n11, 188
 Netherlands, 130, 163
 Neuwirth, Angelika, 56n
 New Arab poets, 54–56
 New World Order, 14
 Nubar Pasha, 214–15
 Nuremberg War Crimes Tribunal, 138
 Nussbaum, Martha, 149–51, 155

Odyssey, The (Homer), 27
 Oedipus myth, 92–99
 opinion polls, 4
 Orientalism, 11, 217n, 219–21, 242
 Orpheus myth, 50
 Osser, Bernard, 164
 Oster, Shai, 151, 153n39
 Other, The, concept of, 30, 31n24, 55
 Ottoman Empire, 210–11, 217, 219
 Overton, Richard, 133

 pain: agentive pain, 85–92; childbirth, 87–89; “delight” in viewing, 122;
 empowerment from, 85–88;
 Enlightenment understanding of,
 46–48; expression of, 79, 81–83;
 gratuitous nature of, 11; measurement of, 115–18, 123–24; and music, 79–80; pleasure/pain binary, 118–24, 132; in religious history, 47, 61–62, 85–87, 89–92, 106–107; secularization of,
 46–49, 91–92; structururations of, 79–85, 250; tolerance to, 83–84. See also punishment; suffering; torture Palestinians, 11, 127n1
 passion, 67–68, 75
 penal reforms (Egypt), 214, 218
 penance, 122–23
 Perkins, Judith, 85–87
 personal status, 231n55, 236–41, 248–49.
See also Egyptian law
 Peters, Rudolph, 214n23, 218n32
 Plato, 28, 58
 pleasure/pain binary, 118–24, 132
 Pocock, John, 154, 171, 180n39
 poetry: and myth, 52–56; Old Testament as, 40; poetic vision, 44–45; and secularism, 52–56; Shamans as poets,
 50–51; as truth, 27
 Poland, 182
 political authority, 3–4, 136, 151, 184, 199, 255
 politicized religion, 181–83, 186
 Poovey, Mary, 191n12
 Portugal, 131
 power: in agency theory, 71–72, 79; from rituals of torture, 104; origins of, 26–30; and violence, 60. See also wars/warfare
 pressure groups, influence of, 4
 print, spread of, 14n, 219, 223, 225 profane, concept of, 30–37
 property/property rights, 130–31, 167–68, 192, 207
 prophetic language, 144–46
 prophets: “Arabian Prophet,” 196–97, 241; in Christianity, 43, 45
 public/private binary, 185–86, 228 public sphere, exclusivity of, 183–84 punishment: and moral agency, 91, 92–99; and pain, 85, 250, 256;
 penance, 122–23; and responsibility, 92–99, 131–32; supernatural, 131–32;
 torture as instrument of, 107–109;
 when to apply, 247, 248, 256

 Qadri, Muhammad, Pasha, 215n26
 Qur’an: myth in, 56n; secular concepts of, 10, 55, 56; sense of community in,
 196–97; as source of Islamic law,
 237–38, 240–41

- Ramonet, Ignacio, 151–53
- Rawls, John, 2, 58, 150
- Read, James, 109
- reason: concept of, 22, 28–29, 58. See also Enlightenment, The
- redemption, 140–48; in Christian theology, 61–62; civil rights as instrument of, 146; global redemption project (U.S.), 15, 140–41, 146–47, 171–72; and liberalism, 26, 59;
 through cultural change, 154
- Reformation, 38–39, 174, 192, 207
- resistance, notion of, 70–72
- Rejali, Darius, 101, 103–105
- religion: and agency, 11–12, 78, 85–92;
 authority from, 10–12, 33–36, 63, 78, 139, 186, 255; duties of and social relations, 243–51; and ethics, 243–46, 254–55; magic, 94–95; and nationalism, 187–94; pain as virtue, 85–86, 90–91; as political tool, 181–83,
 186; resurgence of, 1; and secularism,
 25–26, 199–201, 205, 254–55;
 Shamanism, 45–52; and sovereign states, 5–6, 181–201; study of and anthropology, 21–22, 31–32; as truth, 42–43; vice/virtue binary, 89–91; and violence, 9–12. See also Christianity/Christian theology;
 Islam; Islamic theology
- religious freedom, 146–47, 205
- religious history: and agentive pain, 85–92, 105–107; determinative nature of, 11–12; structurations of the body in, 252
- religious identity, 139–40
- religious law. See Islamic law
- religious minorities, 6, 159–80
- representation: and agency, 74–75;
 citizenship in nation-states, 3–4;
 minorities in liberal democracies, 6, 172–80
- responsibility: and agency, 92–99; in government, 95–96; and law, 96–97
- Rey, Roselyne, 46–48
- rhetoric of denial, in liberal democracies, 105, 106
- “Rhetoric of Temporality, The” (de Man), 62–66
- Rida, Rashid, 219–21, 224n42
- Rights of Man and the Citizen (France), 143
- Rise of Christian Europe, The* (Trevor-Roper), 166–67
- ritual drama, 78
- Roman law, 130, 213
- romanticism, 13–14
- Rosanvallon, Pierre, 136n18
- Rushdie, Salman, 160, 180n38
- Russia, 128, 168, 170–71
- sacrament(s), 33–35, 77n20
- sacred/profane binary, 25, 29–37, 58, 65
- sacred/sacredness: in anthropology,
 22–23, 29–33, 188–89; of humanity, 59–61, 117, 122, 138, 143–45, 155; and language, 54–55, 237; myth as, 27n11;
 in national politics, 189; scripture as,
 9–10, 40n48; in secularism, 13, 25,
 41–43, 58, 60–63, 66n102, 143–44;
 universality of, 33, 36. See also sharīʿa
- Sade, Marquis de, 124
- Safwat, Ahmad, 209, 235n69, 236–41, 248, 255
- Saint-Exupéry, Patrick, 164
- Saudi Arabia, 12
- scapegoats, 96–97
- Scarry, Elaine, 80–81, 115–16
- Schacht, Joseph, 242–44
- Schmidt, Leigh Eric, 39n
- Schmitt, Carl, 189

