

Contents

PREFACE ix

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS xii

DEFINITIONS OF TERMS xiv

MAP OF THE WEST INDIES xvi

Introduction 3

Part One: Background, Theoretical Focus, and Outline of the Book 9

1

Theoretical Framework 11

2

Immigration and the Immigration Process 27

3

After Immigration: Identity and Culture Shock 43

Part Two: Life in Canada 55

4

Marriage, Relationships, and Family Organization 57

viii Contents

5

The Impact of Racism on Employment 102

6

The Educational Experiences of Caribbean Youth 120

7

Religion 148

8

Leisure and Social Life 167

9

The Illegal Subculture 182

10

Relations with Police, Justice, and the Courts 201

11

Coping Mechanisms: Strategies of Adaptation to Canadian Society 226

12

Coping Mechanisms for Racism at the Individual Level 248

13

Summary and Conclusions 268

APPENDIX A: Description of the Interview Sample 279

APPENDIX B: Caribbean Community Institutions in Toronto 281

REFERENCES 285

INDEX 294

Index

- Abella report, 116
Agard, R., 238-40
Arawak Indians, 3
- Barbados, numbers from, 28
'blame victim' explanations, x, 15;
and family, 100-1
Breton, R., et al., 13-14, 53
- Canada: attitudes to, 32-3, 43f;
satisfaction with life in, 34, 46-50, 271-2
Carib Indians, 3
Caribana, 7, 178-80, 209; White participation in, 179 Caribbean: 'pathological' culture patterns, 25; people in U.K., 18-21; people in U.S., 18;
unemployment in, 5-6 class: closing class gap, 243; differentiations, 57, 59, 61; middle, 209, 216-18; and police, 201,
207-17; relationship of class/race
21-2; religion and class affiliation, 150, 157; retention of class patterns, 63, 99; social class divisions, 268-71; working, 208.
- See also* stratification patterns colonialism: in the Caribbean, 4f; of plantations in the Caribbean, 5; of plantocracy, 4 community services: Black Perspectives, 237; cultural services, 246-7
Cosmos, Lord, 45
Creoles, 4 crime, racialization of, 218-22; and the media, 219-20; in U.K., 218-19
Cross, M., 19f cultural continuity, x, 17, 272-3 culture, 246-7 culture shock, 44-5; and identity, 43-56
- Dann, G., 62
differential incorporation, 10f; in Canada, 13; community response to, 17; definition of, 11, 14, 17; summary of, 273-7; in U.K., 20-1 drug: couriers, 191, 195; dealers, 191-5; rounders, 195
- education, 121-47; adjustments and transitions in Canada, 126-7, 130;

- Black parents' concerns with, 124;
 Caribbean background in, 125-6, 129, 131; culture shock, 132; discipline in, 127-8, 130; and family expectations, 130-1;
 qualifications and immigration, 121-3; and racism, 123, 132-9; and racism in curriculum, 139-42; and student isolation, 123; subcultures in, 123-5, 142-5
- employment, 102-20; effects of age and gender in, 105-6; and entrepreneurship, 112-16; and ethnicity, 110-11; evidence of discrimination in, 116-19; financial problems in, 109-10; and income levels, 105; and labour force participation, 103-4; racial harassment in, 107-8; and racism, 106-19; and work status by sex, 103-4
- Employment Equity Act, 117-18
- entrepreneurship: in Toronto, 112-16; in U.K., 114-15
- Essed, P., 23-5
- ethnic identity, 233
- ethnicity, 10f, 14, 233; changes in,
 248-51; and dual allegiance, 254-6; and factors influencing identity, 252-4; and personal identity, 256-62; and youth identity, 251-2
- family, 57-101; and absent fathers, 73-7; attitudes towards mother, 77-80; and blame the victim approaches, 100-1; and Caribbean patterns, 57f; changes with migration, 63; and class differentiations, 57, 59, 61; composition, 64, 91-3; and double-lap migration, 84-6; and imposition of British values, 72; and income, 64-5, 69; and interracial relationships, 93, 97; and marriage, 58; and marriage breakdown, 86-91; matrifocal, 59;
 and non-legal unions, 59; nuclear, 59, 78, 91; and partner selection in Canada, 93; retention of class patterns in, 63, 99; role of mother in, 77-80; separation and reunification of, 80-6; of single female parent, 62, 65-73, 91
- Ginzberg, E., 116, 147
- Gordon, M., 14
- Guyana, number of immigrants from, 27-8
- Haiti, number of immigrants from, 28
- Hall, S., 20, 199-200, 217-18, 260-1
- Harambee, 238-9
- Henry, F., 116, 147
- identity, 126-7, 248-62; changing nature of, 248-51; and culture shock, 43-56; and dual allegiance, 254-6; and influential factors, 252-4; personal, 256-61; and youth, 251-2
- immigrant characteristics, 30-1
- immigrants, illegal, 40-2
- immigration, 27-42; and contact with home country, 44; and double-lap migration, 32; and effects on families, 84-6; indicators of, 51; negative

