INDEX

All persons whose surnames are known are indexed here. In lieu of an entry for William Faulkner, a comprehensive chronology of his life has been provided, details of which can be amplified by consulting the relevant pages in the text through the dates supplied in the running heads. Selected items appearing in newspapers and periodicals are indexed where they have a particular importance, e.g., crucial acceptances or rejections of his work in magazines such as The Saturday Evening Post, potentially influential reviews or articles in The New York Times or Time magazine, or an article in the Oxford Eagle revealing changing perceptions of Faulkner. Places are also selectively indexed, e.g., important arrivals or periods of residence in New York and Paris, and passages describing the nature of Faulkner's feeling for places, such as Hollywood and Virginia. Readers seeking further detailed bibliographical and critical information are referred to John Bassett, William Faulkner: An Annotated Checklist of Criticism, New York, David Lewis, 1972; John Earl Bassett, Faulkner: An Annotated Checklist of Recent Criticism, The Kent State University Press, 1983; O.