- Schneewind, Jeremy, 124
- Schulze, Reinhard, 218–19, 221–22, 224
- Scott, David, 154n40
- Scott, G.R., 101–103
- Scott, Sir John, 212n14
- scripture: authority from, 10–12; and myth, 37–45
- secular, concept of, 25, 183, 192–93, 206–208
- secularism: authority from self-embodiment, 241, 245, 250–52; common assumptions of, 253–55; concept of, 1–6, 23–25, 181–201; genealogy of, 16, 39, 191–93; as goal of modernity, 13, 15, 192–93; importance of judicial process to, 256; legal authority in, 252–56; in modern texts, 62–66; as politicized religion, 181–83, 186; public/private binary, 185–86. See also citizenship; human rights; liberal democracies; moral authority; nation-states; religion
- Selden, John, 131
- Sennett, Richard, 155
- September 11 tragedy, 7–8
- sex/sexuality, 225–26, 234n67
- Shaffer, Elaine, 43–44, 52n81
- Shamanism, 45–52
- shari'a*: Abduh reforms, 228–29, 248–51; codification of, 210–12, 241; courts, 210–11, 212n15, 228–29; criminal law, 218n32; in Egypt, 207, 209, 248–51; as family law, 227–31, 235, 253; history of, 221; reform of, 197, 207, 228–29, 236–41, 248–51, 256; as “sacred law,” 207, 236–37, 242, 250, 253; Safwat reforms, 236–41, 248. See also fiqh
- Shi'a Muslims, 121
- Shulman, George, 145, 146n28
- signified/signifier, 38, 65, 87–89, 188–89
- Skovgaard-Petersen, Jakob, 225
- slavery, 130–31
- Smith, William Robertson, 33, 40
- social rights, 136
- social space: concept of, 191, 199–201, 235–36; and emotions, 69; personal ethics in, 255; and religion, 181, 199–201, 243–51
- society: Arabic concept of, 196–98, 229–30; disciplinary (Foucault theory), 103–104, 105, 108; political (Enlightenment notion), 61, 129, 174
- Socrates, 64
- Somalia, 127
- soul, idea of, 89
- sovereign states: duties of, 129, 132, 134–40, 190n11; limitations of, 178–79; powers of, 141, 143–44, 239, 251; theological concepts in, 189–91, 193–94
- sovereignty: and agency, 132; and human rights, 130, 134–40; of individuals, 16, 52, 71, 131–32, 145, 154–55, 239, 251; moral sovereignty, 84, 245, 247; power of, 29–30, 64, 85, 104, 150, 163; and secularism, 5, 181–201, 189, 191–92, 197, 255
- Spain, 168
- Speed, Shannon, 135–36n16
- Stalinism, 57
- Starobinski, Jean, 29, 41, 53, 79–80
- Steiner, Franz, 31, 97, 189
- Stephen, James Fitzjames, 239n77, 240n79
- Stetkevych, Jaroslav, 56n
- Stiglitz, Joseph, 128
- Stoicism, 86–87
- Strauss, David, 45n61
- Stroup, John, 41, 42n52, 43n51
- suffering: empowerment through, 85–88, 91–92, 105–106; measurement of, 111–13; and pain, 81–82, 92, 256;