- attitudes towards, 35-8; and point system, 27; and racism, 35f; and return migration, 43f
- Indo-Caribbean, x, xiv, 148
- institutional completeness, 229-34; and community closure, 232; and Eglinton strip, 231-2
- island associations, 226-35
- Jamaica, number of immigrants from, 28
- Jamaican Canadian Association, 114, 236
- justice system, and the courts, 206, 216-18
- Kuper, L., 11-12
- leisure, 167-81; and block parties, 173; in the Caribbean, 167-9; changes in Toronto, 175-7; and house parties, 169-72; and school dances, 172; in Toronto, 169; in warehouses and after-hours clubs, 174
- marriage: see family
- men, in the Caribbean, 62
- methodology, 6-9; and description of interview sample, 279-80; and interviews, 6; and participant observation, 7; and quantitative data, 7
- networking, 226-9; in church, 228; and ethnicity, 227; and kinship, 228; in shops, 228-9
- pluralism, 11f
- police: and Black Action Defence Committee, 224; and Caribbean communities, 201-25; and crime statistics, 204-5; encounters with, 202-3; and middle class, 209, 216-18; shootings, 213, 224; and social class, 201, 207-17; and war on drugs, 203-5; with women, 214-16; and working class, 208
- political participation, of Caribbean community, 244-6
- poverty: in the Caribbean, 5; and effects on families, 64-5, 69
- race, mixed, 4
- racism: and antiracism groups, 266-7; coping with, 226, 248-67; cultural/ideological, 25; defined, 22-5; in education, 132-42; in employment, 106-16; everyday, 23; in housing, 230; individual, 23; institutional/systemic, 24; managing, 277-8; and racial harassment, 263-4; Rastafarianism, 149
- religion, 148-66; African-derived (Shango), ix, 148; in the Caribbean, 148-51; and class affiliation, 150, 157; and fundamentalism in Toronto, 158-65; and gender, 150; multicultural church, 153-6; Protestant denominations, 152-3; and racism, 154; and survival strategies, 240-3
- residential concentration, in Toronto, 29
- Richmond, A.H., xiii, 7
- Roots subculture, 17, 143-5
- Simmons, A., xiii

- slavery: abolition of, 5; in the Caribbean, 4; and effects on family, 61
- Smith, M.G., 11
- Smith, R.T., 58
- Spiritual Baptist, 148, 158-65
- stratification patterns, 11, 21, 58; defined, xv; and middle class, 201, 209, 216-18; and police, 208; and relationship of race/class, 21-2; theoretical literature on, 22; and underclass, 16; and working class, 16
- subculture, illegal, 182-200; and booze cans, 184, 196; and clubs/parties in Toronto, 183, 185-8, 196; defined, 182; and drug dealers, 191-5; and hustlers, 190-1, 199; interpreted, 197-200; and shoplifting, 197; on the streets, 188-90
- survival strategies, 226-47; in Canada, 226-47; and closing class gap, 243; and institutional completeness, 229-34; and island associations, 226-35; and networking, 226-9; and religion, 240-3; and residential concentration, 226; in U.K., 20
- Toronto Star* survey, 46-52, 53f
- Trinidad, number of immigrants from, 28
- Trotman, D., xii
- Williams, D., xii
- women: in the Caribbean, 59-62; and multiplicity of roles, 60