

Contents

Preface	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
1 Greco-Roman Rhetoric: The Canon and its History	1
Principles of Greco-Roman Forensic Rhetoric: The Canon	4
Medieval Rhetoric	6
Renaissance Rhetoric	8
English Neoclassical Rhetoric	10
Classical Rhetoric in Nineteenth-Century America	12
Classical Rhetoric in Twentieth-Century America	13
2 Greco-Roman Legal Analysis: The Topics of Invention	23
Dialectical 'Proof' and Rhetorical 'Probability'	24
Factual Analysis	26
Topoi or Common Lines of Argument	27
Modern Approaches to the Topics of Invention	36
Similarities and Differences	37
3 Brief Rhetoric: The Organization of Argument	44
Classical Principles of Organization	45
4 Ethos, Pathos and Legal Audience	57
Emotion and Advocate Credibility	57
Greco-Roman Approaches to Persuasion	57
Greco-Roman Audiences	58
Emotion and Argument: Pathos	60
Emotion and the Character of the Judge	62
Emotion and Organization	63
Ethos and Lawyer Credibility	67
Ethos and Pathos : The Modern View	70
Similarities and Differences	77
5 Greco-Roman Analysis of Metaphoric Reasoning	85
Classical Approaches to Metaphor	86
Modern Analysis of Legal Metaphors	94
Modern Theories of Metaphoric Reasoning	97
Similarities and Differences	102

6	Greco-Roman Elements of Forensic Style	109
	Classical Approach to Antithesis and Parallelism	109
	Modern Approaches to Antithesis and Parallelism	112
	Similarities and Differences	116
7	The Rhetoric of Dissent: A Greco-Roman Analysis	119
	Limits of Dissent	120
	United States v. Virginia : The Majority Opinion	124
	Justice Scalia's Dissent	125
	Conclusion	139
	Bibliography	148
	Index	153