

Contents

List of Abbreviations

xiii

Introduction

Historiography: Gangs, Drugs, and the Making of the Turkish State	4
Historiography: Turkey and the Wider World of Organized Crime	7
Historiography: Turkey and the Wider World of Narcotics	13
A Note on Sources and an Outline of Chapters	15

1. The Imperial Origins of the “Turkish Mafia”	19
Contextualizing Criminal Syndicates and the (Un-)Making of the Ottoman Empire	21
The Politics of Ottoman Macedonia and the Origins of the Modern “Çete”	25
Portrait of a Bandit: Migration, Ethnicity, and the Ottoman Roots of Turkish Organized Crime	29
Paramilitarism and the Politics of Ottoman Wartime Security	36
Smugglers, Neighborhood Toughs, and Other Foundational Elements of Turkish Organized Crime	41
The Imperial Roots of Turkish Organized Crime in a Global Context	47
2. Turkey, the United States, and the Birth of the Heroin Trade	53
The Ottoman Empire and the Making of the Modern Opium Trade	55
The Vanguard of Prohibition: The United States, Opium, and the Building of the Federal Bureau of Narcotics	59
The First French Connection: Turkey, the United States, and the Prewar Opium Trade	65
Turkey in the Context of the Interwar Drug Trade	75
3. The French Connection	82
The First Babas : The Wholesalers and Chemists of Istanbul	84
Farmers and Smugglers: Rural Opium and the Turkish Black Market	93
Heroin's Middle Passage: Syria, Lebanon, and the Turkish Opium Trade	101
Beirut, Marseille, Montreal, New York: Turkish Heroin, the Corsican Mafia, and the Blossoming of the North American Underworld	105
“A Common Habit of an Eastern People”: The Iran–Turkey Connection	112
Heroin, Cocaine, and the Early Cold War Years: Turkey within a Global Context	119

4. Police Work: Counter-narcotics Operations and Intelligence Gathering in the Early Cold War	128
Agents, Budgets, and Methods: Critical Factors in the Making of the FBN's Crusade in Turkey, 1945–67	133
Narcotics and National Security in Postwar Turkey	143
Building Cases: The First Years of FBN/DPS Collaboration	153
Corruption and Espionage	163
A Point of Reckoning: The 1960 Coup and the Fall of Kemal Aygün	172
The Lost Decade: FBN/DPS Investigations in the 1960s	174
Acceptable Losses: Turkey, Counter-narcotics and the Cold War	180
5. The Great Turn: The Transformation of Heroin and Organized Crime in the 1970s	185
The War on Drugs Begins: Nixon, Turkey, and the Opium Crisis of the Early 1970s	187
Dissecting the Heroin Epidemic: Turkey and Changing Patterns of the International Drug Trade	205
The New Babas : Violence, Clandestine Politics, and the Birth of the "Turkish Mafia"	217
Making Sense of the 1970s: Conclusions, Sources, and Comparisons	231
Conclusion: The Deep State and Its Discontents: Heroin and Organized Crime in the Contemporary Age	239
From Susurluk to Ergenekon: Revelations from Turkey's Deep State	246
The Deep State Abroad: Organized Crime within Contemporary "Deep" Political Debates	261
Bibliography	271
Index	287