

Contents

Contents	7
Introduction	9
1 Introduction and time line period	11
1.1 Timeline period of the Arab spring.....	12
1.2 The Sharp roots of authoritarianism and unrest in the Arab world	13
1.3 From colonialism to Arab spring.....	16
1.4 Demographics development	17
1.5 Demographics Trends Within Populations in the Arab World	21
1.5.1 The Influx of Youth into Labor Markets.....	21
1.5.2 Population of Young Men Entering the Labor Force	22
1.5.3 What Are the Implications of the Demographic Trends?.....	25
2 Economics	38
2.1 Oil Production and Reserves of Energy-Rich Countries.....	40
2.2 Food Price Index	42
3 Social, Economic and Political Challenges	48
3.1 Democracy development?.....	52
3.2 Armed conflict	73
3.3 Political currents across the region	82
3.3.1 Islamists	82
3.3.2 Liberal reformers.....	89
4 Economies since the uprising	92
4.1 Economies.....	92
4.1.1 Challenges to the Egyptian economy	93
4.1.2 Challenges for the Tunisia economy	96
4.1.3 Challenges to the Syrian economy	98
4.1.4 Challenges to the Yemen economy.....	104

5	A Marshall Plan for the region?	105
5.1	Military Balance in the Middle East and North Africa	106
5.2	Prospects in the aftermath of the Arab Spring	107
5.3	Liberal interventionism revitalised by Libya?	108
5.4	Economic reconstruction	109
6	African union	119
6.1	The establishment of the ASF	119
6.2	Current status the ASF	121
7	Conclusion	124
8	Literature	127
9	Appendix	138
	Index	140