

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS / vii

INTRODUCTION

Andrew Gordon / ix

PART I • CONTEXTS

1. Peace and Democracy in Two Systems: External Policy and Internal Conflict

John W. Dower / 3

2. Japan's Position in the World System

Bruce Cumings / 34

3. The Past in the Present

Carol Gluck / 64

PART II • POLITICAL ECONOMY

4. Growth Versus Success: Japan's Economic Policy in Historical Perspective

Laura E. Hein / 99

5. The Structure and Transformation of Conservative Rule

Gary D. Allinson / 123

6. Negotiating Social Contracts

Sheldon Garon and Mike Mochizuki / 145

7. Dialectics of Economic Growth, National Power, and Distributive Struggles

Koji Taira / 167

PART III • MASS CULTURE AND METROPOLITAN SOCIETY

8. Finding a Place in Metropolitan Japan: Ideologies, Institutions, and Everyday Life
William W. Kelly / 189
9. Formations of Mass Culture
Marilyn Ivy / 239
10. Consuming and Saving
Charles Yui Horioka / 259
11. The Death of "Good Wife, Wise Mother"?
Kathleen S. Uno / 293

PART IV • DEMOCRATIC PROMISE AND PRACTICE

12. Unplaced Persons and Movements for Place
Frank K. Upham / 325
13. Altered States: The Body Politics of "Being-Woman"
Sandra Buckley / 347
14. Contests for the Workplace
Andrew Gordon / 373
15. Intellectuals and Politics
J. Victor Koschmann / 395
16. The Dynamics of Political Opposition
James W. White / 424

Conclusion

Andrew Gordon / 449

GLOSSARY / 465

CONTRIBUTORS / 471

SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY / 475

INDEX / 481

Photographs follow page 216