Preface to the second edition.....	xi
Acknowledgements.....	xiii
Introduction	xv
Setting the context.....	xvii
The research hierarchy.....	xvii
Overview of contents.....	xx
 Part 1 Starting the research process	 1
1 Major research paradigms.....	5
Introduction.....	5
Positivist research	6
Postpositivism and mixed methods research (MMR).....	9
Interpretivist research.....	11
Qualitative or quantitative methodology?.....	13
Qualitative research design	14
Quantitative research design	18
Mixed methods research	18
Criteria for judging research	20
Establishing trustworthiness in qualitative research.....	21
Establishing rigour in quantitative research.....	22
Summary.....	23
Practical exercise.....	23
Suggested further reading	24
 2 Reviewing literature.....	 25
Introduction.....	25
Information searching and retrieval	27
Evaluation.....	28
Critical analysis	29
Synthesizing the research: developing a theoretical framework.....	33
Summary.....	36
Practical exercise.....	36

Suggested further reading	37
3 Defining the research	39
Introduction	39
Designing a conceptual framework	40
The research hypothesis	41
Research aims and objectives	44
Summary	47
Practical exercise	47
Suggested further reading	48
4 The research proposal	49
Why write a proposal?	49
Structure of a research proposal	50
The proposal as a research framework	56
Summary	56
Practical exercise	57
Suggested further reading	58
5 Sampling	59
Why sample?	59
Population and sample	60
Probability sampling	61
Purposive sampling	64
Summary	66
Practical exercise	67
Suggested further reading	69
6 Research Data Management	71
Julie McLeod, Sue Childs and Elizabeth Lomas
Introduction – research data and its management challenges	71
Why is research data management important?	74
The research process, data lifecycles and research data management	78
How do I manage my research data?	81
Summary	84
Practical exercise	84
Websites referred to in this chapter	85
Suggested further reading	86
7 Ethics in research	87
Introduction	87
Gaining access to the field	88

Informed consent	89
Anonymity or confidentiality?	92
Protecting participants	93
Ethics online.....	94
Summary.....	95
Practical exercise	96
Suggested further reading	96
Part 2 Research methods	97
8 Case studies	101
Introduction.....	101
Phases in case study research	103
Summary.....	108
Practical exercise	110
Suggested further reading	110
9 Surveys.....	111
Introduction.....	111
Descriptive surveys	112
Explanatory surveys	112
The survey process.....	114
Summary.....	116
Practical exercise	117
Suggested further reading	117
10 Experimental research	119
Introduction.....	119
The nature of causality.....	120
The true experiment	121
Quasi-experimental design: the 'effects study'	123
Summary.....	125
Practical exercise	125
Suggested further reading	125
11 Usability testing	127
Introduction.....	127
Quasi-experimental usability studies	127
Cognitive walkthroughs.....	129
Heuristic evaluation	131
Summary.....	133
Practical exercise	134
Suggested further reading	134

12 Ethnography	135
Introduction.....	135
Components of ethnographic study.....	137
Virtual ethnography – ‘netnography’	143
Ethics in ethnography.....	145
Summary.....	146
Practical exercise.....	146
Suggested further reading.....	147
13 Delphi study	149
Introduction.....	149
The Delphi process.....	150
Rules of a Delphi study	152
Modifying a Delphi study	153
Delphi studies and new technologies.....	153
Summary.....	154
Practical exercise.....	155
Suggested further reading.....	155
14 Action research	157
Introduction.....	157
The action research cycle	158
Trustworthiness in action research	163
Action research as reflective practice	164
Summary.....	165
Practical exercise.....	165
Suggested further reading.....	166
15 Historical research	167
Introduction.....	167
The research process	169
Summary.....	176
Practical exercise	176
Suggested further reading.....	177
16 Grounded theory: method or analysis?	179
Introduction.....	179
Defining grounded theory.....	180
Summary.....	186
Practical exercise	187
Suggested further reading.....	187

17 Interviews	195
Introduction	195
What is the purpose of an interview?	196
The seven stages of the interview process	196
Online interviewing	203
Summary	205
Practical exercise	205
Suggested further reading	206
18 Questionnaires	207
Introduction	207
Designing questionnaires	208
Developing questions	210
Scale items	211
Forms of questionnaire	222
Summary	223
Practical exercise	224
Suggested further reading	224
19 Observation	225
Introduction	225
The role of the observer	226
Recording what you see; going in with signposts	231
Summary	232
Practical exercise	232
Suggested further reading	233
20 Diaries	235
Introduction	235
The purpose of diaries in research	236
Participant diaries	236
The researcher's log	238
Structure and recording	239
Summary	240
Practical exercise	241
Suggested further reading	241
21 Focus groups	243
Introduction	243
Purpose of a focus group	243
Organizing a focus group	245
Online focus groups	246

Summary.....	248
Practical exercise	248
Suggested further reading	249
22 Analysis of existing, externally created material.....	251
Andrew K. Shenton
Introduction.....	251
The different supporting roles of documents	251
LIS research principally based on documents.....	253
Citation analysis	254
Logs associated with computer software and the use of ICT	256
Summary.....	259
Practical exercise	260
Suggested further reading	260
Part 4 Data analysis and research presentation	263
23 Qualitative analysis	267
Introduction.....	267
Phenomenological strategies	268
Ethnographic methods	268
Narrative and discourse analysis	269
Constant comparative analysis	269
Memo writing.....	274
Presenting qualitative findings	274
Software for qualitative analysis.....	278
Summary.....	280
Practical exercise	280
Suggested further reading	281
24 Quantitative analysis	283
Introduction.....	283
Levels of measurement.....	284
Frequency distribution.....	286
Cross-tabulation	287
Measures of central tendency	288
Measures of dispersion	291
Correlation.....	293
Displaying data	293
Testing for statistical significance.....	299
Software for quantitative analysis	303
Summary.....	306
Practical exercise	306
Suggested further reading	310

25 Presenting the research	311
Introduction.....	311
Planning the final report.....	312
Form and structure.....	312
Summary.....	316
Suggested further reading.....	316
Part 5 Glossary and references	317
Glossary of research terms.....	319
References.....	329
Index	347
