

Preface	VII
Introduction	1
A Biographical Sketch	9
1. Norm and Fact. How are Norm and Fact, Morality and Religion Related in Masaryk's Thought?	14
1. Introduction	14
2. Norm and Human Nature	14
3. Norm and Social Reality (History)	19
4. First Conclusion	28
5. Morality and Religion	29
6. Second Conclusion	35
2. Humanity. An Analysis of the Key Concept of Masaryk's Social and Political Philosophy	38
3. Humanity, National Identity and Nationalism	48
1. Introduction	48
2. The Political-Historical Framework	49
3. Humanity and Nationalism	52
4. Humanity and National Identity	57
5. The Development of the Idea of National Identity as a Political Idea	61

4. Humanity and Socialism	69
1. Introduction	69
2. Masaryk and the Social Question; Masaryk and Socialism	69
3. Masaryk and Marxism	83
5. Humanity and Democracy	101
1. Introduction	101
2. Political and Social Democracy	102
3. The Justification of Democracy	113
1. Myth and Science; Theology and Philosophy	114
2. Aristocracy and Democracy in Relation to Theology and Philosophy	116
6. Humanity and Revolution: The Problem of Violent Revolution as a Means of Creating Political and/or Social Change	126
1. Introduction	126
2. Masaryk's Normative Theory of Revolution; His Controversy with A. Hajn	128
3. Masaryk's Criticism of the Marxist Theory of Revolution	134
4. Masaryk's Normative Theory of Revolution in its Final Form	137
5. Masaryk's Theory of Revolution Checked against his Attitude towards Austria in the Years 1914-1918	141
6. Masaryk's Theory of Revolution Tested against his Attitude towards Revolutionary Bolshevism	147

Bibliography	155
---------------------	-----