- symbolic significance of, 87–89. See also Christianity/Christian theology
- Sufism, 221, 224, 250–51
- suicide, 117n26
- sunna* (tradition of the Prophet), 237
- Sunni Muslims, 90
- supernatural: authority, 33–34;
punishment, 131–32
- superstition, 35, 254
- Swabey, Marie, 173–74
- symbolism: state rituals, 188–89; and suffering, 87–89
- Syria, 10
- taboo, notions of, 22, 30–31, 33, 35, 94n46, 97, 237
- Tannenbaum, Jerrold, 113–14n18
- Taussig, Michael, 22, 59
- Taylor, Charles, 2–7, 137–39, 150, 178, 186
- Thailand, 128
- theater, 63–65, 75–78, 98
- theology. See Christianity/Christian theology; Islamic theology
- Thual, François, 164n10
- Tissot, Simon, 50–51
- Torah, 10
- torture: abolishing of, 107–109; and deliberate cruelty, 113–18; Hanafi doctrine, 247n92; history of, 101–107, 247n92; as instrument of state, 103–106, 113–18; modern concept of,
115; and pain, 81, 83; secretive nature of, 104–105, 114; theatricality of, 85–86, 104, 120–21. See also cruelty
- Tractarianism (Britain), 174, 190
- trade, human rights linkage, 151, 153
- tradition: and identity, 178–80; linearity of, 222–23. See also Islamic tradition
- Trevor-Roper, Hugh, 166–67,
169nn19, 20
- truth: origins of, 26–90; religion as,
42–43; transcendancy of, 15
- Tucker, Judith, 232
- Tuck, Richard, 130, 131n7, 133–34, 163
- Turkey, 161–64, 185n, 199
- Ultramontanism (France), 174, 190
- umma*, Arabic concept of “community,” 196–98, 229–30
- United Nations, 141
- United States: Bill of Rights, 142–43;
childbirth, 87–89; civil rights struggle, 141–48; cultural hegemony, 151–53;
global redemption project, 15, 140–41,
146–47, 171–72; humanness concept,
144–45; International Religious Freedom Act, 146–47; military doctrine, 127–28; modernity in, 13–16;
nationalism, 7; pluralism, 177;
prophetic language in, 144–46;
religion in, 5–7, 182; September 11
tragedy, 7–8; as superpower, 15
- universal capabilities, Nussbaum theory on, 149–51
- Universal Declaration of Human Rights*,
The (UN): dignity and inalienable rights, 136–39; female genital mutilation, 149n32; health and well-being, 128–29; origin of, 143; and property rights, 158; torture or cruel and degrading treatment, 101, 122;
and U.S. civil rights movement, 141
- universal suffrage, 61
- Valery, Paul, 79–80
- vice/virtue binary, 89–91, 150
- Victorian Age, 31n23, 52–53, 94–95
- Vinogradoff, Paul, 239n77
- violence: and law, 6–8, 22, 36, 143–44, 148, 218, 247, 256; as moral language, 162; necessity of, 59–60; and political

- doctrine, 59, 64, 134; power of, 22, 62; and religion, 9–12, 30, 100. See also torture; wars/warfare
- virtue: concept of, 241, 247, 250; from pain, 88–89, 90, 95, 250; in liberal democracies, 56, 184; and religion, 31,
34, 38, 52, 90, 169n20, 246, 252n99
- vivisection, 47–49
- Waal, Alex de, 127
- wars/warfare: “humanness concept,” 115–18; military doctrine, 127–28; pain and security, 91–92; and secularism, 7 “war on terrorism,” 8, 152n38
- Watson, Adam, 172
- weapons of mass destruction, 117
- Weber, Max, 22, 151, 207, 217–18, 242, 244
- Weickard, Melchior, 51
- Welfare Party (Turkey), 185n
- Western norms: globalization of, 148,
151–53, 212–18, 232–33; and modernity,
13–16, 165–70
- Williams, Bernard, 96–97
- Williams, Raymond, 166
- Wintle, Michael, 165–66
- Wise, Steven M., 156
- Wolff, Robert, 183n3
- Wolf, Susan, 73
- women, status of Muslim, 233–35
- World Trade Organization (WTO), 151
- Zaghlul, Fathi, 211n13
- Zaki, Hamid, 213n17, 231n55