

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter

1.	INTRODUCTION . . . . .	1
	Problem . . . . .	1
	Overview . . . . .	6
	Major Purpose . . . . .	6
	STATES OF MIND AND PRINCIPLE:
	The Setting of the Diamond: The Idea of a University . .	16
	Visual Approach . . . . .	22
	Structural SPECIMEN . . . . .	22
	Rhythm SPECIMEN . . . . .	23
	SPECIMENS . . . . .	25
	PRINCIPLES . . . . .	27
	STATES OF MIND . . . . .	29
	METHODS OF THOUGHT . . . . .	34
	Why PRINCIPLES/ STATES OF MIND/ METHODS OF THOUGHT? . . . .	37
	Style . . . . .	38
	Rhythm . . . . .	39
	Extraversion and Introversion . . . . .	40
	Oral Style . . . . .	43
	Writings . . . . .	45
2.	THE IDEA OF A UNIVERSITY WITH TEST CASES . . . . .	49
	Introduction to PRINCIPLE . . . . .	49
	SPECIMENS: Digression on Dangers . . . . .	50
	"Literature" from the Idea . . . . .	51
	PRINCIPLES . . . . .	52
	Historical Sketches - Visual Approach . . . . .	57
	Test Case on Idea . . . . .	60
	Test Case on Tamworth Reading Room . . . . .	61
	Introduction for Younger Readers: Mary Durkin . . . . .	66
	"Knowledge Viewed in Relation to Learning". . . . .	72
	Test Case on "A Genealogy of Morals" . . . . .	73
3.	APOLOGIA PRO VITA SUA: INTEGRITY OF MIND . . . . .	77
	A Letter to Pusey: Compromise with Integrity . . . . .	80
	Test Case on Apologia . . . . .	82
4.	CALLISTA . . . . .	97
	I. STATES OF MIND . . . . .	97
	II. METHODS OF THOUGHT . . . . .	102
	III. PRINCIPLES . . . . .	115

5. GRAMMAR: MAJOR SPECIMENS . . . . .	129
PRINCIPLES/ STATES OF MIND . . . . .	139
Digression on Purpose . . . . .	143
Visual Analysis/ METHODS OF THOUGHT/ Conclusion . . . . .	148
Grammar Misunderstood . . . . .	156
SPECIMEN on Logic/ METHODS OF THOUGHT . . . . .	162
6. TEST CASE ON SPIRITUALITY . . . . .	167
I. Change in Mandala . . . . .	168
II. Complexity is the Key . . . . .	170
III. Complex Assent . . . . .	176
7. TEST CASE ON TIME . . . . .	179
"The Second Spring" - Uses of Time: Real and Apocalyptic . . . . .	179
Table 1 Four Stages . . . . .	180
Table 2 Occurrences of Uses of Time by Category . . . . .	187
Appendix: Confirmation: Walgrave . . . . .	190
EPILOGUE/ FOREWORD . . . . .	195
NOTES . . . . .	199
BIBLIOGRAPHY . . . . .	211
INDEX . . . . .	215
PERMISSIONS . . . . .	219

