

Contents

Acknowledgments 7

Introduction—Wes Avram 9

Is It Time to Pay Attention?

1. The New American Empire: The Likely Consequences of the “Bush Doctrine”—Robert N. Bellah 21
2. On Getting Past the Preamble: One Reading of the Strategy—Wes Avram 27
3. Thoughts in the Presence of Fear—Wendell Berry 43
4. Shock and Awe: Life in Mr. Rumsfeld’s Neighborhood—James Hudnut-Beumler 49

What Must We Know?

5. Loving Neighbors in a Globalized World: U.S. Christians, Muslims, and the Mideast—David L. Johnston 59
6. Selling America, Restricting the Church—Michael L. Budde 79

How Might We Talk?

7. Imperial Exegesis: When Caesar Interprets Scripture—Stephen B. Chapman 91
8. “The Most Intolerable of Insults”: Remarks to Christian Infidels in the American Empire—Eugene McCarraher 103

And If There's No Going Back?

9. On the True Globalism and the False, or Why Christians Should Not Worry So Much about American Imperialism—
Stephen H. Webb 119
10. International Justice as Equal Regard and the Use of Force—
Jean Bethke Elshtain 129

Whither the Church?

11. Who Are We? Being Christian in an Age of Americanism—
Allen R. Hilton 147
12. Pastors, Prophets, and Patriotism: Leading Pastorally during
These Times—Arthur Paul Boers 159
13. Empire's Sleepy Embrace: The View from the Pew—Lillian
Daniel 173

Appendix: The National Security Strategy of the United States of America (September 17, 2002) 187

Contributors 217