

Contents

Preface and Acknowledgement	3
1 Strategic Approach to International Construction	9
1.1 General Outcomes and Goals.....	9
1.2 International Construction Contracting	11
1.3 Construction Industry's Overall Strategic Characteristics and Specifics with the Emphasis on International Projects	13
1.4 Forms of Project Delivery Arrangements Used in International Contracting	16
1.5 Strategic Review of the Czech Construction Export	19
1.6 Strategic Factors Preventing a Quicker Increase of the Czech Construction Export	22
1.7 Chapter Summary	24
2 Export Financing in International Construction	29
2.1 Introduction	29
2.1.2 Exporting in Construction	29
2.1.3 Increasing role of subsidized export credits in international construction	30
2.2 Research Motivation	31
2.2.1 Construction market development in the EU	31
2.2.2 Construction market development in the Czech Republic	32
2.3 Research Methodology	33
2.4 National Export Strategy	34
2.4.1 Priority countries	34
2.4.2 Countries of interest	35
2.4.3 Knowledge and data management	35
2.5 Export Financing Concept in the Czech Republic	36

2.5.1	CEB – Czech Export Bank	36
2.5.2	EGAP – Export Credit Agency (ECA)	37
2.5.3	Buyer's credit	38
2.5.4	Export Credit Agencies (ECAs) and their role in export finance	41
2.6	OECD Consensus on Export Credits	43
2.6.1	Background of OECD Consensus	43
2.6.2	Subsidized interest rates of export credits	43
3	Case Studies on Export Financing	47
3.1	CASE STUDY 1 - PSJ, a.s. Delivers an OSB Manufacturing Plant to the Russian Federation	47
3.1.1	Company introduction	47
3.1.2	Company's internationalization	47
3.1.3	PSJ in the Russian Federation	49
3.1.4	Access to bids	50
3.1.5	Invitation to tenders	50
3.1.6	Project background	51
3.1.7	Project planning	51
3.1.8	Negotiations with EGAP and CEB	52
3.1.9	Difficulties with the rules set by CEB and EGAP	53
3.1.10	Financing structure	54
3.1.11	Success in the tender	55
3.1.12	Project delivery	56
3.1.13	Conclusion of Case Study 1	57
3.2	CASE STUDY 2 – PSG in the Russian Federation	61
3.2.1	Company introduction	61
3.2.2	Company's internationalization	63
3.2.3	Motivation for foreign markets entry	64
3.2.4	Russian Federation	64
3.2.5	PSG in the Russian Federation	65
3.2.6	Barriers and difficulties	65
3.2.7	Projects	66
3.2.8	Delivery of combined power plants for private investors	66
3.2.9	Strategic approach	68

3.2.10	Financing Structure – Case Study 2a	69
3.2.11	Financing Structure – Case Study 2b	71
3.3	CASE STUDY 3 Barka III and Sohar II – Siemens Delivers Two Combined Cycle Power Plants in Oman	74
3.3.1	Company introduction	75
3.3.2	Sultanate of Oman	76
3.3.3	Export financing concept in Germany	77
3.3.4	Siemens in Oman	80
3.3.5	Siemens – EPC Contractor	81
3.3.6	Financing Structure.....	82
3.3.7	Conclusion of Case Study 3	86
3.4	Chapter Summary	87
4	Priority Markets	91
4.1	Introduction	91
4.2	Sources of information	91
4.2.1	Internet	91
4.2.2	Seminars and meetings	92
4.2.3	Fairs	92
4.2.4	Consulting firms	92
4.3	Selected Priority Markets	92
4.3.1	Turkey	93
4.3.2	Vietnam	97
4.3.3	Ukraine	100
4.3.4	Belarus	102
4.3.5	India	105
4.3.6	Russia	108
5	Risk Management Implementation for International Business 113
5.1	Introduction	113
5.2	Changing Strategy	114
5.3	Emerging Markets	115

5.4 Foreign Environment	116
5.5 Flow of Risk Management	119
5.5.1 Risk Identification	121
5.5.2 Risk Analysis	122
5.6 Risk Register & Response	123
5.7 Specific Risks for International Business	124
5.7.1 Political Risks	124
5.7.2 Foreign Exchange Risks	125
5.7.3 Cross Cultural Risks	125
5.8 Black Swan	125
5.9 Chapter Summary	126