

CONTENTS

Attendant word	7
Preface	9
 1.1. Methods and Recommendations of Science of Criminalistics in Crime Investigation	11
Vidmantas Egidijus Kurapka, Snieguolė Matulienė
Eugenijus Palskys and science of criminalistics: from history to strategy	13
Stanislav Jalyshchev
Role of criminalistics in improving efficiency of prosecuting	27
Michail Ignatiev
Functions of criminalistical theory of causality	40
Vladimirs Terehovich, Elita Nimande
Logics of structure and content of criminalistics theory	47
Mindaugas Šatas
Some peculiarities of cooperation in relationship of prosecutor and pretrial investigator in Lithuania	56
Jurgita Baltrūnienė, Snieguolė Matulienė
The criminalistical characteristics of contraband criminal acts and practical aspects of crime disclosure	74
 1.2. Corruption – threats and challenges for democracy	89
Ryšardas Burda, Algimantas Kliunka
Problems of Lithuanian practice to investigate corruption	91
Tatjana Averjanova
Counteraction against crime investigation as one of the elements of corruption	103
Bachit Nurgaliyev, M. O. Nukenov
Modern schemes of corruption. Detection and investigation	111
Edita Gruodytė
Exertion of corruption in sectors of public service and public interests: theoretical and practical aspects of intermediarie's bribery	124
Marek Fryszak
Combating corruption in the Czech Republic in the period 2006–2012	136
Svetlana Kushnirenko
Problemic issues of utilisation of criminalistical measures for investigation of corruption ..	146
Gintarė Šatienė
Conception of criminalistical methodics of investigation of corruption: some problems and ways of development	159
Lina Novikovienė, Andrejus Novikovas
Implementation of the principle of transparency in public procurement – measure of corruption threat reduction	174
Eglė Bilevičiūtė, Tatjana Bilevičienė
The analyses of relationship of corruption offences with social and economical factors	184