INDEX

- Annan, Noel, 74, 76
- Brumbaugh, Robert, 179, 188
- Buckler, William, 38, 39
- Butler, William 13, 103, 149
- Calvino, Italo, 99, 100
- Carlyle, Thomas, 113
- de Chardin, Teilhard, 60
- Collins, Adele Yarbo, 180
- Collins, James, 6, 138, 143, 146, 157, 160, 161
- Craik, George, 51
- Donnelly, Francis, 3
- Durkin, Mary, 66, 67
- extravert, 8, 24, 25, 30, 40, 41, 42, 45, 190, 191
- Faber, Geoffrey, 114
- French, Marilyn, 169
- Frye, Northrop, 37
- Galton, Arthur, 79
- Garraghan, Gilbert, 50, 51, 52
- Gilbert, Neal, 162, 163, 164
- Harrold, Charles, 3, 5, 8, 38, 38, 39, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 90, 91, 94, 95, 96
- Himmelfarb, Gertrude, 73, 74, 76
- Holton, Gerald, 168
- Hopkins, Gerard, 43, 92
- Houghton, Walter, 3, 5, 8, 27, 38, 39, 40, 41, 80, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96
- introvert, 8, 24, 25, 30, 40, 42, 45, 189, 191
- Joyce, James, 6, 44, 169
- Landow, George, 179
- Lawrence, Karen, 6
- Loneragan, Bernard, 6, 73, 76
- method(s) of thought, 1, 2, 3, 4, 7, 10, 11, 15, 19, 20, 21, 25, 26, 27, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 41, 44, 49, 50, 56, 57, 58, 60, 63, 64, 65, 70, 72, 78, 79, 85, 93, 94, 97, 101, 102, 106, 112, 113, 116, 123, 126, 130, 131, 135, 139, 140, 145, 148, 149, 162, 166, 189, 190
- Mill, John Stuart, 40, 57
- Newman, John Henry, 1, "no more winning prose"; compared with Burke; atheism; link with other writers, Morley's passages provide; 2, singleness of purpose; atheism; liberalism, battle with; 3, war, waged by inquiry into faith and reason; see Oxford University Sermons; States of mind at Oxford; see Loss and Gain; atheism over time; see Callista; utilitarianism and religious exclusivity; see Idea; atheism; see Grammar; liberalism; see Apologia; specimens for states of mind, methods of thought, and principle; states of mind, Harrold on variety in; 4, Writing/reading approach to, not only way; Imitation, theory of, antecedent reasoning, illative sense, notional and real assent; states of mind, difficult to ascertain certainly; states of mind, more important than methods of thought; 5, specimen, typical and characteristic; illative sense and judgment; 6, great books, recognized by Lawrence, Joyce, and Loneragan; theme approach/on his own terms approach; belief beyond art form; 7, tolerance of error; "perfect handling of a theory"; theological dimension; defense of faith; ecumenism; 8, qualities of Grammar; value of Idea; prose teachers, epitome of subtle writer; introverted approach, yet open to extraverts; 9, playful; dialogue with Kingsley; background for Apologia; use of words; 10, best introduction, self; intelligible author, for all; state of mind at beginning of Apologia; 11, perennial Apologia after controversial; drama in Apologia; rhetorical and principled writing; state of mind, changed; 12, personal, academic, and literary disclosures; state of mind, rupturing; 13, issue with Froude; 14, principle, viewed as having life of own; 15, drama of Apologia seen through states of mind, methods of thought, and principle; Scott and Coleridge prepared English mind; 16, principle exemplified in Scott and Coleridge; state of mind exemplified in Scott, Coleridge and Knox; 18, View and state of mind and liberal education; 20, Knowledge defined; 21, limits of liberal knowledge, education; 24, rhetoric, Socrates and liberal education, 25, eloquence and liberal education; specimen approach; 26, organic style; 27, novum organon; principles; 28, principles in major works; 29, principle in major works; states of mind; state of mind; 30, states of mind; 31, states of mind in major works; 34, methods of thought; rhetorician; 36, organon; 37, principles; 38, states of mind, methods of thought; style; 39, style; rhythm; 40, extraversion, introversion; 41, introversion; 42, extraversion, introversion; 43, oral style; 44, conversational style; 45, writing; 46, Apologia, starting point; 47, criticized Sterne; criticized separation of thought and style; 50, poet and philosopher; 51, passionate; aim as writer to be clear and exact; 52, principle, use of principle; University's aim to discriminate; 53, oral before written recognized; science and spoken word contrasted; 54, Sterne foil for "Literature"; elaborate justifiable, rhetorical principles exemplified; 55, controversy in vain, usually; 57, visual approach helpful; 60, test case; 61, test case; 62, satire on Brougham and Peel; 62, states of mind used for handling variety of audiences; 64, faith and reason examined; 64, rhythm and structure achieved; 65, exemplars well used; 66, personal influence key message; 67, principle at heart of Idea; 70, positive nature of education shown; 71, liberal education's ambivalence noted; 77, state of mind, libel trial; 78, "experimentum crucis"; state of mind; method of thought; 79, Catholic Church, criterion for Anglicans; state of mind, principle; 80, integrity in style; hypocrisy, Victorian issue; compromise versus integrity; 81, principle, difference with Pusey; 82, states of mind and conscience; state of mind and knowing another; 83, dishonesty between Harrold and Houghton; 84, critical approach to twofold purpose of Apologia; purpose of Apologia in dispute between Harrold and Houghton; states of mind and method of thought; 85, states of mind, fundamental difference between Harrold and Houghton; 86, style, important difference between Harrold and Houghton; 87, syntax, well criticized by Houghton; states of mind; 88, Harrold claims "other aspects of his mind"; organic style; organic style, exemplified in Houghton's analysis; 89, organic style, future exemplified; 90, criticism by Houghton similar to Cleanth Brooks' approach to poetry; 91, search into, for critical theory; 92, oral writer, vulnerable to criticism; 93, critical theory shown in Oxford University Sermons; 94-95, impact of dishonesty on study of; 97-98, principles, states of mind and methods of thought in Callista; symbol of movement, ascent and descent; 98, symbol of movement, worked for Leslie Stephen; states of mind of Callista; 99, Manzoni;

