

Contents

List of Long and Short Titles	xix
1. Introduction: Form and Content, Philosophy and Literature	3
2. The Discernment of Perception: An Aristotelian Conception of Private and Public Rationality	54
3. Plato on Commensurability and Desire	106
4. Flawed Crystals: James's The Golden Bowl and Literature as Moral Philosophy	125
5. "Finely Aware and Richly Responsible": Literature and the Moral Imagination	148
6. Perceptive Equilibrium: Literary Theory and Ethical Theory	168
7. Perception and Revolution: The Princess Casamassima and the Political Imagination	195
8. Sophistry About Conventions	220
9. Reading for Life	230
10. Fictions of the Soul	245
11. Love's Knowledge	261
12. Narrative Emotions: Beckett's Genealogy of Love	286
13. Love and the Individual: Romantic Rightness and Platonic Aspiration	314
14. Steerforth's Arm: Love and the Moral Point of View	335
15. Transcending Humanity	365
Index	393