

CONTENTS

Decorated woven leather sandals worn by the Hausa people of West Africa.

Copyright ©1994 Bata Limited

All rights reserved. No part of this work may be reproduced in any manner without the prior written consent of the publisher.

Canadian Cataloguing in Publication Data
Main entry under title:

All About Shoes

ISBN 0-9692076-1-1

I. Shoes - History. I. Bata Shoe Museum Foundation
II. Bata Industries Ltd.
GT2130.A55 1994 391.413 C94-930570-7

First published in 1994 by
Bata Limited
Toronto, Canada
Printed in Italy by Sfera Srl.

Green leather mule,
Persia, 19th century.

WHY SHOES? 4

THE ANCIENTS 6

THE UNIVERSAL SANDAL 8

THE "MOCCASIN" 10

PROTECTIVE BOOTS 12

STRICTLY INDOORS 14

WOOD FOR WEAR 16

WHAT'S THEIR LINE? 18

SPECIAL-PURPOSE SHOES 20

GOTTA DANCE! 22

GOOD SPORTS 24

STANDING TALL 26

A TROOP OF TOES 28

ALL DRESSED UP 30

THE LOOK OF LEGS 32

Two North American native leggings, late 19th century.

BOOTS À LA MODE 34

BY DESIGN 36

THE JUNIOR SET 38

rites of passage 40

STATUS SYMBOLS 42

SHOES WITH A STORY 44

SHOES AND RELIGION 46

HIGH & DRY 48

THE LOTUS FOOT 50

STAR TURNS 52

ARTWORKS 54

ACCESSORIES 56

TOOLS OF THE TRADE 58

FOOTNOTES 60

Hand-carved and painted French dog, 19th century.

Silver pomander box, France.

Woman's quilted satin boot with fur trim.