101, "predominant passion" noted principles rejected; 102, symbol of movement used in defense against Fairbairn; defense within Grammar; atheism irrelevant to Grammar; atheism considered in Apologia; 103, states of mind in Grammar helped by Analogy of Religion; 104, openness to purpose of the writing ignored by Fairbairn; 105, symbol of movement key to conversion; 106, symbol of movement can be confused; 107, defense of indefectibility; organon needed beyond logic; 109, science and ordinary person appreciated; symbol of blindness; aware of levels of symbol; 110, states of mind not revealed immediately in Callista; 111, state of mind reveals growth in Callista; 112, principles and methods of thought consistent; 127, Good Shepherd, key symbol for; key principle of Grammar; distinguished inference and assent; 129, distinguished variation of assent and variations in inferences; used hypothesis contrary to fact; 131, grasped Locke and Hume's arguments, Gilson missed; rebutted supposed parallel case; 132, experiential approach; wrote for certitude; 135, method of thought by definition; 137, knew how to distinguish road to self knowledge; 138, in conflict with Gilson; 139, distinguished aspects; 140, valued principle in various works; 141, shaped not only by Froude but by Keble; 142, changed on graduated scale of assents; states of mind helpful in understanding; 143, all of writings versus theme approach; 144, theme approach followed; 145, writings chosen on twofold criteria; writings available for reader's use of approach; 146, used specimen approach; limits of principle agreement; 147, understood his influence; 148, separate good from evil; followed pattern in Grammar; 149, used principle; 156, Grammar misunderstood; 157, understood better due to Gilson's misinterpretation; 158, own exegese; 160, united four assents; 162, approach to liberalism; opposed to empiricism of Hume and Locke; 163, treated logic in Grammar; 165, considered same ground as Gilbert; 166, easier to read through organon.

Ong, Walter, 15, 43, 53

Pater, Walter, 7, 16, 27, 38, 39,
41, 42, 45, 51, 52, 63, 113,
193, 194

Plato, 17, 24, 37, 52, 60, 109, 110, 127, 137, 179

principle(s), 1, 2, 3, 4, 7, 9, 10,
11, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19,
20, 21, 25, 26, 27, 28, 34, 37,
38, 44, 49, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56,
57, 58, 60, 61, 63, 67, 79, 82,
94, 99, 101, 105, 106, 107, 108,
112, 115, 116, 117, 118, 123,
126, 129, 131, 133, 136, 139,
140, 141, 142, 145, 146, 149,
155, 165, 166, 173, 174, 175,
176, 177, 189, 190

Proust, Marcel, 191

Rahner, Karl, 146

Read, Herbert, 8, 27, 38, 39, 41,
43, 44, 45

Russell, Bertrand, 33

Sarason, Seymour, 132

Spark, Muriel, 50

specimen, 5, 22, 23, 25, 27, 49,
50, 56, 66, 70, 73, 75, 105, 124,
125, 129, 131, 132, 135, 140,
141, 142, 145, 148, 153, 155,
161, 166

state(s) of mind, 1, 2, 3, 4, 9,
10, 11, 12, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18,
19, 20, 21, 25, 26, 27, 29, 30,
31, 33, 34, 37, 38, 44, 50, 56,
60, 61, 62, 63, 65, 66, 70, 71,
72, 77, 79, 80, 82, 85, 89, 90,
93, 94, 97, 98, 99, 101, 103,
106, 109, 110, 111, 115, 116,
117, 118, 119, 120, 121, 122,
123, 124, 125, 126, 127, 129,
131, 135, 137, 138, 139, 140,
141, 142, 143, 145, 149, 153,

159, 166, 174
 Stephen, Leslie, 5, 74, 76, 97,
 98, 101, 139, 146
 Strickland, Geoffrey, 4, 5

Ward, Maisie, 29
 Wilberforce, Samuel, 40, 41