

Contents

1	Multiculturalism as a Way of Life	5
	Towards Policy Formation 5; What Critics are Saying, and It's Not Always Nice 13
2	Multiculturalism in Theory and Practice	27
	Building a Framework 27; Developments in Multicultural Studies 34; Some Projections 37
3	Understanding Ethnicity	41
	Defining Ethnicity 41; The Quandry of Minority Status 53; Practical Approaches 64
4	Teaching Multicultural Education	73
	Contemporary Approaches 74; A Tolerance for Process 78; Practical Principles for Multicultural Teaching 80
5	Multiculturalism as a North American Challenge	93
6	The Charter Nations: A Prevailing Clash	103
	The First Clash 103; The French Perspective 107; The British Perspective 108; Developments in the West: The Role of Schooling 112; The Perpetual Clash 119
7	The Hutterites: Avoiding a Cultural Clash	125
	Hutterian Beginnings 126; A Hutterite Statement of Faith 128; Social Organization 133; Hutterite Cultural Retention 141
8	Mennonites in Canada: Intra-Community Pluralism	149
	A Compendium of Mennonite Groups in Canada 151; Mennonite Cultural Distinctives 155; Mennonite Philosophy of Education: A Continuum 158
9	The Chinese in Calgary: Schooling for Cultural Identity . . .	167
	Kim Sheung-King Lan The Study: Chinese Language Schools as an Agent in Promoting Cultural Identity 171; Research Methodology 179; Analysis of Data 181; Correlation Between Personal Data Variables and Ethnic Self-Identity 188; Conclusions 193
10	The Sikh Community: A Case Study of Cultural Persistence	195
	Sikh Origins 196; The People as Guru 203; Sikhs Today 206
11	Postscript: Expanding Multiculturalism	211