

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements

viii

Guided Tour

xii

1 Psychology and medicine

1

Psychology and medicine

2

What is health?

4

Why is psychology important?

8

Different approaches to medicine

11

Section I Psychology and Health

21

2 Motivation, emotion, and health

23

Motivation

25

Motivation and health

28

Emotion

30

Emotion and health

38

3 Stress and health

47

What is stress?

48

Stress and health

57

Stress in medicine

62

Managing stress

64

4 Symptoms and illness

70

Symptom perception

72

Pain

78

Placebo and nocebo effects

85

Illness beliefs and representations

88

5 Health and behaviour

96

Predicting and changing health behaviour

97

The Health Belief Model

100

The Theory of Planned Behaviour

104

The Transtheoretical Model

110

PRIME Theory

114

6	Chronic illness, death, and dying	119
	Chronic illness	121
	Psychological intervention	127
	Death and dying	129
	Death and medical practice	136
Section II Basic Foundations of Psychology		143
7	Brain and behaviour	145
	Components and organisation of the nervous system	146
	Communication within and between neurons	149
	Structure of the brain and central nervous system	152
	Control of movement	157
	Sleep, consciousness, and biological clocks	161
8	Psychosocial development across the lifespan	170
	Childhood	172
	Adolescence	186
	Adulthood	190
	Old Age	190
9	Social psychology	196
	Attitudes	197
	Self psychology	202
	Individuals and groups	207
	Anti-social and pro-social behaviour	215
10	Learning, perception, and memory	219
	Perception	220
	Attention	226
	Learning	232
	Memory	238
Section III Body Systems		245
11	Immunity and protection	247
	Infection, inflammation, and immunity	249
	Psychological aspects of immune disorders	253
	Skin	256
	Cancer	259
12	Cardiovascular and respiratory	269
	Cardiovascular health	270
	Respiratory health	286

13	Gastrointestinal	294
	Psychological factors and the GI system	296
	Lifestyle and GI health	301
	GI disorders	318
14	Reproduction and endocrinology	325
	Reproduction	326
	Endocrine disorders and psychosocial wellbeing	339
15	Genitourinary medicine	348
	Sexual health	349
	Sexually transmitted diseases	354
	Prostate and testicular cancer	361
	Urinary incontinence and renal failure	367
16	Psychiatry and neurology	373
	Psychiatry	374
	Diagnosis and treatment of psychiatric disorders	384
	Neurological disorders	390
	Neuropsychological assessment and rehabilitation	393
Section IV Healthcare Practice		399
17	Evidence-based medicine	401
	Evidence-based medicine	402
	Adherence to treatment	408
	Doctor-patient communication	415
18	Clinical interviewing	425
	How we communicate	427
	Clinical interviewing	432
	Difficult interviews	439
	Giving bad news	443
19	Psychological intervention	448
	What is psychotherapy?	451
	Which therapy is best?	464
	Psychological interventions in medical settings	465
	Bibliography	476
	Index	524