

» Contents

Preface	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
1 An introduction to the internet	1
Introduction	1
An overview of the internet	2
What the internet is and is not	3
Search engines	10
Summary	13
2 An introduction to search engines	15
Introduction	15
Free-text search engines	16
Index- or directory-based search engines	20
Multi- or meta-search engines	21
Visual search engines	22
Hidden, invisible or deep web search engines	23
Multimedia search engines	23
Social media search engines	24
Other search engines	25
Summary	25
3 The Google experience	27
Introduction	27
The experience	28
Google search: the basics	29
Google search: some advanced search functions	34

The difference between social media and other data	114
Engines to search for social media content	116
Twitter-specific search engines	120
Facebook Graph Search	123
Google+ search	127
Other subject-specific social search engines	129
Summary	132
8 Visual searching	135
Introduction	135
Traditional search engines	135
Free-text visual search engines	136
Visual search engines	137
Image search engines	141
Summary	149
9 Finding People	151
Introduction	151
Standard search engines	152
E-mail search engines	154
People finders	154
Social media tools	155
Finding people you don't know.	158
A search engine vanishing act	159
Summary	161
10 People-based resources	163
Introduction	163
Wikipedia	163
Question-and-answer sites	165
Summary	170
11 Academic and other specialized search engines	173
Introduction	173
Academic search engines	174
Search engines for children	180
Other specialized search engines	181
Summary	187
12 News-based search engines	189
Introduction	189
General search engines	191
Specialized news search engines	194
Newspapers and traditional media resources	199

Searching for file types	38
Search functionality via menu	39
Google's Advanced Search functions	41
'One-trick ponies'	43
Google Knowledge Graph	44
Other Google search resources	46
Other interesting Google functionality	56
The disadvantages of Google	59
Summary	61
4 Other free-text search engines	63
Introduction	63
Bing	63
Yahoo! Search	70
Blekkio	71
DuckDuckGo	72
Polyfetch	74
The Internet Archive or Wayback Machine	75
Exalead	76
Ask Jeeves	80
Other free-text search engine options	81
Summary	82
5 Directory- and category-based search engines	83
Introduction	83
Background to directory-based search engines	83
Their advantages and disadvantages	84
The Yahoo! Directory	85
The Open Directory Project	87
Other directory-based search engines	88
Category-based search engines	89
Similarity search engines	92
Summary	97
6 Multi- and meta-search engines	99
Introduction	99
Multi-search engines	100
Meta-search engines	105
Multimedia multi-search engines	107
The hidden, invisible or deep web	108
Summary	111
7 Social media search engines	113
Introduction	113

News curation tools	202
Summary	206
13 Multimedia search engines	207
Introduction	207
Traditional search engines	208
Video-specific search engines	209
Educational video search engines	212
Other video search options	215
Audio search engines	217
Summary	220
14 Hints and tips on better searching with sample search examples	221
Introduction	221
Hints and tips on better searching	221
Sample searches	229
Searching for unquantifiable information: tastes and interests	232
Other resources to test your searching skills	232
Summary	233
15 Search utilities and resources to make life easier	235
Introduction	235
Browser-based tools	235
Guiding tools	239
RSS	241
Home or start pages	242
Other browser-based search options	244
Web page watchers	246
The rise of apps	246
Resources for further study	248
16 The future of search	251
Introduction	251
The rise and rise of user-generated content	252
Currency and news	253
Where should we go?	254
Taking search with you	255
Through the eyes of search	260
Summary	261
Index	263